Dear Ms. Hopkins:

Please allow this letter to serve as follow up to our conversation this morning regarding our requirements for filing our Petition for Rehearing this Friday, September 28, 2012 with the South Carolina Supreme Court. It is my understanding based on our conversation that Appellants Counsel is not required to include a Table of Contents or a Table of Authority with our Petition; and such decision for filing one is at the sole discretion of the attorney filing. It is also my understanding the Petition is not required to be bound in any specific fashion.
