RE: State v. Derek Vander Collier, Appellate Case No. 2015-000184

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I filed a Proof of Service of the Record on Appeal in the above case on April 20, 2016. While printing the copies of the Record on Appeal to be filed, I discovered that I had inadvertently failed to redact certain personal information. I redacted that information and made no other substantive changes to the Record on Appeal. Therefore, the Office of Appellate Defense (who is handling the printing for this Appellate Practice Project case) will be serving a new copy of the Record on Appeal on opposing counsel tomorrow. I would ask that the Court consider tomorrow as the date the Proof of Service was filed so that opposing counsel may have twenty days from tomorrow to file his final briefs.

With kind regards, I remain

Very truly yours,

John L. Warren III
