In Re: Century Capital Group v. Midtown Development, et al. - 3/12/16

(I'm afraid I was moving too quickly when I sent my response letter earlier this evening. As a result, there's a line in there that makes no sense -- two separate price quotes, in fact. Just ignore that first email and use what follows instead. Thanks!)

Dear Mr. Oates:

Thank you for your request. I have reviewed my records, and a rough estimate of this transcript is 42 pages. Based on the current rate of $3.25 per page, I estimate the cost will be $136.50.

Under our rules, I have 60 days in which to complete the work. Upon receipt of a check from your law firm, the 60 days begin. If I have underestimated the number of pages, I will send an invoice with your transcript. If I have overestimated the number of pages, I will include a reimbursement check.

In the event I need additional time to complete the transcript, I will request an extension from Court Administration. You will be notified if the request is granted.

Cordially,
Elizabeth B. Harris, CVR-M
Fifth Judicial Circuit, At-large
