

SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

Appellate Case No. 2014-002776

RECEIVED

JAN 19 2016

Loushonda Myers,

SC Court of Appeals

In Propria Persona, Sui Juris, Claimant

Vs.

NOTICE

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

Fictitious Entity.

I, LouShonda Myers, am submitting this notice to the Court in regards to a correspondence from V. Claire Allen, a Deputy Clerk, in regards to the transcript in this matter. I have previously petitioned the court for the transcript at no cost, but that petition was denied. I informed the Court that I was unable to pay the costs of the transcript, and arranged payments for the transcript. I have sent notices in regards to the payments that have been made, and as of yet the full costs of the transcript has not been paid.

It is my position that I have made the Court aware that I was unable to pay the costs of the transcript and that I would have to arrange payments. In addition, this appeal is of Right and my inability to afford a transcript should not hinder me from the Court or being heard therein. It is my intention to obtain the transcript, however I cannot afford the costs upfront. In addition, I have missed days of work due to medical reasons, and will need more time.

Therefore, this notice is to inform the court as to the status of the transcript and the fact that I cannot prepare an initial brief without the transcript at hand. I am also informing the court that I will be preparing a demand to proceed without paying the costs of the transcript. Again, notices have been sent in regards to the transcript in question, however they are not show on scourts.org C-Track Public Access.
