The Honorable Ralph Stroman
Georgetown, Horry County
Trial Court Case No. 2014CP2200685, 2014cp2604835

I Cornelius is moving this court for a motion to re-instate the appeal case for the following reasons:

1. As of April 1, 2016 the letter that I received concerning the transcript, I have been trying to retrieve the correct information on who the court reporter was, I contacted the clerk of the court for Georgetown county, the Honorable Ralph Stroman and the respondents attorney. No one would give the information on who the court reporter was because they claimed they did not know.
2. As you can see, I made a motion to this court to compel the respondent's attorney to give me the court reporter information, because the respondent's attorney was the person that was responsible and had brought the court reporter to the hearing. So there is no way possible for Robert Kerr the respondent attorney not to know who the court reporter was and how to get in contact with the court reporter.
3. As a result of Robert Kerr's action it has jeopardized my ability to seek due process in this court and I will be filing a grievance against Robert Kerr to the Bar Association of South Carolina concerning his unethical practice.

For the reasons that I have listed above, I pray that this court will re-instate the appeal, so that I can continue with the due process that is so much needed concerning this case. As you can see based upon the documents that I have mailed to this court , it seems as though it took much longer for the mail to be delivered in a timely fashion from Georgetown SC to Columbia SC. I pray that all of these issues be taken into account in your decision to re-instate this appeal.
