

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF CHARLESTON

THE HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF CHARLESTON,

Plaintiff - Respondent,

vs.

KOEBY K. WILLIAMSON,

Defendants - Appellant.

SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

CASE NO.: 2015-001714

THE HOUSING AUTHORITY OF
THE CITY OF CHARLESTON'S
MEMORANDUM IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR REHEARING

RECEIVED

MAY 06 2016

SC Court of Appeals

COMES NOW, Plaintiff - Respondent The Housing Authority of the City of Charleston, by and through its counsel of record, THEODORE PARKER, III, ESQ. and JACQUELINE DIXON PHILLIPS, ESQ., of the law firm of PARKER NELSON & ASSOCIATES, CHTD., and hereby files this memorandum in opposition to Appellant's Motion for Rehearing.

Appellant's grounds for rehearing are insufficient and do not support the Court granting his request. Appellant argues that because he is pro se, he was unaware of the Rules governing the appeals process. Mr. Williamson took it upon himself to file this appeal and represent himself, and he should therefore have undertaken to familiarize himself with the applicable rules at that time. He also argues that he is disabled and receives no benefits and had to get a loan in order to pay for the transcript. Again, Appellant should have familiarized himself with the applicable rules prior to filing his appeal and obtained the necessary funds to do so in a timely manner.

This is the second time that Appellant has used the same grounds to circumvent the proper procedure for pursuing an appeal in this Court. The Court has already been lenient in granting him an extension to order the transcript for this matter in the first instance. Mr. Williamson has had ample opportunity to familiarize himself with the Rules and abide by them.

Based on the foregoing, Appellant's motion should not be granted and his appeal should be dismissed.

DATED this 2nd day of May, 2016.
