Appellate Case No. 2016-000258

ORDER

Appellant's motion to amend the caption is granted. The caption is amended as set forth above.

Respondents Longlands Plantation a.k.a. Knollwood, Inc., and Sussex Insurance Company, formerly Companion Property and Casualty Group, ("Employer and Carrier") have filed a petition for a writ supersedeas, asking that this court stay the payment of death benefits pending the resolution of this appeal pursuant to Rule 241(c), SCACR. After careful review of the parties' filings, the petition for a writ of supersedeas is granted to the extent that Employer and Carrier's attorney shall hold the death benefits in escrow until this appeal is resolved.
