RE: The State v. Raymond Chestnut (2)

Appellate case No. 2015-001885

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am in receipt of your letter dated May 3rd, 2016, which I received on May 10th, in the above-referenced matter. You advised that my initial brief and designation of matter has not been served or filed and that I update the court with the status of the initial brief and designation of matter within ten (10) days from May 3rd. In response to your letter, please be so advised that I was unaware that my initial brief and designation of matter were due to be served or filed. However, I am absolutely not sure what court order from the lower court that I appealed so I definitely need for you to check the records and let me know exactly what court order this appeal is in regards to. Also, please be advised that I need an extension of time to serve and file my initial brief and designation of matter until I am able to gather all the information needed to serve and file the initial brief and designation of matter.

Thanks for your assistance in this matter and I look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Sincerely

Raymond Chestnut
