RE: The state v. Raymond Chestnut (4)
Appellate case No. 2015-002233

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am in receipt of your letter dated May 3rd, 2016, which I received on May 10th, in reference to the above matter. You advised that my initial brief and designation of matter has not been served or filed and that I update the court with the status of the initial brief and designation of matter within ten (10) days from May 3rd. In response to your letter I would like to advise that I was unaware that my initial brief and designation of matter were due to be served or filed. However, I am actually not even sure what court order from the lower court that I appealed so I definitely need for you to check the records and let me know exactly what court order this appeal is in regards to. Also, I am requesting an extension of time to serve and file my initial brief and designation of matter until I receive the content or details of what court order I appealed.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter and I look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Sincerely

Raymond Chestnut
