re: Request/Petition (in the form of this letter) requesting the Court to hold this matter in 'abeyance'...

Dear, Ms. Kitchings,

Please, before a further on any ruling that the Court would hold the matter in 'abeyance', until it can be discovered, what became of petition, motion/petition for an ex parte, injunction. For this petition placed in the mailroom of, Evans, C.I., on 03-22-2016, with postage, prepaid addressed to this Court, also a copy was mailed to the respondent, as a matter of form, if this Court, has not received the documents, then this prison has confiscated the documents as it has others legal mail addressed to this petition. This, these types of unbecomely conduct one would petition is forced with. Any mail that they choose they open or confiscate. Before this matter goes any further there needs to be a lawful resolution of S. C. District Judge, Terrence Byrle, the attorney for state of North Carolina "it not like (we prisoners) can send you a postcard or e-mail, when a problem arises." (Carroll v. Branigan, S.D. (E.D. N.C.) Case No. 5:13-cv-03201-BC. Petitioner prays that the Court in its, wisdom on for abeyance, to allow enough time that it can be discovered - what became of these documents.

Respectfully Submitted
Petitioner Terrence Byrle

Sincerely Allyce
