Dear Mr. Shearouse:

This letter is in response to your correspondence dated September 20, 2012, advising that the above-referenced case will probably be reached for hearing at the November 2012 term of Court and asking that you be advised of any scheduling conflicts on the days that the Court will meet, i.e., October 30-31 and November 13-15. I can advise that, of those potential dates, the only date on which counsel for the Petitioner have a conflict is November 13, 2012. On that date, I have a mediation scheduled in a federal case that is subject to mandatory mediation. Additionally, on that date, Mr. Altman has a date-certain, contested foreclosure trial set to commence. Accordingly, counsel for the Petitioner would appreciate it if the Court would not schedule oral argument in this matter for November 13, 2012. If the Court needs or would appreciate any further information from counsel, please let me know.

With best wishes and kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

YOUNG CLEMENT RIVERS, LLP
