SC COURT OF APPEALS

Re: Appellate Case No. 2012-212727
Order dated 9.26.12, received 9.27.12

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

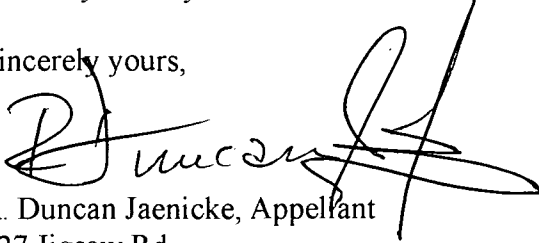

I'm sorry, but due to the fact that I have taken on a second job, in an attempt to both support my family and pay for the attorney I plan on hiring to perfect my appeal, I lost track of the deadline to submit the Transcript.

I therefore humbly request of the Court that it accept the Transcript, enclosed, and grant an extension to this honest citizen who has never been through this process before. Please—for the sake of justice and mercy, grant my request and allow my appeal to continue.

I have a schedule that my attorney recently gave me that outlines the future deadlines for submissions (e.g., briefs) and will diligently adhere to those deadlines if the Court grants my request. I will be retaining him shortly if the Court grants my request to accept the enclosed Transcript.

I humbly thank you in advance for considering my request.

Sincerely yours,

R. Duncan Jaenicke, Appellant
