Re: State v. Andrew Lee Harrison
Appellate Case No. 2010-178686

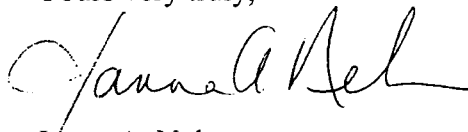

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Your letter of September 20, 2012 to Mr. Blicht and Ms. Hackett gave some potential dates for oral argument in this case. That letter was not mailed to me by your office, but I did get a copy from Appellate Defense. I realize this response is overdue based on your request that the Court be notified of any conflicts by September 27, 2012, but I would appreciate any accommodation you can give me.

I have a vacation planned from Wednesday, November 14, 2012 through Sunday, November 18, 2012. I have purchased a non-refundable plane ticket for the trip and would greatly appreciate it if the oral argument in this case is not scheduled for November 14 or 15. I understand if my delayed response causes a problem with scheduling and if it is not possible to work around the trip, I will forego it to be present for the argument.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours very truly,

Janna A. Nelson
