Re: John Musick vs. Thomas L. Dicks and Robert E. Dicks, Jr.
Case No.: 2004-CP-26-2075

Dear Madam Clerk:

The above referenced case has a very long history. My clients are owners of beautiful homes in a sleepy little neighborhood in Long Bay Estates, Horry County.

The case has been up to the Court once; has been remanded for hearing before the Master; she has issued the final order and Mr. Koutrakos has once again appealed it to the Court of Appeals.

My clients are most anxious to move this matter along because of the time associated with the legal process and have asked me to ask for an "expedited hearing" since most of the issues have already been briefed and have been reviewed by the Court. Is there any formal process by which I can make such an application or would you consider this a formal request for expedition of the hearing in this matter? Thank you.

With warm regards, I am
Yours truly,
