Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I have received the Court's notice that this case, which was recently certified from the Court of Appeals, will be scheduled for argument in December 2012. Please be advised that I have recently discovered that my client has passed away.

As the issue on appeal had to do with medical treatment after the Commission's order, I am trying to determine whether any accounts for any such medical treatment are currently outstanding. If so, I would contend that the issues before the Court still need to be decided. But if not, it would appear that the issue has become moot. I will advise the Court as soon as I have more information on this issue.

If the Court is in need of additional information or if I should go about this in a different manner, please let me know.

By copy of this letter to opposing counsel, I am advising them of this communication.

Kindest regards,

RECEIVED
