9 (ON THE RECORD IN THE MATTER OF STATE V. ROBERT HUGHES
10 WITH SOLICITOR ERIN JOYNER, ATTORNEY PHIL SMITH AT 10:30
11 A.M..)

12 (DEFENDANT ROBERT HUGHES, WHITE MALE, ENTERS
13 COURTROOM.)

14 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

15 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 The next matter for the court is State of South
17 Carolina versus Robert Dale Hughes. He's charged in 18 Indictment 2015-GS-46-00272 for Failure to Register as a 19 Sex Offender third offense.

20 Your Honor, he's represented today by his Counsel Phil 21 Smith of the Public Defender's Office. Mr. Smith has 22 several motions he would like to address to the Court, I
23 guess in the nature of pretrial legal motions that may 24 resolve the case.

25 THE COURT: All right.

-5-

1 MR. SMITH: Thank you, your Honor, may it please the 2 Court. As the Solicitor indicated I represent Mr. Hughes
3 and he was charged with a Failure to Register third 4 offense, your Honor. Through the course of my 5 representation Mr. Hughes began requesting information
6 concerning his original conviction. Back in - I'm sorry --

7 I believe you handed a copy of the original to me?

8 SOLICITOR JOYNER: No.

9 MR. SMITH: Okay. Sorry.

10 (WHEREUPON, COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER ONE PREMARKED FOR 11 IDENTIFICATION.)

12 SOLICITOR JOYNER: I'm gonna pass up Court's Exhibit 13 One which was what was provided to the State by the 14 Lexington County Clerk of Court's Office.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 (WHEREUPON, COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER ONE IDENTIFIED AND 17 MARKED, RECEIVED INTO THE RECORD.)

18 MR. SMITH: And, your Honor, the Solicitor provided us
19 copies and as your Honor can see he was charged with a CSC
20 with a minor first degree but it indicates that he entered 21 a plea to a charge of CSC with a minor third degree.

22 I do not know that charge and Mr. Hughes raises two 23 issues in asking the Court to dismiss the current 24 indictment against him. One: When he was originally 25 arrested for this charge he was convicted of the charge for

1 which your Honor has the paperwork now. The Registry did 2 not exist and so he makes an argument that the additional 3 punishments that now are being imposed upon him are ex post 4 facto and should not be allowed. Additionally he now gets 5 these enhanced penalties because of repetitive violations
6 of what he believes to be an ex post facto law.

7 And then his other issue is that, your Honor, the 1994
8 Act 23-3-430 list the charges that in South Carolina would 9 require one to register. They list CSC first, second, and 10 third.

11 THE COURT: All right. What's that Code Section again
12 real quick?

13 MR. SMITH: 23-3-430.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. SMITH: Under Section C they do list Criminal 16 Sexual Conduct first degree, Criminal Sexual Conduct second 17 degree and Criminal Sexual Conduct third degree.

18 And then it also list Criminal Sexual Conduct with a 19 minor in the first and second degrees but there is no 20 listing for Criminal Sexual Conduct with a minor in the 21 third degree which is what he believes he pled to.

22 There is a Section 14 which talks about comparable
23 courts from other jurisdictions, if the elements match
24 those, then that individual would be required to register 25 under this statute, but our position is plain reading of

1 the statute if the court of some other jurisdiction are 2 comparable these would be the same in South Carolina
3 courts. So based upon those two different reasons Mr.
4 Hughes ask that the charge - that the indictment against 5 him be quashed.

6 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Your Honor, if we could - I think 7 that and just for the purposes of the ex post facto 8 argument and just for a moment to assume the validity of 9 the underlying conviction I think the court's have 10 addressed the ex post facto argument and rejected it - 11 rejected that argument.

12 That would be one of the cases, State versus Walls and 13 which was at 348 S.C. 26 from the South Carolina Supreme 14 Court in 2002. They dealt with the argument that the 15 imposition or the requirement that people register for 16 offenses that occurred prior to the enactment of the Sex
17 Offender Registry did not constitute an ex post facto 18 violation because while they were - was retroactive the 19 statute is not penal and criminal in nature.

20 And, your Honor, I believe that's the law of South
21 Carolina. I don't think that there's any ex post facto 22 violation under the circumstances.

23 As to the second - the second motion, the motion to 24 dismiss, I think essentially is that he's - should not be 25 required to register because he does not have a predicate

1 offense which would require the registry.

2 I'll tell the court that I completely agree with Mr.
3 Smith, back in 1994 there was not an offense that was 4 titled Criminal Sexual Conduct with a Minor in the third 5 degree. That is the statute that replaced the Lewd Act, 6 did not come into existence until 2012 with that specific 7 name. At the time that he pled guilty, the time that he 8 was charged and then at the time that he later pled guilty 9 the offense - the offenses regarding criminal sexual 10 conduct with a minor were first degree and second degree.

11 Additionally additional criminal sexual conduct 12 charges were the traditional criminal sexual conduct first, 13 criminal sexual conduct second, criminal sexual conduct in 14 the third degree.

15 Your Honor, Mr. Hughes was sentenced on March 3rd of 16 1994, he received a ten-year sentence which is the maximum 17 allowed under the Criminal Sexual Conduct Third Degree, and 18 it's the State's position that while Mr. Hughes was 19 originally indicted for criminal sexual conduct with a 20 minor in the first degree, that what he actually pled to 21 was criminal sexual conduct third degree; in that the 22 notation plea to CSC with minor third degree, that with 23 minor was merely the surplusage, it was following an 24 explanation to note the age of the victim but that the only 25 thing - the only way to construe this sentence is to

1 construe it according to what the law for at the time.
2 There was a law CSC third degree as the law is today CSC
3 third degree.

4 Your Honor, --

5 THE COURT: Isn't there a general penalty statute that 6 makes offenses which have no penalty ascribed to them have 7 a penalty of ten years?

8 SOLICITOR JOYNER: I'm sorry, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Isn't there a statute - and we will 10 certainly check on it - that says where any offense has no
11 specific sentence connected therewith that the sentence
12 would be up to ten years?

13 SOLICITOR JOYNER: I do believe there is that statute, 14 your Honor, but I believe the sentence in this case that 15 was handed down by the court is for a CSC third. And I can 16 tell the court I have two additional exhibits to mark on 17 this point.

18 (WHEREUPON, COURT'S EXHIBIT TWO AND THREE, IDENTIFIED 19 AND MARKED, RECEIVED INTO THE RECORD.)

20 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Your Honor, I'm handing up what's 21 been marked as Court's Exhibit Two and Three.

22 Court's Exhibit Two, your Honor, is the 23 Preregistration Form that is completed with the Department 24 of Corrections when Mr. Hughes was preparing to leave the 25 Department of Corrections. He completed that

1 Preregistration or that first Registration on June 30th of 2 1998. So, when Mr. Hughes went into prison there was no
3 registry but when he came out there was a sex offender 4 registry.

5 You will notice on the second page of the registration 6 form it is circled that Mr. Hughes - that the Department of 7 Corrections note had Mr. Hughes classified as having been 8 convicted of CSC third degree violation of 16-3-654. That 9 was the registration form that Mr. Hughes completed and 10 signed when he was released from the Department of 11 Corrections.

12 Your Honor, Court's Exhibit Three is a printout that 13 was sent to us by the Department of Corrections, their 14 inmate records which shows they did classify Mr. Hughes or 15 construed his sentence as a criminal sexual conduct third 16 degree again in violation of 16-3-654, that he received a 17 ten year sentence and also an adult straight sentence.

18 Your Honor, I think that the way that the Department 19 of Corrections construed the sentence is the only way to 20 understand the sentence. I think that there is a 21 presumption of regularity in General Session proceedings,
22 and while I was not able to find a case that addressed
23 these exact facts, there is that presumption of regularity
24 that attaches to General Session proceedings absent 25 evidence to the contrary.

-11-

1 When you look at Court's Exhibit One the final 2 indictment or the third indictment in the stapled set,
3 shows the name Fullwood at the top. That was Mr. Hughes'
4 public defender. So I just want to point out to the court 5 that - that if the presumption of regularity attaches to 6 General Session proceedings; you have the judge, the 7 solicitor, and a public defender all in a courtroom and we 8 have to - I think we have to presume absent evidence to the 9 contrary that there was a plea colloquy in order for this 10 plea to have gone through and been accepted, and that 11 certainly there was a discussion of the elements of the 12 offense and a waiver of his rights and so forth.

13 And I think to say that because there's two extra 14 words "with minor" included in the conviction record that - 15 that Mr. Hughes was essentially standing in a court of 16 General Sessions and pleading to an offense that didn't 17 exist kind of flies in the face of presumption of 18 regularity that would attach to the proceedings.

19 I think the only way --

20 THE COURT: Well I don't see where - I don't follow
21 your argument that this has anything to do with presumption
22 of regularity. The proceedings could have been a hundred 23 percent regular and ended up - I mean we got to look at 24 taking the presumption that the proceedings were regular 25 that's fine. I can presume that but still we got a piece

1 of paper here that says that the court must rely on. It's 2 a document of the court. I can't just say that Judge Eppes
3 that this with minor has no meaning. I mean it's put on 4 there by somebody for a purpose and that's what Judge Eppes 5 sentenced him to.

6 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Well, your Honor, but that offense
7 didn't exist and so that's the State's point.

8 THE COURT: I understand the State's point but -- 9 Go ahead.

10 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Well, your Honor, going back to 11 what the proceedings would have been like, he was 12 represented by an attorney, there was a solicitor in the 13 courtroom, and there was a judge; certainly a plea colloquy 14 included representation of what the state would have to 15 prove. He would have had to have an attorney say yes I 16 have explained the elements of the offense of which he's 17 pleading and to believe that he could have stood in a
18 courtroom and plead to an offense that simply did not exist
19 I don't know how that could happen.

20 That's why I'm saying that I think that the Department
21 of Corrections when they looked at the sentencing 22 paperwork, they looked at the sentence that was handed 23 down, they could correctly construed the sentence to be 24 that of CSC third degree. There was no CSC third with a 25 minor at that time and so there is no other interpretation

1 of the sentence other than to believe that a court, while 2 he was represented by counsel and a solicitor stood by he 3 pled guilty to an offense that doesn't exist.

4 I don't know how that could happen. And this is not a 5 situation where he - There is a caption of an offense that 6 had been since repealed, I can see in that scenario how you 7 could have people standing in a room and all listen to 8 facts and have an attorney attest that she'd explained 9 elements maybe not realizing that the offense had been 10 repealed, but that's not the situation here.

11 If this is - I think that it would be - I don't know 12 how a plea could go through under those circumstances with 13 the plea colloquy and being represented by an attorney and 14 have three lawyers in a room pleading somebody to an 15 offense that simply doesn't exist.

16 I think that we often have scribblers errors, we often 17 have documents that have surplusage and it doesn't render 18 something completely invalid. And this isn't directly on 19 point, but because this is such a unique situation, it was 20 difficult to find cases that were on all fours but I think 21 that - and again it's not directly on point - and then I've 22 - But I think it does show that where there is a scribblers 23 error it doesn't necessarily invalidate a conviction as in 24 State versus Sosbee which is 371 S.C. 104, and that was 25 decided by the Court of Appeals in 2006, and it is not

1 directly on point but - but in that case in Soseby the 2 sentencing sheets he was convicted at a jury trial and the 3 sentencing sheets erroneously indicated that he was charged
4 with assault with intent to commit criminal sexual conduct 5 first degree with that code section and the corresponding 6 CDR Code when - when in fact he was convicted of assault
7 with intent to commit criminal sexual conduct with a minor 8 in the first degree.

9 And again, not directly on point but it does go to 10 show that the court looked at that and said, you know, if 11 there's a record, there's the trial record, we know what 12 you were convicted of and we know what verdict the jury
13 handed down, these are scribblers errors on the sentencing
14 sheet. And again I know in this particular case we don't 15 have that record to fall back on, but I think Soseby can 16 stand for the proposition that scribbler's errors don't 17 invalidate an otherwise valid sentence.

18 Also I want to point out to the court as Mr. Smith 19 indicated, Mr. Hughes has pled guilty a number of times to 20 failure to register as a sex offender. And he's been - He 21 has past convictions and I don't know that he was - I think 22 one he was convicted after a trial. I don't know the 23 others so I don't want to attempt to use any out of state
24 convictions to make the point. But in the State of South 25 Carolina he's pled guilty on three different occasions for

1 separate offenses for failure to register.

2 So the first --

3 (WHEREUPON, COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER FOUR IDENTIFIED AND 4 MARKED, RECEIVED INTO THE RECORD.)

5 SOLICITOR JOYNER: The first one I'm handing up, your 6 Honor, is a Court's Exhibit Four. That's his 2001
7 conviction. Mr. Hughes was not represented in that case
8 but he did enter a guilty plea. And the date of that 9 guilty plea was October 12th, 2001.

10 The next two, your Honor, I'm handing up are Court's 11 Exhibit Five and Six.

12 (WHEREUPON, COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER FIVE AND SIX, 13 IDENTIFIED AND MARKED, RECEIVED INTO THE RECORD.)

14 SOLICITOR JOYNER: These are convictions from the same 15 day January 16th of 2008. State's Exhibit Five is 16 Indictment 2007-GS-46-04434. And the alleged incident date
17 in that indictment was April 4th of - or April 6th of 2004.
18 State's Exhibit Six is 2007-GS-46-04433. The incident date 19 alleged in the indictment was March 6th of 2003, and he 20 entered guilty pleas.

21 He was arrested that same day on both warrants, 22 entered his plea on January 16th of 2008. And in this 23 instance he did have the benefit of an attorney. He was 24 represented by Gary Lemel.

25 And then finally --

1 (WHEREUPON, COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER SEVEN, IDENTIFIED 2 AND MARKED, RECEIVED INTO EVIDENCE.)

3 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Your Honor, finally Court's Exhibit
4 Seven is a conviction from 2013. It's Docket 2013-GS-46-
5 00495 with an incident date of June 1st, 2008 through 6 August of 2008 and he was at that point represented by B.J.
7 Barrowclough of the Public Defender's Office.

8 So I think, your Honor, there - beyond the fact that I
9 think that it might be a different scenario if Mr. Hughes
10 had merely been told that he had to register and, you know,
11 had not ever been convicted of failing to register, pled 12 guilty before to that offense, and now is coming into the 13 courtroom and saying I contest this predicate offense.

14 But I think that we're in a situation now where he 15 with the benefit of counsel on two prior occasions has 16 entered guilty pleas to the offense of failure to register 17 one of those elements being that he is in fact required to 18 register.

19 Now, I don't suggest to the court that means that he 20 should never be allowed to challenge the fact that he's on 21 the registry. If he feels that that is unjust I think that 22 he is free to file a declaratory judgment action as to 23 having his name removed from the registry and have - Mr.
24 Smith's motion today. But on the point of the motion to 25 just basically dismiss the case or quash the indictment I

-17-

1 think that what the court would disrespectfully ask him
2 that the court might not make a finding of a matter of law 3 that he's not required to register at the very least allow 4 this to be something that goes forward perhaps as a jury 5 issue.

6 Because I do think that there is - I believe that the 7 term with minor reflected on the indictments in the 8 arraignment form, which I think was serving as a sentencing 9 sheet as well, was either a scribbler's error mirrors a 10 plumage it was not meant that he was pleading guilty to an 11 offense that did not exist, it was meant to be an 12 additional description of what he had committed or what he 13 was pleading to which was CSC third.

14 There is - And again I'm not suggesting that he not 15 ever be able to challenge it in the context of the offense
16 which is again this is - I'm handing up State versus 17 Hewins. That is 409 S.C. 93 that was decided by the South 18 Carolina Supreme Court in 2004. This was a case on 19 collateral estoppel.

20 And essentially the defendant in that case had an 21 underlying - they had a magistrate charge and a general 22 sessions charge predicated upon the same arrest. The 23 defendant first went to trial on the magistrate charge, 24 didn't raise a search issue in the magistrate case; then 25 came to court in the general sessions case and wanted to

1 raise a search issue. And this case addresses whether it
2 was proper to prohibit him from raising that issue pretrial
3 because he had already been found guilty in magistrate 4 court.

5 And the South Carolina Supreme Court they went back 6 and they distinguished the Snowmen case which is the 7 pleading guilty in magistrate court would - you know would 8 collaterally estop the defendant from then questioning the 9 validity of the arrest.

10 And they went into a long analysis and they talked 11 about the offense of the use of collateral estoppel that is 12 used by the State in a criminal proceeding, noted that a 13 lot of court's don't allow it at all, but they were 14 addressing the very narrow issue of whether a prior - 15 whether a prior conviction may be used against a defendant 16 at a pretrial motion to suppress.

17 In this particular case said that it did not apply to 18 prevent him from raising his issue but that they were not 19 ever going to say that it could not come into play in the 20 course of criminal cases in the course of pretrial motions.
21 And I guess - Well this also is not directly on point, I am 22 asking the court to consider the fact that he has 23 previously in prior cases pled guilty to the offense and 24 simply asking the court not - not to dismiss the case based 25 upon what I think is probably either a scribbler's error or

-19-

1 surplusage. Something that the court's back then would 2 have no way of knowing, would have - be so detrimental in 3 the future and allow us to go to the jury. And if he 4 somehow wishes to contest his obligation to register in 5 front of a jury that perhaps that could be a jury issue, 6 but I think that at this point that you actually look at 7 the elements of collateral estoppel and the issues in the 8 two proceedings must be identical must face the same charge 9 for.

10 The party estopped must have had a sufficient 11 incentive to litigate the issue fully and vigorously, which 12 certainly he's pled guilty to crimes before in the same or 13 similar penalties, party estopped must have been a party to 14 the previously litigation which he was. The applicable law 15 must be identical in both proceedings. I think that the 16 law on sex offender registry has changed in small amounts 17 over time but the far substance of the law has not.

18 And then the final proceeding must have resulted in a 19 final judgment such that the defendant has sufficient 20 incentive not to - appeal.

21 I think that just - I think from a policy standpoint a 22 person who is continuously pled guilty and pled guilty and 23 pled guilty two times at the very least should not be able 24 to have their case dismissed five times later and based 25 upon argument and they've had the opportunity to contest it

1 in the past and had chosen not to.

2 But going back to the state's original point, I think
3 this is the only way to construe the conviction is of a CSC
4 third. There was - There was that - Based upon the 5 wording, based upon the sentence that he received which was 6 a ten year sentence which was the maximum penalty that was 7 allowed for CSC third then and now. He signed State's 8 Exhibit or Court's Exhibit Two. Clearly the Department of 9 Corrections construed it as a CSC third. He was on notice 10 of that back then as he signed it and indicated.

11 And I would point out to the court, I could not find 12 any record of Mr. Hughes ever filing an appeal from any of 13 his convictions in South Carolina or a PCR action from any 14 of his - these convictions that we mentioned today. I'm 15 not aware of any other action that might have been filed in 16 Civil Court. I don't think there are any that contest or 17 go to the underlying conviction or his obligation to 18 register.

19 So I just respectfully ask the court to deny the 20 motion to quash the indictment or dismiss the case. And 21 then deny the motion on ex post facto grounds.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Smith, I'll probably have to take a 23 look at this anyway but how does this get before me on a 24 motion to quash the indictment because in looking at the 25 four corners of the indictment the indictment alleges that

-21-

1 he had been convicted of an offense for which he's required
2 to register as a sex offender? It's a matter of proof.

3 And two: That he failed to register as a sex offender
4 as required. That's a matter of proof. The indictment
5 states that and puts him on notice and can I look beyond
6 the four corners of the indictment to determine this issue 7 or is this more accurate an issue of to suppress the 8 evidence at the trial or for a directed verdict?

9 MR. SMITH: I agree a motion to quash does not fit in 10 that reading. I don't know if I would be allowed a 11 pretrial probable cause hearing with this court because I 12 do think it's just a matter of law that exist as to whether 13 or not what he has plead to would equate to what is 14 required for them to go forward. But as the four corners
15 of the indictments stand I do agree that --

16 THE COURT: Well, I think the state's made a good 17 presentation but I do have concerns but I think this is - 18 I'm not gonna comment on the factual situation although if 19 we always work very hard diligently to make sure we get the 20 right CDR Codes and we got a CDR Code 159 on the CSC first 21 indictment but unlike what we do now they don't have one on 22 the sentencing sheet.

23 MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: That would have been very very helpful.
25 I'm gonna deny the motion to quash because I don't see that

1 there is any defect in the indictment. And I think the 2 issue is a good one and I just don't think it's right to be 3 viewed by the court under this motion.

4 MR. SMITH: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. All right, let's take a little 6 break.

7 (COURT IN RECESS AT 10:59 A.M..)

8 (COURT IN SESSION TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2015 AT 02:33
9 P.M..)

10 (RICHARD FEKETE PLEA WITH ATTORNEY GARY LEMEL; JAMIL 11 SIMPSON AND BRANDY SMITH PLEAS WITH ATTORNEY PHIL SMITH.)

12 (ON THE RECORD IN THE MATTER OF STATE V. ROBERT DALE 13 HUGHES AT 02:45 P.M..)

14 (DEFENDANT ROBERT HUGHES, WHITE MALE, REENTERS
15 COURTROOM.)

16 (WHEREUPON, STATE'S EXHIBIT NUMBERS ONE THROUGH THREE 17 AND COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER EIGHT, PREMARKED FOR 18 IDENTIFICATION.)

19 THE COURT: You ready to call the case?

20 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Yes, sir, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 SOLICITOR JOYNER: May it please the Court. The State
23 is calling the case of State of South Carolina versus 24 Robert Dale Hughes, True Bill Indictment 2015-GS-46-00272
25 for failure to register as a sex offender.

-23-

1 This is a bench trial, Your Honor. The State and the 2 defense have agreed that - has entered into some 3 stipulations which I've had marked as Court's Exhibit
4 Eight. It's been signed by Mr. Smith and myself.

5 (WHEREUPON, STATE'S EXHIBIT NUMBER ONE THROUGH THREE 6 AND COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER EIGHT RECEIVED INTO THE RECORD.)

7 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Your Honor, we would like to do
8 this bench trial without testimony.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, before we get there.

10 Number One: I have had some experience with this 11 trial in the past and have also received communications 12 from Mr. Hughes and have forwarded them on to his attorney.

13 And, Mr. Hughes, are you waiving your right to have a 14 trial by jury and allowing the Court to try this case is 15 what's called a Bench Trial without a jury?

16 MR. HUGHES: Can I stand up, if it please the Court?

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18 MR. HUGHES: Your Honor, I was - The last time I was 19 here I came three weeks early and registered. I been 20 working in Georgia. They extradited me back from Georgia 21 from Clayton County on the charge, the same charge, they 22 gave me a year. Okay, they dropped the charge when I got 23 here because I was incarcerated there. They let me out of 24 jail here; I registered like I was supposed to.

25 I was contacted and had a job to go back to in

1 Georgia. Okay. I came up here three weeks early and 2 registered. Mr. Cornwell there - the officer that was 3 there took my register form. I told him, I said, you know
4 I'm going back to Georgia probably next week or so to work.
5 He said, well you know you have to register and all.

6 I go up there I registered in Clayton County, Georgia.
7 I registered there three or four times.

8 He can't seem to find the register. I wrote 'em
9 myself. Your Honor, could you look at this?

10 THE COURT: You can hand it up.

11 MR. HUGHES: I wrote 'em myself and ask them to send 12 me my register information. Okay. They sent me this paper
13 back said that I would have to send them money to get it.
14 I don't have the money because I'm incarcerated. They have 15 the records there. I was arrested there for pedestrian in 16 the roadway and for soliciting. Both times I was in jail, 17 no warrants showed up for me here. I signed temporary 18 register when I got out of jail both times and I'd signed 19 'em before that.

20 They came to the Interstate Lodge where I was staying 21 and I also give 'em Clayton County. They came up there and 22 seen where I was staying and also I was living in a - it 23 was out of Clayton County, it was in Forest part of 24 Georgia, a city constable, they came and seen where I was 25 living. I was registered.

-25-

1 My brother passed I came back down here and I went to 2 a funeral. I went - My cousin said when I seen him at the 3 funeral said you know they got a warrant on you for rape.
4 And I said for what? He said for registration violation.
5 I said well let me check. I told my brother, he said, well 6 you can't stay here, they come up here they'll gonna get 7 you for housing a criminal fugitive and all this. I said, 8 okay.

9 I went to the Rock Hill City Police station, I said
10 they sent out a warrant from York County but I been 11 arrested in Georgia. They contacted here they didn't show 12 a warrant but I had a warrant for a unpaid traffic ticket.
13 They bring me up here on a unpaid traffic ticket that's 14 when they come out with this warrant. I been here ever 15 since trying to do the right thing. I been in this jail 16 every since. I was registered in Georgia, sir.

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, at this point you're up 18 for a trial.

19 MR. HUGHES: I don't' want to go to trial, I want to 20 wait until they get this information cause he don't have 21 nothing to fight with. He's fighting for something - Okay.
22 He's fighting because - I don't mean to be rude to the 23 Court. I apologize but I been set in here eight months 24 trying to have my say. And, sir, he's fighting for 25 something that's saying that they didn't have, they didn't

1 even have a third degree CSC where they charged me. That's 2 what he's fighting with. My real weapons is that I was 3 already registered in Georgia.

4 THE COURT: Well this letter, Ms. Wills, from the 5 Clerk of Superior Court, actually it's from.--

6 MR. HUGHES: The only thing - Go ahead, sir.

7 THE COURT: It's dated May 1st so I don't know when 8 you got in touch with them.

9 MR. HUGHES: I got that back - I got that in the mail
10 last Thursday.

11 THE COURT: I know. But when did you contact them 12 about getting this information?

13 MR. HUGHES: I went and got that information myself.
14 I been trying to get him to get it since the first time I
15 talked to him. I been here six or seven months before I 16 saw my lawyer.

17 THE COURT: Well, I guess my point is, you should have 18 written earlier so you would have this.

19 MR. HUGHES: I figured that he would get - I didn't 20 even - I figured he would have the information when I 21 finally saw him. He's saying they don't have the 22 information there. I know I signed the register. I know
23 the officer came and seen where I was living. I told him
24 if he would call the motel they would verify I was staying 25 there and they would verify the officers came there because

-27-

1 they kept calling and saying was Mr. Hughes living there.

2 I was arrested there three times, if I would have had 3 a - if I had a prior they would already - if I hadn't been 4 registered they would a locked me up and charged me. They 5 said that they would call me if I wasn't registered and 6 they wanted to give me - trying to give me six years the 7 last time I was there and I fought them the same way I'm 8 trying to tell him I didn't plead to no registration. Why 9 I plead I plead to a zero to ten there was no registry.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. HUGHES: And now I was twenty-nine years old then.
12 I'll be fifty-five my birthday I been dealing with this for 13 forty - thirty - almost thirty years.

14 THE COURT: What do you know about this Georgia deal,
15 Mr. Smith?

16 MR. SMITH: Yes, Your Honor. Mr. Hughes made me aware 17 and I began looking on the Georgia site to see if he was 18 registered; looked two different ways, one to see if anyone 19 by his name was registered in Georgia. Did that search, 20 there are not. Then looked in the county which he claimed 21 he was registered to see if it was under some other name 22 for any reason. I have both those searches should Your 23 Honor wish to see them but he's not registered there.
24 There is only one Hughes; that's a Vincent Raymond Hughes 25 registered. And then in Clayton County I have the list of 1 registers; there is no one there by his name.

2 I also made the solicitor aware. She contacted the 3 Georgia Sex Offender Registration Office. They gave her 4 copies where Mr. Hughes was in fact told he needed to 5 register and the forms that he received that he signed when 6 he got out but there is no record that he was registered.

7 As his attorney I thought his better argument is the 8 argument concerning ex post facto concerning the actual 9 crime for which he's on the registry not being the listed 10 offense. I don't think that there is a valid defense for 11 him having registered.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Hughes, we're gonna go forward with 13 the trial today and if you can obtain at some point 14 information that does confirm what you're telling me that 15 you did register in Georgia there may be grounds for 16 reopening this case if you are convicted based on after 17 discovered or newly discovered evidence.

18 MR. HUGHES: Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you consent to a bench trial or do you 20 want a jury trial?

21 MR. HUGHES: Your Honor, every time I was arrested
22 there they made me sign a temporary registry. I went there 23 as soon as I got there. I worked for the state legislator
24 of Georgia Mr. Winfred Dukes when I was there and I'm sure 25 I was registered. Why he can't find the information is

-29-

1 beyond me. It's either they're not - He's - Where he 2 searched on the web he hasn't went to Clayton County
3 Sheriff's Office. He hadn't talked to that Clerk of Court 4 cause the records are there.

5 THE COURT: Well, my question now is, do you want to 6 go forward with a bench trial and have me try the --

7 MR. HUGHES: Not until I get this information because 8 he don't have - Well, okay, what will happen if I'm found 9 guilty today, sir?

10 THE COURT: If you're found guilty I'll sentence you
11 and then you can appeal that and if you find information 12 that confirms that you registered you can present that to 13 the court and ask - and I can't make any promise what the 14 court will do - and I say the court, it could be me or it 15 could be another judge - you could bring any newly 16 discovered information before the Court and ask for this 17 case to be - the verdict in this case to be set aside based 18 on what's called newly discovered evidence.

19 So, we can go forward today and if I find you guilty
20 and sentence you you certainly have the right to obtain 21 that material or you have the right to appeal.

22 MR. HUGHES: Well, sir, whatever happens today at 23 least I did get my say in court. And I apologize for since 24 you let me. When I wrote them back and ask for them to 25 send me my registration the only evidence I had was a fax

1 for this court and that's the fax number I gave him to fax
2 the information to. I honestly think that they will send 3 'em back. I mean I don't see why. He went on line he 4 didn't go to the Clayton County Justice Center to get this 5 information. I don't know where he went on line to get it.

6 I'm not saying he's not doing his job but I know that 7 I signed these registers. I signed a full time register
8 when I got this here. I went back I went to see that 9 woman, she had me fill out a thing saying where I live.
10 It's a temporary register. I used my permanent register 11 here. And when I came back I honestly thought so I'd get 12 in touch with 'em and we'll figure it out.

13 What it is the tracking system is not - the last time
14 when he brought me up here the last time they wasn't 15 showing any warrants on me in Georgia neither cause when I
16 first went to prison I told my case worker she checked it
17 and she said you don't have no warrants on you or nothing
18 you're good. Okay. Two days before I thought I was gonna 19 get out they come up and said they had a warrant on me from 20 South Carolina. She told me she said I don't know, she 21 said I checked and I had 'em. But evidently between 22 Georgia and South Carolina their tracking or something is 23 up.

24 THE COURT: Let me ask you this, Mr. Smith, this.

25 Mr. Smith, I did not research whether or not there is

-31-

1 any such thing as a temporary registration. If your 2 permanent address is in South Carolina are there any 3 provisions of law that allow you to while out of state 4 register in another state and toll your ability or your 5 requirement to register in this state?

6 MR. SMITH: My understanding of our statute is if his 7 permanent residence is here he would have to register here.
8 He upon release was indicated he would have to register
9 from Georgia but I have no indication that he registered 10 there or that was his permanent domicile.

11 THE COURT: Do you want to go forward today and have a 12 trial with me without a jury or do you want to have a jury 13 trial at a later time?

14 MR. HUGHES: I'll go ahead and do the trial today.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right, then I find that Mr.
16 Hughes is freely voluntarily knowingly and intelligently 17 waiving his right to go forward with the trial and so we'll 18 go forward with the bench trial.

19 Now do you want to followup with your stipulations?

20 Have you gone over all of them yet?

21 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Yes, sir, Your Honor. I believe I 22 handed up the stipulations. The only addition - additional 23 stipulation that Mr. Smith and I discussed briefly before 24 we began is that I failed to mention the stipulation that 25 we agreed that we will stipulate that at that last

1 registration in June of 2013 he did list he was registered 2 in fact virtue of residence listing his residence here at 3 York County.

4 And that was a - he had listed - A last listed address 5 in June of 2013 was an address of 6 McConnell, is within York County.

7 MR. SMITH: And that does show on his Georgia Form of 8 Notification as the address listed there as well, Your 9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hughes, the State has 11 presented stipulations and your attorney has agreed upon.
12 Do you want to go under oath and testify or do you want to 13 stand on what you've already related to the court?

14 MR. HUGHES: I just soon stand on what I related to 15 the court.

16 THE COURT: All right. Well let me ask you then, 17 do you swear that the information that you related to the 18 Court earlier during this hearing and entirely during this 19 hearing has been the truth, the whole truth, and nothing
20 but the truth so help you God?

21 MR. HUGHES: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: All right. Anything else?

23 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Your Honor, I did, I did present
24 these as Court's Exhibits previously on April 23. I did 25 ask the court reporter to mark State's Exhibit One which

1 will be the underlying offenses with the State's position
2 as these are the triggering offenses from Lexington County 3 from 1994.

4 Also marked State's Exhibit Three, the Department of 5 Corrections Information Sheet and the State can construe
6 this conviction as a CSC third.

7 Also, State's Exhibit Two which was the corresponding 8 Court's Exhibit Two shows this was the preregistration from 9 the Department of Corrections in 1998.

10 And additionally, Your Honor, a new exhibit which is 11 State's Exhibit Eight is the June 26, 2013 registration of 12 Mr. Hughes.

13 THE COURT: Any closing arguments?

14 SOLICITOR JOYNER: Your Honor, the State respectfully 15 would ask that the Court find Mr. Hughes guilty. He was 16 convicted in 1994, your Honor, of three counts, those are 17 1994-GS-32-232, 233 and 234. He was originally charged in 18 the Indictments with Criminal Sexual Conduct with a Minor 19 in the First Degree. He pled to a lesser offense, your 20 Honor. And your Honor's previously heard some argument
21 regarding what the nature of that offense would be, but it
22 is captioned on the indictment as a plea to CSC with minor 23 in the third degree, and that is on each indictment and 24 each arraignment form.

25 We'd ask the Court to construe that as a conviction

1 for CSC third. We'd ask - submit to the court that that 2 was the intention of the judge and the only sentence or the 3 only charge that makes sense.

4 Your Honor, at the time that Mr. Hughes pled guilty in 5 March of 1994, he was sentenced to ten years at the 6 Department of Corrections at that time and there was not a
7 sex offender registry in place. The Sex Offender Registry
8 was passed or put into law on July 1st of 1994.
9 Accordingly was in place when Mr. Hughes was released from 10 the Department of Corrections. On June 30th of 1998 he 11 completed a pre-registration at the Department of 12 Corrections. Your Honor, that's State's Exhibit Two.

13 And you will see on - I believe the second page - that 14 it is circled, that plea offense, which warrants
15 registration. It was the 16-3-654, it's circled criminal 16 Sexual Conduct third degree. Mr. Hughes signed that form.
17 He began or he previously registered with York County. And 18 I will tell the Court that his - for purpose of 19 registration the Sheriff's office has always incorrectly
20 captioned his predicate offenses as CSC with minors. And I
21 think that he would be entitled to relief and have that 22 corrected to reflect the CSC third degree.

23 But we would simply ask the Court to find that he - 24 with all the stipulations establish everything short of 25 whether the underlying offenses from Lexington County

1 trigger his registration and we'd ask the court to rule
2 that they do trigger his registration.

3 In looking at what the law was at the time when Mr.
4 Hughes was convicted, there was no offense called criminal 5 sexual conduct in third degree with a minor. There was 6 criminal sexual conduct in the first degree with a minor
7 and a second degree with a minor. There was criminal 8 sexual conduct first, criminal sexual conduct second,
9 criminal sexual conduct in the third degree.

10 Those were all the offenses on the books which 11 involved a sexual battery triggers the presumption of 12 regularity that attaches to the general Sessions 13 proceedings. My understanding of the defense's argument is 14 simply that he shouldn't be required to register there, 15 based upon the addition of these with a minor in the 16 indictments as to what he pled to we'd ask the court to 17 find it as a CSC third.

18 The presumption of regularity attaching to these 19 proceedings I think that the Department of Corrections 20 correctly determined this was a CSC third and that simply 21 what would make sense that that - at the time. There was 22 no CSC third with a minor that existed, there had never an 23 offense entitled that that I'm aware of that the court
24 could have been confused or incorrect regarding. I think 25 that when Judge Eppes wrote CSC third, including the

1 language with a minor, I think that that could be construed 2 as a scribblers error simply inadvertently narrowing the 3 language of the indicted offense. Or I think that it could 4 be construed as a finding of fact. I think at the time
5 that Mr. Hughes pled although there was not a registry in 6 place certainly there was a movement nation wide for 7 establishing sex offender registries with the aim of 8 tapping a particular children. And I think --

9 THE COURT: Judge Eppes.

10 SOLICITOR JOYNER: I'm sorry.

11 THE COURT: Judge Eppes.

12 SOLICITOR JOYNER: I'm sorry.

13 THE COURT: Go ahead.

14 SOLICITOR JOYNER: And I would just note that there is 15 a history of sex offender registry was discussed in 16 Hendricks versus Taylor and certainly all that would have 17 been going on at the time that he pled. So I think that it 18 could fairly be construed as a finding of fact. I think it
19 could also be construed as simply a scribbler's error. I
20 think the common sense - the common sense reading of Judge 21 Eppes' notation on both the indictment and the arraignment 22 form is that he was sentencing him to a CSC third. And I'd 23 ask the court to find the defendant guilty.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. SMITH: Thank you, your Honor, may it please the

-37-

1 Court. Your Honor, I don't understand the application of a 2 presumption of regularities as how it would apply here in 3 this case and I don't think that that's applicable. Nor do
4 I think that that would lead the court to believe or to a 5 conclusion that something that is clearly written both on 6 the indictment --

7 THE COURT: Well the Court doesn't have to - We're not 8 gonna go into any presumption. We can go on what the 9 record --

10 MR. SMITH: Thank you, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: I might have to interpret what I see as 12 far as what the record reflects. But go ahead.

13 MR. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. The defense position is 14 that twenty plus years ago client entered the court was 15 given an indictment and on that indictment it clearly said 16 what he was pleading to and on that sentence sheet it was 17 written what he was pleading to and that was CSC third with 18 a minor.

19 And that was the plea that was taken in the court; we 20 have the records of that. There's no mention in it of a 21 registry. Certainly in part because registry didn't exist
22 then. He's then in the Department of Corrections, upon 23 release they tell him to be released you got to sign this 24 form. The State then adopts that as the notification that 25 he's given and is somehow then action by the Department of

1 Correction then changes what the original sentence was by 2 the court.

3 I simply do not agree with that and in part you can 4 see the problem that that poses when the Sheriff's office 5 looks back at the indictment and all of a sudden they're 6 classifying it as a charge with minors which now the 7 State's saying this charge should be listed as a charge
8 with minors. I think there is some obvious difficulties 9 that the State is happy with what to call this charge when 10 what he plead to didn't exist.

11 And I would point to the fact that under 23-3-430 our 12 Sex Offender Registry changed to be labeled an offender 13 which is what the status requiring one to register would 14 be. There are a number of ways that someone could get 15 there, in excess of twenty ways but the potential 16 applicable one's here would be to plead to a criminal 17 sexual conduct charge. That would have to be CSC first 18 degree, CSC second degree, or CSC third degree which none 19 of these are that he pled to.

20 The other way would be CSC with a minor. They're 21 listed in the statute as only CSC first and CSC second.
22 Again, not the charge he pled to. There is a Subsection 14
23 which indicates that a person who pleas in another 24 jurisdiction of the United States to a similar charge, one 25 which would have the elements as we do here, but I would

-39-

1 argue he didn't do that, he pled in our jurisdiction, so
2 therefore, the only sections that would apply in enumerated 3 two plus subsections none of them apply to the charge for 4 which he pled in court and therefore he should not be 5 required to register.

6 I would also for the record make the argument that 7 this law of registry was created ex post facto for him when 8 he entered that plea, was obviously not advised that that 9 could cause him to have to register for the rest of his 10 life and, or, be imprisoned if he failed to do so for some 11 period or the rest of his life assuming those offenses 12 added up, and would argue therefore it violates his 13 constitutional rights to due process.

14 THE COURT: All right. Now I do understand - and I
15 have not read it - but there is a case that South Carolina 16 has already dealt - the Henson case - South Carolina has 17 already dealt with the ex post facto?

18 MR. SMITH: That is correct, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Well I have to admit that I have a 20 distaste for what falls into ex post facto area because I 21 don't believe anyone ought to be punished for something or 22 required to do something connected with an offense that was 23 not coupled with that offense at the time that they 24 actually plead. I don't like that but I think it's up to 25 the legislature or a higher court to correct that. I just

1 have a distaste for that. We have that also with serious 2 and most serious, three and two strikes, two strikes or 3 three strikes you're out, it disturbs me, but that's a 4 philosophical disturbance.

5 So I think the ex post facto, while properly raised, 6 does not apply. The nature of the underlying offense is at 7 the first blush problematic but I really find that it is 8 not. The court accepted a plea to a criminal sexual 9 conduct. Judge Eppes or someone wrote on there with a 10 minor. Whether that was a scribbler's error or whether 11 surfaces it's still a criminal sexual conduct offense, and,
12 the court could not accept - and I'm sure did not accept -
13 and this sort of borders on the presumption of regularity
14 but not exactly - a plea by anyone to a final offense.
15 That is, there had to be a real offense underlying the 16 charge and a real offense for what you were sentencing for, 17 a real offense for which he served time and is required to 18 register.

19 So the fact that the word with a minor are in there 20 and the fact it's listed in the records is not controlling.
21 The controlling aspect of the registration requirement is 22 that he was required to register based on a criminal sexual 23 conduct plea, so I find Mr. Hughes guilty.

24 And, Mr. Hughes, I'm gonna sentence you to five years
25 but I'm gonna suspend it to three years.

1 Now I will tell you a couple of things that are 2 probably gratuitous. One of course you know you have a
3 right to appeal and Mr. Smith does not handled the appeal
4 so you can posture that as we talked about earlier.

5 You also, if you obtain the things from Georgia, may 6 have an opportunity to request a new trial based on after 7 discovered evidence. I can't rule on that at this point but 8 at least that door would be open.

9 The third thing, and I don't know whether or not - I'm 10 gonna give you credit for the time you've served as your 11 attorney can compute for me.

12 If you appeal and are released on an appeal bond that 13 appeal would not be heard any time within the next twelve 14 or probably eighteen months, so, another time to register 15 may pop up if you get out on an appeal bond. And you're 16 entitled to an appeal bond I believe. I'll look at that 17 later but I think the sentence you receive you will be 18 entitled to an appeal bond if you appeal - I think. Again
19 I think --

20 MR. HUGHES: Can I --

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 MR. HUGHES: Well, when I pled to this charge it
23 started off saying I molested this kid but after further -
24 after an investigation and all they kept going the kids
25 weren't bothered, they weren't messed with. They changed

1 the warrant. They first stated it happened on September
2 14th. The way they got there they had a party at my house
3 and I told my wife I didn't want 'em there. The girl's 4 momma - the girl got took from her. Her son got beat and 5 was put in a comma and we would take - I took care of them 6 kids for almost three years and nothing never happened and 7 nothing never came up.

8 I sat in jail in Lexington County seventeen months 9 fighting that charge and I finally pled to it because I was 10 tired of fighting. I sat in here this time eighteen - 11 eight months sitting here just to have my day in court and 12 I still doing the same thing. You know it says in Romans
13 19 that all government authorities are of God and all 14 appointed governing authorities are appointed of God. But 15 I just can't see the right in this. I can't see right 16 because I wasn't guilty to start with.

17 My lawyer told me to plead to this third degree CSC.
18 Said if I got anything less than ten years I'd be in the 19 right straight to work release. I was sitting in county 20 jail seventeen months. The social services department had 21 my wife and let her come to see me and was threaten to take 22 my child from me so she gave up on me. I just basically - 23 I just basically gave up and signed the plea but I'm not 24 guilty of anything they say on these papers. You know I
25 put it in God's hands. I just don't see the right. If you

-43-

1 don't keep sentencing no matter what it says it'll be a
2 life sentence. That's what they did and I might as well be 3 in there for the rest of my life.

4 THE COURT: Well that's not exactly true. If there is 5 some error at some point if you --

6 MR. HUGHES: I didn't plead guilty. I plead no
7 contest. I mean it's the same thing I guess.

8 THE COURT: The sentencing sheet somebody. The 9 sentencing sheet.

10 MR. HUGHES: But I never - I had never been into any 11 trouble when I got these charges and if you'll look the 12 only trouble I'm in is because of these charges. And again
13 all my life has been to try to make a living from the time
14 I was twenty-nine and got out of jail. I've had a job now
15 they find out this and phewwww. I've had a place to live 16 they find out I'm a sex offender phewwww. It's just I'm 17 tired of fighting.

18 I mean I didn't plead guilty to it to start with. I
19 plead no contest. I had a lawyer - my lawyer had a stack - 20 they had the children through all kinds places trying to 21 find out and none of 'em say anything but the baby's momma 22 that started it all and then they come to find out she had 23 my child along with some more. I had three children. She 24 would use his social security on for the lights and had a 25 phone on and my kids and I think they stopped the whole

1 mountain from coming to my house. And it was basically a
2 thing that it was just it wasn't - it was a bunch of made 3 up is what it was, man.

4 I mean I put it in God's hands and I just can't see 5 the right in it. I mean if it's meant for me to go if I
6 did something to do it it would be different I would take 7 it and wouldn't say nothing about it. But I've sat here
8 eight months now and I've tried to do everything I could 9 and I had him do everything.

10 I know for a fact that I've signed register's in 11 Georgia. He's got one thing but it's got my name typed in 12 the top and none of my signatures on none of them that I
13 put in is here. I know I signed 'em. I know I went up
14 there. I know I was arrested there and anytime you arrest 15 a sex offender you have to sign one when you get out of 16 jail. Where are they at?

17 THE COURT: All right. How long have you been in 18 jail?

19 MR. HUGHES: In Georgia I was up there two or three 20 times.

21 THE COURT: No, I mean on this charge.

22 MR. SMITH: Here I show an arrest date of September 23 17th which would total two hundred and forty-one days, Your 24 Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. The sentence is five years

1 suspended to three years. Give you credit for two hundred 2 and forty-one days. Thank you.

3 MR. SMITH: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 MR. HUGHES: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 We'll take a short break.

[RDB] I have agreed to plead guilty, no contest, or enter a plea under N.C. v. Alford as part of a plea arrangement. The Solicitor, my lawyer, and I have informed the court that the following contains all of the terms of conditions of my plea:

☒ ~~N/A~~ This plea is without negotiation and I understand I could receive from the minimum to the maximum sentence on each charge to which I am pleading guilty and that those sentences could also be run consecutive to other.

☒ ~~P/A~~ I am entering my plea today freely, voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently.

☒ ~~N/A~~ I understand that I have the right to be represented by a lawyer at all stages of the proceedings. I can hire my own lawyer, or the court will appoint a lawyer for me if I cannot afford one. ☒ I understand that by my pleading to each charge, I am waiving all defenses, including, but not limited to the right to challenge any evidence the State may have used in its case against me and the voluntariness of any statements made to law enforcement.
