

The State v. D'Angelo Brown, Appellate Case ^{no. 2016} -000787

I am asking for an appeal on the grounds that I filed for my rule 5, motion of discovery, and all legal material involving my case. I never recieved them, your honor! That makes it apparent that my lawyer or public defender never had my best interest in mind. I was never represented properly by my P.D. or lawyer. I was kept in the blind or dark all the way up till now. And even now I still havent recieved any of the following requests. I had an unfair plea because my Lawyer or p.d. never now what was going on, until we were in court. Taking the plea was not in my best interest.

I just want a fair chance to fight for my life. I was told by my family that my P.D. waived my right a preliminary hearing then later on two days before court Christopher Greel told me at Charleston County Detention Center that he waive my rights because the solicitor, the officer, and him (The P.D) had came up with a negotiated plea or agreement of probation. All I was asking him was to apply for a bond reconsideration so I could bond out to pay Bush Law Group to take my case but he insisted on doing things his way an I'm paying for them right now. Even the morning of court I was told by my p.d. that I was going to get continued on probation since this is a first offence on my probation violation. These are the dates I requested legal information from my Public Defender or Lawyer. I also have more dates but off record.
