This is a Petition for Review of a decision of the South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce and the Administrative Law Judge decision denying unemployment benefits to Appellant. Appellant request that the decision be reversed.

A final decision was made on March 3, 2016 by the Administrative Law Judge.

This decision was pursuant to ALC Rule 38, Failure to comply with the rules of procedures for appeals.

The South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce made its decision which was appealed in November 2015.

A. Was the initial ruling by the South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce in error?

The loss of unemployment benefits will cause great hardship on the family. Guanna McCormick and her husband has struggled for months now due to the of work. It will continue to be a hardship unless unemployment benefits are paid. At this point Guanna McCormick does not have the finances to seek out employment because the expenses (car, gas, insurance, etc.) of looking for work cannot be covered.

In conclusion, the court should reconsider the decision of the South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce.

Respectfully submitted,

Guanna McCormick
