Re: Julia Fludd v. Angela Dingle
Appellate Case No. 2015-002021

Dear Ms. Fludd:

Our records reflect that the time for correcting the deficiencies for the appellant's initial brief and designation have expired. In regards to your correspondence dated May 2, 2016, we are extending the deadline for perfecting this appeal until ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon reviewing your appellant's initial brief, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (Rules 208 and 209), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter. If no correction is made within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, this appeal will be dismissed:

- The initial brief is not accompanied by a designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. As stated in Rule 209, SCACR: the designation may only propose to include portions of the transcript, pleadings, orders, exhibits, or other materials which may be properly included in the Record on Appeal [See Rule 210(c)]. A party shall not include any matter in the designation which is not relevant to the appeal.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
