Re: Quincy McCants v. State
Appellate Case No. 2015-002142
Lower Court Case No. 2009CP3204236

Dear Ms. Frierson:

The Division of Appellate Defense is representing the petitioner in this post-conviction relief (PCR) case. In December 2015, Appellate Defense ordered the transcript of the PCR hearing from the court reporter. A copy of the request is enclosed.

This Court has not received any court reporter extension for this transcript, and the Division of Appellate Defense has provided this Court with copies of four notices it has sent to your office regarding the failure to receive either the transcript or notice that the court reporter had been granted an extension. I have enclosed a copy of these notices.

Despite the fact that each of these notices asked for a written confirmation as to the status of the requested transcript from your Office, Appellate Defense has advised this Court that it has not received a response to any of these notices. Finally, our appellate case system does not indicate that this transcript request is in the database maintained by your office.

I ask that you please advise this Court of the status of this transcript request.

Very truly yours,
