

RE: Blue Ridge Electrical Power Cooperative vs. Kathleen J. Gresham (Husband J. Steve Gresham was dismissed at trial as party after Blue Ridge's case) Dear Sir/Madame,
Dear Mr. Shearouse, Sir -

2008 Common Pleas
Greenville, S.C.
13th Circuit

I will return to the U.S.A.

on June 12, 2016 as now anticipated and after flight recovery will then travel to get trial transcript from trial, above cited, held in summer of 2008 for preparation of response you want to the writ. Due to medical issues/appts already scheduled (M.R.I., etc.) that cannot be altered, I anticipate having my reply to you by the end of July. The matter, having been decided approximately 8 years or so ago, is certainly no emergency, has no staggering value except for the non-power power trespassing on my land and is no pressing emergency as resolved by jury verdict in Common Pleas Court.

This is unnecessarily stressful on my family in our pressing medical needs.
I have little accessibility to technology here in U.K. thus please share with Blue Ridge as I do not receive mail from them anyway and have someone posting this for me to be as thorough as I can over 5,000+ miles away.
Thank you as I struggle once again to address this verdict unanimously for me after several years of pre-trial work and countless hours.

Thank You - Kathleen Jennings Gresham
K. Gresham June 6, 2016 (D-Day)
