

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Brent Christopher McLaurin, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2015-001147

ORDER

On April 1, 2016, this court denied Appellant's petition to relieve counsel and proceed pro se. Appellant has now filed a letter requesting this court to transfer this case to the supreme court. Because Appellant is represented by counsel, Appellant's pro se letter is not proper, and this court declines to act on his requests. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 697 S.E.2d 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel.").
