Pursuant to SCA CR.

Rule 207(a)(2) 60 days has past

In Re: Issuing Contempt Order against Court Reporter,
Caroline Hiskell, for Violating S.C. Court Rules.
Failing to Respond to All parties etc.

Dear S.C. Supreme Court,

I bring this matter to your Attention once again, with substantial documented evidence,
I'm requesting this Court issue a Order finding the Court Reporter Caroline Hiskell in contempt. Being, the Court of Administration and myself have made numerous attempt to try and contact this Caroline Hiskell in regards to obtaining my trial transcript from 5-12-15.

Find incorporated in the letter from S.C. Commission on Indigent Defense dated May 13, 2016 "Highlighted" Once the Transcript is received is when and only when, Counsel will be assigned to represent me. So this letter can no longer be treated as Hybrid representation Please.

So I have a right and obligation to ask the Court review All evidence, efforts, Attempts, by the Court of Administration and myself trying to get this Court reporter just to simply respond back to us. And she totally refuses. However according to the SCL Rules to prepare and deliver transcript, she is long overdue, Its been almost 1 year

And I'm praying and pleading that the Court issue and Order for Contempt of Court against this Caroline Whiskell. And realize she knows her obligations and duties and has grossly neglected to comply ⁱⁿ Any form or fashion, to either of us. And I believe Order of Contempt would be the proper sanction at this point and time.

I greatly appreciate your help in this matter very much!

Sincerely Yours,
Jerry E. McCall

Please forward me a copy of the Order as well for my records.

Dear Mr. McCall:

I am responding to the letters you've been sending since February 2016 regarding this transcript. I spoke with your brother earlier this week regarding this situation and explained that I would write to you to try to eliminate some of the frustration I am sure you are feeling over this situation. I am sorry that you haven't received a satisfactory response. By way of information, when the Division of Appellate Defense requests a transcript, I assume that they are your legal representative. That office has been writing to us each month to ask about the status of the transcript. Upon receipt of these inquiries, my office contacts the court reporter so that we can provide their response to the inquiry. We have been waiting for responses to our inquiries that have gone unheeded from Ms. Hiskell as well. After reviewing this situation, it appears that the transcript is not yet completed and further, that no extensions have been requested. Therefore, there are no copies to send to you or the Division of Appellate Defense.

Because the transcript is not completed and is long overdue, by copy of this letter, I am directing that Ms. Hiskell request the outstanding extensions and respond in writing to you, Appellate Defense, the Court of Appeals, and myself about the circumstances surrounding the delay in delivery of this transcript.

My office will investigate further and take whatever action is necessary to ensure that the appropriate extensions are approved and that the transcript is delivered to the requester, Office of Appellate Defense. I will do whatever is necessary to move this process along. Of course, you are free to write again, but I don't think it will be necessary. Thank you for your continuing patience.

Sincerely,

Desiree R. Allen

Re: The transcript in your case

Dear Mr. McCall:

Administrative Coordinator Ms. Paula Murdoch continues to send "late letters," almost monthly, to the court reporter who did your trial when we do not receive the transcript by our next calculated deadline. Please understand that these court reporters do not work for us. They work for Court Administration. Consequently, extensions to produce the transcript come from Court Administration, and not from us. We can only continue to do our due diligence by sending out "late letters" seeking an explanation for why we do not have the transcript. The explanation is the court reporter has been granted an extension by Court Administration.

I appreciate your frustration with the length of time that it has taken the court reporter to transcribe your trial, and forward us the transcript. We have sent many "late letters" inquiring about the status of the transcript but that is all that we can do. Once the trial transcript is received, I will assign your case to an Appellate Defender. You will then receive a copy of your transcript, and a letter from your new appellate lawyer.

In the meantime, as I am sure you know you can call this office collect at (803) 734-1330. Although Paula Murdoch is the Administrative Coordinator monitoring your case, and I know you have written to you, and she has written you back, you are free to ask for me. Again, I understand your frustration with the delay our office receiving your trial transcript, forwarding it to you, and assigning an attorney, but we have no authority over the court reporters since they work for Court Administration.

May 12-14 - 2015 - Evile County, Judge, Robin Stillwell

Dear Court of Administration,

In regards to Court Reporter
Ms. Hiskell who was the court reporter in my trial
May 12, 2015, Is she Alive? Does she still work as a court reporter? Well I've inquired about extensions of Time "Possibly Granted by the Court" However I've never received any of my Attorney Robert Dudek who I've requested copies of them; This lady cannot be so busy that she totally refuses to answer any of her letters at all in 9 years time, I've written her and never received the first response.

Does your office have Any extensions of Time
Granted by Order of Court on file? I just need to know.
I'm not asking you to forward them but at least
let me know yes or no
Thank you

Motion For Order of Contempt of Court

RECEIVED

Now comes the above named Plaintiff, Pro Se to move this Court on the Motion For And Order of Contempt of Court to be issued against Court Reporter Caroline Hiskell, for violating SCACR Rule 207(A)(2).

The Plaintiff brings this matter to the Supreme Court arguing that the Court Reporter Caroline Hiskell has violated SCACR Rule 207(A)(2), And has intentionally, willfully neglected to fulfill her ministerial duties. The Plaintiff also argues he has not been assigned any Attorney by the S.C. Commission on Indigent Defense, And has been informed, until transcript of record is produced, he will not be assigned counsel, therefore no "Hybrid representation" exist And Plaintiff should be allowed to proceed Pro Se with the Motion.

The Plaintiff argues that his case is in a Coordinator's possession with the S.C. Commission on Indigents Defense with Maria Paula Murdoch, And has never been assigned to And Attorney, the Plaintiff alleges the same Hybrid representation rebuttal was argued by the Court of Administration until the letter referencing that counsel would not be assigned until trial transcript was received. Then is when Plaintiff was afforded his Pro Se right to move forward without Any denials.

The Plaintiff believes to deny him his Pro Se right where no counsel has been appointed or assigned would be no more than denying him his Rights of Due Process, And Constitutional Rights of the United States And South Carolina, see Attached letter dated June 7, 2016.

Therefore the Plaintiff believes until counsel is appointed and assigned by the S.C. Commission on Indigent Defense he is still hinged on his pro se rights and should be allowed to proceed

Pro se:

The Plaintiff alleges the S.C.A.C.R. Rule 207 specifically states that failure of a Court Reporter to comply with the provisions of this Rule shall constitute contempt of Court enforceable by Order of the Supreme Court. This Rule strictly states violation of this provision constitutes Contempt of Court.

Therefore the Plaintiff request being all the evidence attached is documentary evidence that the Court Reporter has violated these provisions of Rule 207 S.C.A.C.R. by failing to timely prepare/produce total transcript or file for extensions of time, is evidence that Court Reporter Caroline Hiskell has grossly violated this Rule of S.C.A.C.R. 207, and therefore the Plaintiff moves for this Court to issue an Order for Contempt of Court, or as the Court deems just and proper.

Dear Mr. McCall:

I am responding to the letters you've been sending since February 2016 regarding this transcript. I spoke with your brother earlier this week regarding this situation and explained that I would write to you to try to eliminate some of the frustration I am sure you are feeling over this situation. I am sorry that you haven't received a satisfactory response. By way of information, when the Division of Appellate Defense requests a transcript, I assume that they are your legal representative. That office has been writing to us each month to ask about the status of the transcript. Upon receipt of these inquiries, my office contacts the court reporter so that we can provide their response to the inquiry. We have been waiting for responses to our inquiries that have gone unheeded from Ms. Hiskell as well. After reviewing this situation, it appears that the transcript is not yet completed and further, that no extensions have been requested. Therefore, there are no copies to send to you or the Division of Appellate Defense.

Because the transcript is not completed and is long overdue, by copy of this letter, I am directing that Ms. Hiskell request the outstanding extensions and respond in writing to you, Appellate Defense, the Court of Appeals, and myself about the circumstances surrounding the delay in delivery of this transcript.

My office will investigate further and take whatever action is necessary to ensure that the appropriate extensions are approved and that the transcript is delivered to the requester, Office of Appellate Defense. I will do whatever is necessary to move this process along. Of course, you are free to write again, but I don't think it will be necessary. Thank you for your continuing patience.

Sincerely,

Desiree R. Allen

Re: The transcript in your case

Dear Mr. McCall:

Administrative Coordinator Ms. Paula Murdoch continues to send "late letters," almost monthly, to the court reporter who did your trial when we do not receive the transcript by our next calculated deadline. Please understand that these court reporters do not work for us. They work for Court Administration. Consequently, extensions to produce the transcript come from Court Administration, and not from us. We can only continue to do our due diligence by sending out "late letters" seeking an explanation for why we do not have the transcript. The explanation is the court reporter has been granted an extension by Court Administration.

I appreciate your frustration with the length of time that it has taken the court reporter to transcribe your trial, and forward us the transcript. We have sent many "late letters" inquiring about the status of the transcript but that is all that we can do. Once the trial transcript is received, I will assign your case to an Appellate Defender. You will then receive a copy of your transcript, and a letter from your new appellate lawyer.

In the meantime, as I am sure you know you can call this office collect at (803) 734-1330. Although Paula Murdoch is the Administrative Coordinator monitoring your case, and I know you have written to you, and she has written you back, you are free to ask for me. Again, I understand your frustration with the delay our office receiving your trial transcript, forwarding it to you, and assigning an attorney, but we have no authority over the court reporters since they work for Court Administration.

Re: Your case

Dear Mr. McCall:

Enclosed is a telephone privilege form that will allow you to call us collect. I am also attaching copies of the letters to Court Administration requesting updates on the transcript. We send these letters anytime a transcript is overdue. The court reporters can request for extensions to produce a transcript and Court Administration will grant them extensions, but we rarely receive a copy of those.

Again, feel free to call me collect at (803) 734-1330. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Paula Murdoch
Administrative Coordinator

Re: The transcript in your case

Dear Mr. McCall:

Administrative Coordinator Ms. Paula Murdoch continues to send "late letters," almost monthly, to the court reporter who did your trial when we do not receive the transcript by our next calculated deadline. Please understand that these court reporters do not work for us. They work for Court Administration. Consequently, extensions to produce the transcript come from Court Administration, and not from us. We can only continue to do our due diligence by sending out "late letters" seeking an explanation for why we do not have the transcript. The explanation is the court reporter has been granted an extension by Court Administration.

I appreciate your frustration with the length of time that it has taken the court reporter to transcribe your trial, and forward us the transcript. We have sent many "late letters" inquiring about the status of the transcript but that is all that we can do. Once the trial transcript is received, I will assign your case to an Appellate Defender. You will then receive a copy of your transcript, and a letter from your new appellate lawyer.

In the meantime, as I am sure you know you can call this office collect at (803) 734-1330. Although Paula Murdoch is the Administrative Coordinator monitoring your case, and I know you have written to you, and she has written you back, you are free to ask for me. Again, I understand your frustration with the delay our office receiving your trial transcript, forwarding it to you, and assigning an attorney, but we have no authority over the court reporters since they work for Court Administration.
