In Re: Motion For Order of Contempt issued against Court Reporter Caroline Hiskell.

Dear Supreme Court,

I filed a motion requesting your office issue order for Contempt of Court against Caroline Hiskell, Court Reporter.
Prior to this motion I forwarded a letter in same regards. Your office responded May 23, 16 with a letter citing Miller v. State 388 S.C. 347, Jones v. State 348 S.C. 13 and two more. Neither of these cases have anything to do with my situation. I am not represented by no attorney yet! The Commission on Indigent Defense has not acted on my behalf with anything. And cannot and will not until they receive the transcript. And to reject my Pro Se motion, turn me down by alleging Hybrid representation when, no attorney has represented me nevertheless ever been assigned. It is no more than Abuse of authority, and this is not equal protection of the law for me so I am asking you to please allow my Pro Se motion to be reviewed

THANKS
Mr. Terry McCall
