In Re: Jacqueline Buie v. Walmart, Inc., et al

Dear Ms. Buie,

I received your letter dated May 3, 2016 requesting a copy of recordings for the above-mentioned hearing held on September 28, 2015. My records reflect that I responded to your challenge to the accuracy of this transcript on May 11, 2016 by advising you that I had reviewed the transcript and found it to be a verbatim transcript of the proceedings.

The transcript was delivered to you on April 6, 2016. There is no provision for a court reporter to provide recordings. The transcript is the official record. Pursuant to Rule 607, I was required to retain the records for a period of 30 days. The 30 days expired on May 6, 2016. Therefore, these records are no longer available and there is no need to contact me again regarding the proceedings on September 28, 2015. I am unable to assist you further.

Sincerely,

Stacy L. Sheppard, RPR
