

I Anthony Reshun Jennings feel I have arguable basis that there are issues preserved for an appeal. My lawyer Mr. William Frick didn't properly prepare me for what was really going on. I went to fire my lawyer in May because I felt that he wasn't representing me 100% in my best interest and he didn't properly prepare me for hearing that he agree he haven't talked to me enough to prepare me like he should. The Judge W. Jeffery Young told me I only had two options. I was to go to trial and represent myself or go along with Mr. Frick. I said, "I'll go along with Mr. Frick but he need to put more effort into preparing me for my case". The Judge asked Mr. Frick can he have me properly prepared for my case he said, "Yes". When I left the court room and went back to my County Jail I was hoping to hear from my lawyer but I didn't. I didn't hear or see my lawyer until my trial day. I ask Mr. Frick why didn't you come see me. He said he was busy. During the Plea hearing when the Judge ask me a question like, "Did your lawyer properly prepared you for what's going on I said, NO". So the Judge continued to ask me question. my lawyer Mr. William Frick also didn't bring me up for my first appearance, second appearance or my preliminary hearing. I feel like the Judge wasn't being fair with the situation. I was sentenced in Chester County On May 25 2016. Can you please help me. Thank You
