SC Court of Appeals

⑤

I was revoked in full by Judge Hood My Agent says for three violations first not pay, second not finishing my Community Services, and three not taking a drug test. She was my third agent don't have any problems or concerns with the first two. One went to the predators cases, and the other one to another branch. I always report when I get off my job every second Thursday in the month pay my 50 dollars and want to have to be there at 9 but they don't get there til 10 I set off at 8 catch the bus there. I never miss a payment, I finish my community service only had 80 hours but I was still going I gotten 120 hours done

LEGAL

Me and the agent had words since our first meeting, after that I talk to her supervisor me & my wife about getting another officer she talk us in to staying with her cause she just started and she said she was going to sit in on my appearances. My wife and mother came with me a couple of times so I can show them how rude she was and all my mother was asking her a question about me and she went off not knowing this was my mother she thought it was another parole. My mother talk to her supervisor to. she told the judge that we was rude and she ask the supervisor to be in there. That was a lie. The judge didnt ask the supervisor nothing. He ask me

What happen I told him the ~~SAME~~ thing I paid my money the have it on there files, I finish my community service but was still going but I didn't take a drug test that day I couldn't pay so after three hours I left I had to take my brother to his therapy. He is paralyzed and me and my mother takes care of him we don't get government ASS so I worked other jobs to help with her bills as well. She put a Warrant out for me I call the Police to see they said they didn't have one but the P.D can put one on you and not come to them So I went to Alvin S. Green and found myself in <sup>PASS</sup> they wouldn't let me cause the didn't see nothing

I told them what for I they call the P O
And told them I was here. My wife call and told them I was down there waiting, she told my wife And the officer at the desk I need to come down there. We got there early so we could catch bond court And be back home before my brother knew. They didnt come till 3. or 4 so I was stuck for the weekend, she said she ask for the supervisor she didnt I did Ask her superviss she said I did pay I did

They got my payments on file and my lawyers do to everytime I report I paid she said I didnt do my community service I did 100 hours she said I didnt take a drug test I didnt I couldnt deny
