Re: Ronald Coulter #300410 v. State of SC
Appellate Case No. 2013-002379

Dear Counsel:

Pursuant to the Order dated November 12, 2015, Appellate Defense is to print the record on appeal and the appellant's final brief. No appellant's final brief or appellant's final reply brief have been received. The caption must be corrected on the record on appeal to reflect the correct caption which is as follows:

Ronald Coulter #300410, Appellant,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

You must bring adequate labels for you to correct the caption on the unbound original and all copies of the record on appeal.

The record on appeal must be corrected, and the appellant's final brief and appellant's final reply brief must be served and filed, within 10 days of the date of this letter. Please be sure to use the correct caption on the appellant's final brief.

Very truly yours,

V. Claude Allen, Deputy

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Ronald Coulter #300410, Appellant,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2013-002379

ORDER

This appeal was dismissed due to Appellant's failure to serve Respondent with an amended record on appeal that contains all items listed in the parties' designations of matter. Appellant has filed a petition to reinstate the dismissal of this appeal, explaining that he is indigent and is financially unable to print the record on appeal.

Under these unique circumstances, we find it appropriate to reinstate this appeal and appoint the Division of Appellate Defense for the sole purpose of printing the record on appeal and Appellant's final brief. We urge the Attorney General's Office to assist Appellate Defense in compiling the documents designated to be included in the record. The record shall be served within thirty days of this order.

Re: Ronald Coulter #300410 v. State of SC
Appellate Case No. 2013-002379

Dear Counsel and Mr. Coulter:

All parties are advised that the originals of all records on appeal and final briefs filed with the appellate courts are scanned. Therefore, in accordance with the May 1, 2008 Amendments to the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, DO NOT staple, spiral bind, velobind, or otherwise permanently bind the ORIGINALS of these documents. The original brief(s) and record on appeal should still have front and back covers in compliance with Rule 267(e) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, but should not be bound. You may secure the originals with paper clips, binder clips, rubber bands, by placing them in large envelopes, or by any other similar means that will keep the pages together without binding or hole-punching. All COPIES of the record on appeal and final briefs should be bound as specified in the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

We suggest that large parcels such as copies of final briefs and the record on appeal be sent directly to the Court via the street address: 1205 Pendleton Street, Columbia, S.C. 29201. Thank you for your attention to this.

According to our records, the correct caption for this appeal should read as follows on the record on appeal and all final briefs:

Ronald Coulter #300410, Appellant,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Furthermore, the Court anticipates that the attorney information for all attorneys receiving a copy of this letter will appear on the cover of the record on appeal. The attorney information for the party submitting the brief should appear on the final briefs.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
