SC Court of Appeals

Apologies for the second email, I prematurely sent the first one

Ms Allen,

I would ask for the standard 10 days to reply to this "motion". There is nothing "urgent" or "emergency" about the request made by Plaintiff's counsel that requires an emergency hearing or shortened reply time. Plaintiff's counsel's request deals only and solely with a deposition that was timely and properly noticed. It has absolutely no bearing on care being provided and is not delaying or preventing any care from being provided. So there is no "urgent" need for this matter to be briefed in a shortened window.

Thank you,

Brett H. Bayne
