Re: State v. Antonio Jordan, Appellate Case No. 2015-000237

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Today I received a letter dated June 29, 2016 from Mr. Antonio Jordan. In the letter, he stated that he was not aware the Order issued by the Court of Appeals on April 20, 2016, which gave him ten (10) days to provide notification to the Court regarding the relevancy of additional transcripts. In the letter, Mr. Jordan explained that he was moved to Gilliam Psychiatric Hospital (GPH) within Kirkland Correctional and his mail was being held at Broad River Correctional. It looks like Broad River sent his mail to Kirkland on May 17, 2016. He asked that I advise you that "additional time is still needed [due] to [his] current placement at GPH." He further asked me to inform you that he is waiting for Court Administration to send the records of "M. Campo" to another court reporter for transcription. I have copied Mr. Jordan on this correspondence so that he is aware of our discussions.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan B. Hackett
Appellate Defender
