RE: The State, v. Aaron Baynard Griswold
Appellate Case No. 2016-001215

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I previously filed a Notice of Appeal on behalf of Mr. Griswold.

Although I am not retained on the appeal, the Office of Indigent Appellate Defense asked me to obtain an Affidavit of Indigency from Mr. Griswold. Mr. Griswold was previously incarcerated in the York County Detention Center but subsequently transferred to the custody of the SC Dept of Corrections and transferred to the Reception and Evaluation Center at Kirkland in Columbia,

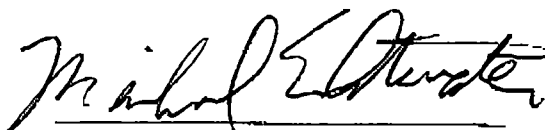

I was able to arrange an appointment to visit him and have obtained an Affidavit of Indigency which I have faxed over the the Office of Appellate Defense.

I am informed that the deadline in which to order a transcript of the trial was July 6th. The Office of Appellate Defense instructed me to file a request for an extension and I called over and spoke with Brandon Hall who advised me to fax this letter asking for an extension of time to request the transcript. I anticipate that the Office of Appellate Defense will be taking over this appeal and requesting the transcript in short order.
