NOTICE OF CONSTITUTIONAL
CHALLENGE RULE 5.1

AND INJUNCTION

Plaintiff(s) vs.

AMEER A. AMIN, (Corporate Person)
Amin, Ameer A. In Propria Persona
4240 Amelia Drive
Sumter, SC [29154]

Defendant in Error,

NOTICE OF CONSTITUTIONAL CHALLENGE RULE 5.1
AND INJUNCTION

TAKE NOTICE THAT pursuant to the [FRCP Rule 5.1(a)] the defendant listed in the above-styled action will make an application for:

1. Short leave to be granted for the application; and
2. Relief under [24(1) of the FRCP] on the following grounds:

A. Challenge of the constitutionality of ALL State Statues involving Foreclosure and Foreclosure proceedings.

The following is a list of Constitutional Rights that are being violated by State Statues. Also, I reserve the right to adopt other States Constitutional Rights under the United States Constitution Article IV Section 4 (Full Faith and Credit shall be given in each State to the public Acts, Records, and judicial Proceedings of every other State. And the Congress may by general Laws prescribe the Manner in which such Acts, Records and Proceedings shall be proved, and the Effect thereof) and Section 2 (The Citizens of each State shall be entitled to all Privileges and Immunities of Citizens in the several States):

AFFIDAVIT FOR RULE 5.1

Rule 5.1. Constitutional Challenge to a Statute

The Federal Civil Procedure Rule 5.1 states the following:

(a) NOTICE BY A PARTY. A party that files a pleading, written motion, or other paper drawing into question the constitutionality of a federal or state statute must promptly:

(1) file a notice of constitutional question stating the question and identifying the paper that raises it, if:

(A) a federal statute is questioned and the parties do not include the United States, one of its agencies, or one of its officers or employees in an official capacity; or

(B) a state statute is questioned and the parties do not include the state, one of its agencies, or one of its officers or employees in an official capacity; and

(2) serve the notice and paper on the Attorney General of the United States if a federal statute is questioned—or on the state attorney general if a state statute is questioned—either by certified or registered mail or by sending it to an electronic address designated by the attorney general for this purpose.

(b) CERTIFICATION BY THE COURT. The court must, under 28 U.S.C. §2403, certify to the appropriate attorney general that a statute has been questioned.

(c) INTERVENTION; FINAL DECISION ON THE MERITS. Unless the court sets a later time, the attorney general may intervene within 60 days after the notice is filed or after the court certifies the challenge, whichever is earlier. Before the time to intervene expires, the court may reject the constitutional challenge, but may not enter a final judgment holding the statute unconstitutional.

(d) NO FORFEITURE. A party's failure to file and serve the notice or the court's failure to certify, does not forfeit a constitutional claim or defense that is otherwise timely asserted.

CLERK OF COURT
SUMTER COUNTY, S.C.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

C/A NO.: 2014-CP-43-00270

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO VACATE JUDGMENT AND SALE AND MOTION TO CONTINUE

THIS MATTER came before me on the Defendant's Motion to vacate judgment and sale issued by this Court on November 20, 2014. After careful review of the arguments presented, pleadings, the applicable rules of civil procedure and case law concerning those rules, I make the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT:

1. The Plaintiff's Lis Pendens, Summons and Complaint were filed on February 11, 2014. Judgment of foreclosure and sale was entered in the action on November 20, 2014. The Defendant filed a Motion to vacate judgment and sale on February 17, 2015, and thereafter submitted a request for a continuance of the hearing.
2. The defendant did not put forth any credible evidence or grounds to constitute a continuance.
3. The Motion to vacate judgment and sale contained nothing on its face to indicate that the Defendant would be entitled to some relief under the rules of applicable case law. This denial is not based on the Defendant's failure to appear.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Based upon the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to an Order denying Defendant's motion to vacate judgment and sale.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Defendant's motion to vacate judgment and sale is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
