

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Glenda Couram, Appellant,

v.

Lula N. Davis, Shirley Rivers, Constance "Connie" Rhett, Marcia Adams, Dottie Blankenship, Tosha Autry, Steven W. Lake, and SC Department of Motor Vehicles, in their official and individual capacities, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2012-213441

ORDER

---

This Court received the appellant's pro se motion to recall remittitur on February 23, 2016, as well as a motion to relieve her attorney on February 29, 2016. The appeal was remitted on February 17, 2016.

We decline to act upon the appellant's pro se filings. First, the appellant is represented by counsel, and counsel has not been relieved pursuant to Rule 264 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). Accordingly, the Court cannot accept a motion to recall remittitur filed pro se by a represented party. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel."); Rule 264(b), SCACR (stating an attorney may not withdraw from representation without a written order of the court).

Second, the Court is without jurisdiction to entertain the appellant's motion to relieve counsel because the sending of remittitur ended appellate jurisdiction. Stogsdill v. S.C. Dep't of Health & Human Servs., 415 S.C. 568, 569, 784 S.E.2d 669 (2016) ("The sending of remittitur ended appellate jurisdiction over this case, and no further motions will be entertained after the remittitur is sent.").

This Court will not accept any more filings in this case. The appellant filed identical motions with the Supreme Court on the same date these motions were filed in the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court denied the motion to recall remittitur, struck and dismissed the petition for rehearing, and struck the request to proceed pro se. Therefore, this case is ended and the Court is without jurisdiction to entertain any further motions by the appellant.
