Re: Retha Sturdivant v. City of Conway
Appellate Case No. 2015-001621

Dear Ms. Sturdivant:

The Court received your motion to allow your amended initial brief to be filed out of time. According to our calculation, your amended brief was timely served and filed. Therefore, your motion is unnecessary and no further action will be taken with regard to your request to allow the late filing of the brief.

You are further advised that the statement "oral argument requested" that you have included on the cover page of the amended brief is not in compliance with Rule 240 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, and cannot be treated as a motion. If you would like to file a motion regarding oral argument, the motion must be in compliance with the rule and would be more appropriately filed after the record on appeal and final briefs have been filed.

By copy of this letter, all parties are advised the respondent's initial brief and designation of matter must be served and filed no more than thirty days from the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
