APPEAL FROM RICHLAND COUNTY

SC Court of Appeals

Mamie Jackson, Appellant v.

Richland County Sheriff Deputy P.
Wilkes, et al.

In The Matter of Clerk of Court V. Claire Allen, Deputy

MOTION TO REQUEST THE COURT TO ORDER THE DEPUTY CLERK TO COMPLY WITH THE RULES OF COURT

I, Mamie Jackson, did file on April 21, 2016 a "Motion to Recall the Remittitur, paid the court filing fees and property served the motion. The refusal by the Deputy Clerk to treat the Appellant Jackson as all other parties are treated is discriminatory and unconstitutional. All attorneys of records are notified of any deficiencies and given a set number of days to bring the filing into compliance. Follow up letters to the Deputy Clerk have been blatantly ignored.

Request that the Court (1) order the Deputy Clerk to treat the Plaintiff Jackson in the same manner as all other applicants, that is attorney at laws and law firms are treated; (2) treat the April 21, 2016 filing in the same manners as would be treated by attorney at laws and law firms.

RE: Motion To Recall The Remittitur Filed April 21, 2016
14-CP-40-7467
Appellate Case No. 2015-001696

Deputy Clerk V. Claire Allen:

I have received your correspondence dated and postmarked May 4, 2016. I filed this motion on April 21, 2016. This motion was properly filed and the motions fee paid.

Kindly provide for me the statute under which you are operating whereby a clerk of the court makes a judicial ruling. Since this motion has been held for some time, kindly publish for me all persons contacted regarding this motion and ruling, and provide for me a copy of all communications in any form. It is my understanding that the court has an administrative daily duty judge, was this ruling made by him and if it was, why was it not in writing.

Faith In Truth,

Mame Jackson
