Re: Anthony Tilmon v. The State
Appellate Case No. 2016-000160
Lower Court Case No. 2014CP0201898

Dear Mr. Tilmon:

This responds to your letter to Justice Beatty dated June 22, 2016. Please be advised that Justice Beatty cannot consider this ex parte communication about the above case.

If you believed that the South Carolina Court of Appeals erred in dismissing the appeal in this case, then you should have sought reinstatement under Rule 260 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and if reinstatement was denied, to then serve and file a petition for a writ of certiorari and appendix under Rule 242, SCACR. You did not do either, and the Court of Appeals sent the remittitur to the circuit court on April 6, 2016, ending appellate jurisdiction over this case. Wise v. S.C. Dept. of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007).

Very truly yours,

CLERK

Date: June 22, 2016

Dear Sir,

I am writing to your office in the hopes of getting your assistance in a matter dealing with a State habeas corpus case that I file in the County of Aiken. This is the county that I was arrested and convicted in. The problem that I am having is that I never received a case number; nor had I received any legal counsel in this case. Plus, your Honor, I'd like to also mention that the trial judge, the Honorable Judge Early, had signed off in a Final Order, denying my habeas corpus. He clearly should have recused himself, but he did not do so. From there, I filed an appeal in the S.C. Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals ruled in his favor. This is why I am writing to you now. I was hoping that you could help me in this matter. For this is obviously a miscarriage of justice. Please allow me to thank you in advance for any assistance you can give in this matter.

Respectfully,

Anthony C. Tilmon, II
