RE: Alexander Guice v. U.S. Food Service, Inc. and ACE American Insurance
Company c/o Gallagher Bassett Services, Inc.
Date of Accident: May 5, 2005
WCC File No.: 0506205
Our File No.: 2098.12550
Claim No.: 004063-032175-wc-01
Appeal No.: 2015-001821

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This letter is in response to Appellant Alexander Guice's letter to you of same date. Rule 263(a), SCACR, provides, in pertinent part, that "[n]o additional time shall be allowed after service by mail ... Rule 6(e), SCRCP, is not applicable to these rules, and no additional time shall be allowed by reason of service by mail ..." If Appellant seeks an extension of time in which to file his Initial Reply Brief, he needs to file a motion requesting the same, along with the appropriate filing fee.

By copy of this letter, I am serving Appellant Alexander Guice with this correspondence.

Yours truly,
McAngus Goudelock & Courie, LLC

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Good morning.

Please be advised that the undersigned Appellant request customer service. Specifically, today, June 29, 2016, the undersigned received a copy of the June 24, 2016 Court Order denying Appellant's Motion to Strike, as well as the cover letter enclosed, which was verified by Deputy Clerk Allen. However, the correspondence from Deputy Clerk Allen states that the Appellant must file his initial reply brief (or other pleading) within "no more than ten days from the date of this letter", which now only affords the undersigned five (5) days to take appropriate action.

The undersigned respectfully request that the same be afforded ten (10) days from process receipt of service of the Court Order dated June 24, 2016, which would expire on or around July 9, 2016, to take appropriate action in this matter, due to the fact that as a current resident of Tampa, FL, Ms. Allen's computation of time does not include consideration for the time it takes for the Court Order to be serviced upon Appellant via first class regular mail. The undersigned believes this to be a reasonable request.

By copy of this correspondence, Erin L. Hantske, Esq., the Respondents' Counsel of record, has been provided a copy of the same via regular mail and electronic mail. Please respond to this request at your earliest convenience. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Kind regards,

Alexander Guice
