We will be fine to do it. Please advise us as to the date and time.

Judge Keesley,

Thank you for reaching out to all parties on this reconstruction issue. My Office did get a copy of the order of remand and I have spoken to Solicitor Maye about it. I also forwarded copies of the order to Solicitor Myers. As things now stand, the Solicitor's Office will be handling all aspects of the reconstruction hearing on behalf of the State, including this initial hearing to discuss what additional procedures, if any, need to occur. I did not intend to appear or participate in this matter unless you determine someone from the Attorney General's Office needs to attend. If that is the case, I will make arrangements to be there on either August 1st or 2nd, whichever date works for everyone else's schedule. Otherwise, I will leave this matter in the capable hands of Solicitor Maye. Please advise if this is acceptable.

The South Carolina Court of Appeals has issued an order remanding the above-referenced case for the purpose of reconstruction of the record on the Stand Your Ground hearing. Would the attorneys be available on August 1 in Lexington to discuss the procedure that we should use to comply with the remand? I have a State Grand Jury plea at 10:00 a.m., but should be able to meet with you on or after 11:00 a.m. If that date does not suit, are you available on August 2? Thank you.
