Clerk's Order of Dismissal April 2016

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Sir:

When appellant submits an initial brief which references quote(s) from the transcript of record in the lower court and the designation of matter clearly points thereto the transcript of record as part of the record on appeal which was forwarded to the respondent's-defendant's attorney; how can respondent's attorney file a return stating no transcript was ordered or provided and how can the clerk of court of appeal correctly, properly issue an order of dismissal claiming no proof of transcript of record provided?

Any information in this matter will be appreciated.

Respectfully requested,

/s/ Isiah James, Jr.
