Re: The State v. Brian Jacob Terrell
Appellate Case No. 2015-001020

Dear Ms. Allen:

I have spoken to the Chief Appellate Defender Robert Dudek and it is his respectful understanding that the 60 day/45 time limits deadlines day rule for appeals, rather than the 30 day rule, which applies to Appellate Defense and Attorney General cases, also applies to Appellate Defense and Probation, Pardon, and Parole Services cases. That is apparently also the understanding of General Counsel for PPP although that Department attempts to file their brief of respondent within 30 days if at all possible. Mr. Dudek informed me that he will respectfully discuss this matter further with Chief Judge Lockemy during a future administrative meeting.

Regardless, in an abundance of caution, based on your letter, I will file an extension request today regarding the initial brief of appellant in this case. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Tiffany L. Butler
