RE: Edwin M. Smith, Jr. v. David Fedor
Appellate Case No. 2014-001826

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

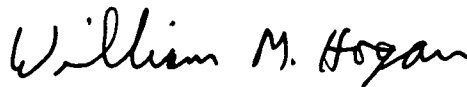

On behalf of the appellant, I am writing to inform the court of a typographical error in the Appellant's Reply Brief filed October 16, 2015. On page 1 of the Reply Brief, 4 lines from the bottom, the number "$350,000" should read "$335,000". With the correction, the full sentence should read as follows:

"... Appellant succinctly stated in Argument III that Respondent owed $400,000, paid an initial $50,000 down payment plus $335,000 in installments for a total of $385,000.00..."

I have consulted with respondent's counsel who consents to the notification of correction.

If you have any questions or need anything further, please let me know.

Sincerely,

William M. Hogan
