Appellant,

v.

Respondent.

Motion to proceed
In forma pauperis

The appellant would move to be allowed to proceed without prepayment of the $100.00 filing fee. As outlined in re Henry Martin... SE 2nd..., There exist a liberty Interest and the appellant should be allowed to proceed without prepayment of filing fee.

As the Issue before the court deals with the use of force by a correctional officer, as a point of clarity, force was used against my roommate due to his behavior.

I was forced to be closed in a ~~room~~ cell after a correctional officer dispersed 11 grams of chemical munitions and locked in my cell while the vent/air was off to provide ventilation for some 30 minutes.

Secondly, I use catheters In order to urinate, I was not able to urinate due to the actions of the same officer.

Due to this gross misuse of force, this Court should allow the appellant to proceed without prepayment of $100.00 filing fee.
