Appellant hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for a 30-day extension of the time in which to serve and file Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal in this case. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. The deadline for service and filing of Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal is currently tomorrow, July 25, 2016.
2. This is the second extension that the undersigned has sought in this appeal.
3. Appellant's counsel seek a 30-day extension of this deadline in order to give them time to complete the brief.
4. While the undersigned has been working on the brief, it is not yet complete. This case concerns important issues, and Appellants' counsel want this matter to be as thoroughly briefed as possible.
5. It is unlikely that Appellant's counsel will need to use all of the extended time if this extension is granted.
6. Opposing counsel consents to the requested extension, as the attached email exchange shows.
7. Appellant's counsel believe there is good cause to grant the requested extension.

WHEREFORE Appellant prays for an Order extending the time in which to serve and file Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal by 30 days, making the new deadline August 24, 2016.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrew S. Radeker

Butch:

I'm up at the office working on the brief, and it just doesn't seem realistic that I'll have it the way I want it by tomorrow. Would you mind consenting to a second extension? I don't plan to use all of the extended time, just enough to get this brief the way I think it ought to be.

Thanks.
