

Dear Ms. Jenny A. Kitching:

The grounds or issue concerning this Appeal is that solicitor M. Shelton did not present the evidence. The confident informant did not turn the said substance (Crack Cocaine) in to the Police or Drug Agent. To my knowledge or for all I may know, the Police may have allowed the informant use the drugs by smoking it. The one gram of crack cocaine isn't correct and this informant isn't reliable. The informant is currently detained for violation of probation, so it's obvious that he has a criminal record, which makes his testimony void. There is a conflict of interest issue with Honorable Judge Daniel D. Hall who was a solicitor in a case when I was assaulted with a weapon and shot at and he; Daniel D. Hall dismissed the case. Hon. Judge Daniel D. Hall stated that if I take a trial and I get found guilty He can sentence me to 20 or 25 years, so I pled guilty because I felt like I wouldn't get a fair trial. The Solicitor and the police used this informant to set me up so that he could get out of trouble, which isn't rules of the law. Please get with my lawyer to have this reviewed.
