SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I returned from vacation today to receive Mr. Spencer's twenty-page letter dated July 7, 2016 in response to my affidavit dated June 29, 2016. Predictably, Mr. Spencer failed to file and serve an amended record in compliance with the Court's May 26, 2016 Order and Rule 210, and predictably Spencer now launches accusations rather than offer a justifiable excuse for violating the Court's Order and Rules. I do not intend to glorify Mr. Spencer's claims by responding point-by-point. Suffice it to say that after over eighteen months, we still do not have a record that complies with Rule 210 or that allows the Respondents to prepare their final briefs. The fault lies entirely with Mr. Spencer (and his unidentified "medical aide"), not with the Respondents. Rather than allowing this madness to continue, the Court should deny Spencer's motion to reinstate his appeal.

Sincerely,

Benjamin C. Bruner
