ORDER

RICHLAND COUNTY
FILED
2011 AUG -3 PM 4:17
JEANETTE W. MCBRIDE
C.C.P. & G.S.

This matter came before me on July 11, 2011, for hearing on several motions. Present were the Plaintiff and his counsel, Stephanie Weissenstein, Andrew Linderman as counsel for Horry County, defendant Adrian Falgione, pro se, and Defendants James Spencer and Rodney Lail, who are pro se, but for whom attorney Tom Mosley made a limited appearance. The relevant motions before the Court were as follows: Plaintiff's Motion to Quash Subpoena, Plaintiff's Motion to Strike and to File Under Seal and Defendant Falgione's Motion to Quash Subpoena.

Regarding the motions to Quash Subpoena, I find that the materials requested by the Subpoenas issued by pro se Defendant James Spencer on February 10, 2011 are privileged financial records belonging to Plaintiff or his counsel, and the request is overly broad, unduly burdensome and is not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Furthermore, there is no question of fact that the Plaintiff possesses sixty-two thousand, six hundred and ninety-one dollars and seventy-eight cents ($62,691.78) that is related to the litigation by and/or between the parties hereto in which Plaintiff served as legal counsel for certain of these defendants, including James Spencer. Furthermore, I find that the materials sought from Defendant Falgione, which are not in his custody, are also confidential in nature and that the request is overly broad and not likely to lead to admissible evidence.

Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the Subpoenas issued by pro se Defendant James Spencer on February 10, 2011 is quashed for the reasons stated above.

Plaintiff moves to strike the Answer and Counterclaim Complaint which was filed by Defendants James Spencer, Doris Holt, Rodney Keith Lail, Irene Santacroce, Marguerite Stephens and Ricky Stephens, and Michael Hartness on or around January 18, 2011. Plaintiff asserts that these defendants have alleged facts and submitted documents containing confidential and inflammatory information that could cause substantial harm to the Plaintiff and which do not have any bearing on this lawsuit. After in camera review of certain documentation presented by Plaintiff and of the pleadings in this record, I conclude that these matters are defamatory in nature, unnecessary to ensure a fair trial, and have been addressed and disposed of in another forum in favor of Plaintiff.

Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT any and all pleadings filed by pro se defendants James Spencer, Doris Holt, Rodney Keith Lail, Irene Santacroce, Marguerite Stephens and Ricky Stephens, and Michael Hartness in response to Complaints regarding this matter or in which allegations are made either against Plaintiff or related to his prior professional relationship with these defendants are hereby stricken. Specifically, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT all the allegations highlighted in Exhibit A of Plaintiff's Motion to Strike shall be redacted from the Response to Second Amended Complaint.

Plaintiff has requested that the pleadings in this matter be filed under seal pursuant to Rule 41.1(b) SCRCP. That motion is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ORDER DENYING
MOTION TO COMPEL
SUBSTITUTING PARTIES
RELEASE OF LITIGATION
FUNDS, AND AMENDING
COMPLAINT ACCORDINGLY

This matter came before me on September 15, 2011, for hearing on Defendant James Spencer's "EXPEDITED MOTION TO COMPEL DEFENDANTS REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND REQUEST TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF TO ANSWER DEFENDANTS FIRST ROUND OF INTEROGATORIES AND REQUEST FOR A JURY TRIAL ON ALL MATTERS RELATED TO 2008-CP-40-6656". Present were the Plaintiff and his Counsel, Stephanie Weissenstein, Defendant, Adrian Falgione, pro se, and Defendants James Spencer and Rodney Lail, who are pro se.

This case was before the Honorable William H. Seals, Jr. for a hearing on July 11, 2011, for a hearing on several motions, including Plaintiff's motion to quash a subpoena issued against him at the behest of Defendant James Spencer. The subpoena which was the subject of that hearing and the requests for production which Mr. Spencer seeks to compel includes several of the same documents.

There is a long-standing rule in this State that one judge of the same court cannot overrule another. Tisdale v. Amer. Life Ins. Co., 216 S.C. 10, 56 S.E.2d 580 (1950); Dinkins v. Robbins, 203 S.C. 199, 26 S.E.2d 689 (1943). Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT Mr. Spencer's motion to compel the production of documents included in the subpoena is Denied¹.

The Court understands that Defendant Doris Holt is now deceased. Plaintiff Rakowsky, Defendant Falgione, Defendant Spencer and Defendant Lail consent to Doris Holt's estate being substituted as the real party at interest. The substitution of the estate is Granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ORDER DENYING
MOTION TO COMPEL

JEANETTE W. McBRIDE
S.C.P. & G.S.

FILED

This matter came before me on July 19, 2012 at 9:30 AM, for hearing on pro se Defendant Irene Santacroce's "Motion to Compel of Defendant Irene Santacroce". Present were the Plaintiff's counsel, Stephanie Weissenstein and Desa Ballard. At the Court's instruction, the Bailiff, in the main hallway, called for Ms. Santacroce and other interested parties. None appeared.

Counsel for Plaintiff introduced into the record two prior orders of this Court addressing discovery. First, the order of Honorable William H. Seals, Jr., filed on August 3, 2011, quashed a subpoena for records in this matter. Judge Seals found that the materials requested by the subpoenas issued by pro se Defendant James Spencer on February 10, 2011 "are privileged financial records belonging to Plaintiff or his counsel, and the request is overly broad, unduly burdensome and is not likely to lead to admissible evidence" and there is no question of fact warranting discovery of these materials. Also, by Order dated October 18, 2011, Judge James Barber ruled that "there is a long-standing rule in this State that one judge of the same court cannot overrule another," and he denied Mr. Spencer's motion to compel answers to Interrogatories and Requests for Production.

By her motion, Ms. Santacroce, the co-defendant of Mr. Spencer herein, seeks to compel answers to discovery seeking similar documents and answers similar to that which have already been denied by this Court.

Ms. Santacroce's Motion to Compel is hereby DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ORDER

2014 JAN 10 PM 2:12
JEANETTE M. McBRIDE
C.C.P. & G.S.
FILED

This case has been assigned to me by Chief Administrative Judge Manning for final disposition. The case was on the non-jury docket for the week beginning December 16, 2013. A pretrial conference was held before me on December 17, 2013. Present for the Plaintiff John Rakowsky was Desa Ballard. Michael Sribnick appeared for defendants Irene Santacroce and Rodney Lail. Defendant James Spencer was present pro se, with his assistant Robert Wadley. No other parties appeared. Defendant Spencer advised the court he was also appearing on behalf of the Estate of Doris Holt, for which he is the duly-appointed personal representative. I find that Mr. Spencer is not permitted to appear in this action on behalf of the Estate of Doris Holt, or on behalf of any party other than himself individually.

Mr. Sribnick has only recently appeared as counsel for Ms. Santacroce and he moved for a continuance of the trial for a period of sixty-days to enable him to become familiar with the case. Over Plaintiff's objection, the motion is granted.

[Signature]

Defendant James Spencer indicated there are motions pending which must be resolved prior to trial. Within 15 days of service of this order upon him by either the Clerk of Court or Ms. Ballard, Mr. Spencer shall provide to the undersigned, and serve on all counsel of record and all non-defaulting parties, a list identifying all motions he contends are unresolved, along with file-stamped copies of each motion. No later than January 25, 2014, Mr. Spencer shall file with the court and serve all parties a memorandum in support of the motions he contends remain outstanding. Any party may thereafter file a memorandum in opposition to Mr. Spencer's within ten (10) days after service upon him/her of Mr. Spencer's memorandum.

The court will determine whether oral argument is necessary to decide any pending motions and will issue its order accordingly. Since the undersigned is not assigned to Richland County on a consistent basis, counsel and the parties agreed that any hearing may be held wherever the undersigned is holding court, or at such other location as the court may designate. The court may determine that no hearing is necessary on the motions and may therefore decide the motions without oral argument.

Trial of this matter shall be concluded no later than the end of March, 2014 at such location as the undersigned shall designate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

PARTIAL RELIEF

C.C.P. & C.S.

Plaintiff seeks an order directing the distribution of advanced litigation funds that remained in his possession after his representation of certain parties in a prior matter ended. The pleadings also seek an interpleader regarding settlement proceeds from the prior matter, but that matter is not ripe for determination, as explained below. This order addresses only that part of the action that seeks a determination as to the proper distribution of remaining litigation funds.

This case was assigned to me for all purposes by order of the Chief Administrative Judge, L. Casey Manning filed on December 17, 2013. Following a status conference on that date, I issued an order dated January 10, 2014 outlining the procedure to be followed by the parties in preparing to adjudicate all remaining matters. Defendant Spencer, who is pro se, complied with the directives of the January 10, 2014 order by filing and serving a memorandum which was clocked on January 27, 2014. Plaintiff filed a responsive memorandum.

A hearing convened on all motions on February 25, 2014. Based on the memoranda submitted to me in advance of the hearing, it appeared that one aspect of this matter is premature. The interpleader sought to interplead two categories of funds: settlement funds from the settlement of an earlier civil matter, and remaining funds which had been advanced for the use of the plaintiffs in that earlier civil litigation. At that time, the Court ruled that the lack of finality as to settlement funds prevented that issue from being addressed at this time.

SOUTHERN HOLDINGS LITIGATION

The earlier civil action, Southern Holdings Inc. et al. v. Horry County et al., Civil Action No. 4:02-cv-1859-RBH (hereafter "the Southern Holdings case"), was filed in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina by a number of plaintiffs, some of whom are defendants in this case. The Southern Holdings case was resolved when a settlement agreement was stated on the record before United States District Court Judge R. Bryan Harwell on May 9, 2007. (Doc. 475). Plaintiff John Rakowsky (hereafter "Rakowsky") and attorney Adrian Falgione, who practices law under the corporate entity defendant The Law offices of Adrian L. Falgione, LLC, were counsel of record in the Southern Holdings case at the time of settlement.

Since that time, numerous motions have been filed in the District Court (and at the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals) by one or more of the then-plaintiffs attempting to set aside the settlement. The most recent motion challenging the settlement was filed on January 6, 2014 (Doc. 775) and remains pending. For that reason, the portion of the matter pending before this Court with reference to the proceedings from the settlement in the Southern Holdings case is premature.

ISSUES TO BE ADDRESSED

The issues regarding the settlement funds are framed by the Second Amended Complaint filed December 3, 2010¹. The defendants who have responded to the Second Amended Complaint and are active parties to the matter at this time are The Law Offices of Adrian L.

Falgione, LLC (see order filed December 2, 2011²), Horry County (Answer dated December 29, 2010), James Spencer (hereafter "Spencer"), Estate of Doris Holt³ (hereafter "Holt"), Nick Williamson on behalf of RSC (hereafter "RSC"), Rodney Keith Lail (hereafter "Lail"), Irene Santacroce (hereafter "Santacroce"), Marguerite Stephens (hereafter "M. Stephens") and Ricky Stephens (hereafter "R. Stephens").

Spencer, Holt, RSC, Lail, Santacroce, M. Stephens, and R. Stephens filed a pro se answer which was clocked in on January 18, 2011⁴. In their pro se answer those defendants asked that the Court deny the interpleader. The pro se answer also asserted that the remaining litigation funds "were solely advanced by 'RSC,' under the written condition that such funds were to be expended only under the specific direction of Defendant Spencer. Id. @ ¶ 10. Those defendants seek the release of the entire amount of litigation funds. Id. ¶ 16. Their prayer for relief also demanded an accounting of litigation funds and further demanded that all money in the possession of Rakowsky (both the settlement funds and the remaining litigation funds) "be transferred forthwith into the trust account of the captioned Defendants' self designated legal counsel." Id. @ p. 6 of 8. The "self designated legal counsel" was not identified in the pro se answer filed by Spencer, Holt, Williamson⁵, Lail, Santacroce, Sanders and Stephens. A Notice of Appearance on behalf of Holt, Lail and Santacroce was later filed by attorney Michael G.

⁴ Portions of the pro se answer were stricken by order of Judge Seals dated July 25, 2011.

Sribnick on December 9, 2013. Sribnick filed an "objection" to the interpleader dated January 26, 2014.

At the motion hearing on February 25, 2014, the Court heard argument from counsel for Rakowsky, Falgione, Horry County, Holt, Lail and Santacroce, and from Spencer, who continues to appear pro se. The Court also had the benefit of detailed filings by Spencer and Rakowsky.

The Court took the following matters under advisement:

- A. Motion to Release Uncontested Litigation Funds, filed October 20, 2008
- B. Motion for Jury Trial, filed July 14, 2011
- C. Motion to Amend Answer and Counterclaim, filed August 29/30, 2011
- D. Motion for Sanctions (against attorney Stephanie Weissenstein), filed December 20, 2011.

Spencer and Sribnick also argued they should be entitled to discovery, although no formal motion for that relief had been filed. That request was denied, without prejudice, and the issue may be raised again when and if the Southern Holdings case is concluded, unless the request to interpleader funds is mooted by the District Court's ruling. However, the Court directed Rakowsky and Falgione to provide affidavits and evidence detailing the receipt and disbursement of all litigation funds that were advanced for the Southern Holdings litigation so the Court could rule on the pending Motion to Release Uncontested Litigation Funds filed October 20, 2008.

By email to the counsel and Spencer on February 27, 2014, the Court required "affidavits and evidence of all monies paid to Plaintiff's counsel in the original lawsuit for litigation expenses be provided to the Court no later than 10 days prior to hearing."

The hearing on the Motion for Release of Uncontested Litigation Funds was originally scheduled to be held on April 28, 2014. However, Spencer notified the Court he had been served with a subpoena requiring his presence in federal court at a time that would conflict with the April 28, 2014 hearing. The hearing was postponed to June 4, 2014.

After receiving the submissions from Rakowsky and Falgione, the Court notified counsel and Spencer that the June 4, 2014 hearing was not necessary and an order would be issued releasing the balance of litigation funds to Mr. Spencer.

This Court's mandate to the parties to provide an accounting of litigation funds provided to Rakowsky and/or Falgione lies in equity. In ruling upon the Motion for Release Uncontested Litigation Funds, filed October 20, 2008, the Court makes the following findings and conclusions:

FINDINGS OF FACT⁶

I make the following findings of fact by the preponderance of the evidence.

1. In his capacity as one of the Plaintiff's counsel in the Southern Holdings case, Rakowsky received the proceeds of loans from two (2) different entities for use as litigation funds on behalf of the plaintiffs.
2. Rakowsky received the sum of forty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($42,500.00) from LFC-101 LLC a/k/a Litfunding (Affidavit of Mara Ballard Exhibit A, pp. 5-9, p. 28). These funds were deposited into Rakowsky's law firm IOLFA account at Security Federal Bank on June 21, 2005. Id. @ pp. 7-9.
3. These funds were paid to Rakowsky following his execution of a "Contingent

⁶ These findings of fact are made from the submissions provided by Adrian Falgione dated April 11, 2014, of John Rakowsky and Mara Ballard filed May 28, 2014 and the Declaration of Spencer dated May 24, 2014. The Court also had the benefit of the entire file of this litigation.

- Advance and Security Agreement" signed by him on June 20, 2005. The loan agreement contains a Client Consent Form signed by James Spencer authorizing the payment to Rakowsky. Id. @ p. 18.
4. The Security Agreement identifies the loan proceeds for use of plaintiff's costs in the lawsuit. The lawsuit is defined in the agreement by name and case number as the Southern Holdings litigation. Id. @ p. 11. The agreement identifies the plaintiff in the lawsuit as "James Spencer, et al." Id.
5. The Security Agreement indicated the loan from LitFunding was in the amount of $50,000.00 although Rakowsky received only $42,500.00. Spencer requested by letter to LitFunding dated June 16, 2005 that $7,500.00 of the loan proceeds be paid to "J" (Choice Funding) and send to my attorney the remaining balance of $42,500.00. Id. @ p. 27.
6. Section 3 of the Security Agreement gave LitFunding a "first priority lien" on the loan proceeds. Id. @ 12.
7. Rakowsky received another $25,000.00 in litigation funding from Resolution Settlement Corporation (hereafter "RSC"), also in June, 2005. Id. @ pp. 29-32. These proceeds were generated as a result of a loan agreement between RSC and Southern Holdings, James Spencer, et al. Rakowsky was listed as the mailing address for Spencer. Id. @ p. 33.
8. Paragraph 6 of the RSC agreement provides that the borrowers attorney (Rakowsky) is aware of the agreement, but assumes no liability for complying with it. "[Borrower]'s attorney is solely and merely following [borrower]'s instructions. . . attorney is making neither representation no guarantee, inferred, expressed or implied, concerning either merits or value of the claim. . . attorney assumes no affirmative duties herein other than ministerial obligations of disbursement, and conveying information contained herein." Id. @ p. 35, ¶ 7. Rakowsky therefore had no duty to RSC.

9. The check from RSC was made payable to "John Rakowsky and J. B. Spencer" and was endorsed for deposit by "John Rakowsky and James Brian Spencer." Id. @ p. 31. The full $25,000.00 was deposited into Rakowsky's IOLTA account at Security Federal on June 29, 2005. Id. @ pp. 29-32.

10. Rakowsky received no other funds from any other source for the expenses of the Southern Holdings case. The total litigation funding received by Rakowsky was $67,500.00. Rakowsky received no advanced litigation funds from LawMax.

11. The Law Max funds were paid either to James Spencer or to his former attorney, Ronald N. Serota. Rakowsky signed a document confirming his knowledge of the loan, but he did not receive any of the funds.

12. Falgione received no advanced litigation funds from any source for the Southern Holdings case. He was reimbursed for legitimate case expenses for costs incurred for the Southern Holdings case on two occasions by Rakowsky from the advanced litigation funds held in Rakowsky's IOLTA account. (Affidavit of Adrian Falgione, ¶ 14).

13. Rakowsky used the advanced litigation funds to make payments for litigation costs in the Southern Holdings case in the amount of $57,644.14. (Affidavit of Mara Ballard, p. 24; Affidavit of John Rakowsky). Copies of the checks issued from Rakowsky's IOLTA account for the expenditures made from the Southern Holdings funds have been presented to and reviewed by the Court. (Affidavit of Mara Ballard, pp. 42-43; pp. 50-53; pp. 55-57; p. 59; p. 61; p. 68-70; p. 72; pp. 74-76; pp. 78-79; pp. 85-93; p. 96; pp. 99-105; p. 107; p. 109; pp. 111-112; pp. 114-116; pp. 118-119). Rakowsky's submission also contains copies of invoices and receipts for expenditures made from the advanced litigation funds.

14. As stated above, the Southern Holdings case was settled on the record before United States District Judge R. Bryan Harwell on May 7, 2005. However, the settlement may not be final because of multiple post-settlement filings by Spencer and others.

15. In light of his former clients' rejection of the settlement, Rakowsky retained attorney Desa Ballard to assist him with handing both the settlement proceeds and the remaining litigation funds. The remaining litigation funds in the amount of $9,855.55 were paid into Ms. Ballard's trust account, as were the $55,000.00 settlement proceeds paid by the defendants in the Southern Holdings case. Id. P. 124. An effort to interplead the funds into the United States District Court was denied.

16. This interpleader action was filed on September 12, 2008. Among the defendants named and served, who later defaulted, was Law Max Legal Finance and Litfunding USA. Law Max and Litfunding defaulted⁸. The complaint was amended several times, to delete defendants and add others, with the last and operative complaint being the Second Amended Complaint filed on December 3,

17. RSC was not named as a defendant in the original or any of the amended complaints. However, RSC appeared in this action by filing an answer (in conjunction with Spencer and other pro-se parties) clocked on January 18, 2011. No objection was raised to RSC's participation in this case.

18. Rakowsky has properly documented the disbursements of the $67,500.00 he received as advanced litigation funds for the Southern Holdings case. At the time his former clients repudiated the settlement, Rakowsky still held $9,855.55 of the advanced litigation funds. The funds were not sequestered, however, so it is unknown whether the remaining litigation funds came from the RSC loan, or from the LitFunding loan.

19. In accordance with his obligations under Rule 1.15 of the Rules of Professional conduct, Rakowsky's obligation, when holding funds to which multiple claims are made, was to file this interpleader action.

20. After the litigation was filed, an additional litigation expense was brought to Rakowsky's attention. Ms. Ballard confirmed this was a legitimate expense of the litigation and on December 18, 2008, Ms. Ballard paid from the remaining litigation an invoice from Eugene G. Chewning, Jr., PhD. After the payment to Chewning, the balance of the litigation funds which remain are $7,691.78.

21. Spencer has claimed these funds are "undisputed" and should come to him, but the file does not reflect any affirmative claim by him to these funds⁹ other than in concert with other defendants. Spencer relies on discussions that occurred at one or more status conferences with Judge James Barber. However, the earlier claims for distribution of the remaining litigation funds make conflicting requests as to whom the funds should be released.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

22. Rakowsky properly filed this interpleader seeking the court's direction as to the proper distribution of the remaining advanced litigation funds.
23. James B. Spencer moves to have the remaining litigation funds released to him. While the pleadings make conflicting claims as to whom the funds should be released, it appears the loans which generated the proceeds that were advanced to Rakowsky were initiated by James B. Spencer and he may have some residual obligations on those loans. That matter is not before me.
24. Rakowsky disbursed litigation funds from the $67,500.00 received by him via loans from litigation companies for expenses related to the Southern Holdings litigation. The issues before the Court did not require an accounting of those funds, but at the request of the Court, Rakowsky submitted an accounting that fully supports the disbursements made.
25. The remaining litigation funds in the amount of $7,691.78 may be released to James B. Spencer and Rakowsky is relieved and discharged of any obligation to hold the remaining litigation funds or to account therefore.
26. Such disbursement shall be made after time for appeal of this order shall have passed. Should an appeal be filed, the funds shall not be released until final order of the appellate court.

27. By taking possession of these funds, James B. Spencer shall indemnify and hold harmless all other parties to this action as well as their attorneys, agents, assigns, successors, heirs, representatives and insurers from any and all claims, demands, causes of actions, payments, bills, charges, expenses or subrogated interests as may be asserted in against any funds which were advanced to Rakowsky as litigation funds for the Southern Holdings litigation.

28. The Court reserves ruling on the Motion for Jury Trial, filed July 14, 2011, Motion to Amend Answer and Counterclaim, filed August 29/30, 2011, and Motion for Sanctions (against attorney Stephanie Weissenstein) filed December 20, 2011.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

- A. Plaintiff is authorized and directed to release to James B. Spencer the balance of litigation funds in the amount of $7,691.78 as set forth herein.
- B. Such disbursement shall not occur until the time for appeal of this order has expired, and this order becomes final.
- C. Upon receipt of the remaining litigation funds, James B. Spencer shall be obligated to indemnify and hold harmless all other parties to this action as well as their attorneys, agents, assigns, successors, heirs, representatives and insurers from any and all claims, demands, causes of actions, payments, bills, charges, expenses or subrogated interests as may be asserted in against any funds which were advanced to Rakowsky as litigation funds for the Southern Holdings litigation.
- D. Rakowsky is released from all responsibility for the remaining litigation funds or any claims thereto.

- E. The undersigned retains jurisdiction of the remaining portion of this action which seeks an interpleader as to the settlement funds from the Southern Holdings case once the federal court action is final.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

FILED

This order addresses all remaining issues pending before the Court in this matter.

Plaintiff Rakowsky's request for interpleader and equitable distribution are granted as set forth herein.

By prior order dated June 23, 2014, filed June 27, 2014, this Court directed the distribution of remaining litigation funds, which concluded one aspect of the litigation presented by this interpleader action. Certain parties objected to the order and by email dated July 10, 2014, I gave everyone an opportunity to submit a proposed order¹. Defendant James Spencer ("Spencer") submitted a proposed order. By order dated September 9, 2014, I declined to vacate the June 23, 2014 order.

Plaintiff Rakowsky (hereafter "Rakowsky") complied with the order and issued a check to James Spencer for the remaining litigation funds. Spencer acknowledges receipt of the check. Certain defendants represented by attorney Michael Sribnick have appealed that order to the South

¹ No motions were filed pursuant to Rule 59 or Rule 60, but because the June 23, 2014 Order had not been copied to all parties prior to its issuance, I gave everyone an opportunity to submit proposed orders on the issues addressed by the June 23, 2014 order.

Carolina Court of Appeals. The appeal does not divest this Court of jurisdiction to address the remaining issues, which are unaffected by the appeal. Rule 205, SCACR.

The remaining issue before the Court relates to the Rakowsky's request to interplead settlement funds received by him, in his capacity as co-counsel for the then-plaintiffs, in a prior matter pending in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina. He has also requested equitable indemnification for his fees and costs in bringing and pursuing this action.

By order dated July 9, 2014, this Court required that Rakowsky submit his brief on the remaining issues no later than July 25, 2014. He did so. No other party filed brief in response to the scheduling order. Instead, certain defendants filed "Omnibus Motions" which were heard by the Court on August 20, 2014 and denied by Form 4 order dated September 10, 2014.

By email dated September 12, 2014, my law clerk notified all parties to submit proposed orders no later than October 1, 2014. Rakowsky's counsel requested an extension until October 6, 2014 because she was in trial, and that request was granted. Sribnick requested another delay, claiming he did not understand what proposed orders were being requested. My law clerk responded to Sribnick by email dated October 4, 2014, again advising on the topic of the request for proposed orders. Since that time, I have received numerous letters, emails and filings by either Sribnick or Spencer arguing various positions, none of which have merit. Spencer has attacked the integrity of the Court and the judicial process and, while not expressly saying so, seems intent on provoking the undersigned into recusing himself from the case.

This court has no bias against Spencer or any of the parties, including those who previously represented themselves as pro se and who are now represented by Sribnick. Spencer's apparent belief that this court's prior rulings, which disagree with his position, somehow evidence prejudice by this court, are simply wrong. Silvester v. Spring Valley Country Club, 344 S.C. 280, 543 S.E.2d 563 (Ct.App. 2001). This court has carefully considered all arguments made by all parties and has addressed all matters presented based solely on the evidence and the law. This Court has permitted procedural leniency for Spencer based on his pro se status, and has construed every reasonable inference in his favor. The record in this case reflects that every judge who has heard anything in this matter has given Spencer (and the other pro se litigants) every benefit of every doubt and listened most carefully to all arguments. Pollard v. United States, 352 U.S. 354 (1957) (Pro se litigants are held to less stringent standards than pleadings drafted by lawyers.) See also, Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89 (2007). This Court has done the same.

I gave all parties until October 26, 2014 to submit proposed orders on the remaining issues, which are Rakowsky's request for interpleader and his motion for equitable indemnification, seeking attorney fees for the pursuit of this action. This order rules upon the last remaining issues arising from Spencer's 14 years of litigation following his 2000 arrest in Horry County, South Carolina.

History

In a prior action in United States District Court for the District of South Carolina, Rakowsky and Falgione served as counsel for Southern Holdings Inc., Spencer, Rodney Keith Lail, Irene Santacrose, Ricky Stephens, Marguerite Stephens, and Doris Holt (hereafter referred to as "the Southern Holdings plaintiffs"). That case, Southern Holdings Inc. et al. v. Horry County et al., Civil Action No. 4:02-cv-1859-RBH (hereafter "the Southern Holdings case"), was resolved when a settlement agreement was stated on the record before United States District Court Judge R. Bryan Harwell on May 9, 2007. (Doc. 475).

Since that time, numerous motions have been filed in the District Court (and at the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals) by one or more of the Southern Holdings plaintiffs attempting to set aside the settlement. United States District Judge Bryan Harwell has issued numerous orders confirming that the settlement is final, the latest of which was filed on June 11, 2014. (Doc. 788) While an appeal has been filed with the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit (Spencer v. Horry County, No. 14-1666), no stay has been requested or issued. Fed. R. App. P. 8(a)(1). The finality of the 2007 settlement is clear, as a matter of law, and no stay is in effect.

During the litigation of this proceeding, certain of the defendants, primarily James B. Spencer (Spencer) and other defendants now represented by Michael Sribnick, Esquire, have attempted to collaterally challenge the settlement in the Southern Holdings case, attempting to engage in discovery to try to prove the settlement was not authorized or is not enforceable. The finality of the settlement is not before the Court. To the extent that it is raised (and will continue to be raised), the finality of the settlement cannot be challenged in this proceeding. Spencer and Sribnick are collaterally estopped from challenging the finality of the settlement in this proceeding. Nelson v. OHG of South Carolina Inc., 354 S.C. 290, 580 S.E.2d 171 (Ct. App. 2003).

Additionally, Spencer, et al. also sued Rakowsky and Falgione for legal malpractice, alleging that their consent to the settlement of the Southern Holdings case was "coerced." Spencer et al. v. Rakowsky et al., Case No. 2011-CP-40-5384 (Richland County Court of Common Pleas, Complaint dated August 15, 2012, ¶ 43)². That action was dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) by order of the Circuit Court filed August 23, 2013. The finality of that case also operates as collateral estoppel, and prevents this Court from considering the repeated arguments that the Southern Holdings case was not settled or was not authorized to be settled. The significance of the legal malpractice lawsuit, however, is that Spencer and certain of his associates acknowledged the settlement occurred; they claimed their consent to the settlement was "coerced." Id. They, therefore, acknowledge the settlement occurred.

Lastly, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia has noted the finality of the settlement in the Southern Holdings case. While Rakowsky and Falgione were not parties to that action, Spencer was a plaintiff, as were Sribnick's clients. Lail, et al. v. U.S. Gov't, 771 F.Supp.2d 49 (D.D.C. 2011).

Interpleader Generally

The United States District Court for the District of South Carolina has held that the jurisdiction in an interpleader action can extend only to the funds sought to be deposited in court and "cannot embrace . . . issues of liability that go beyond the fund." Preferred Risk Mutual Insurance Co. v. Greer, 289 F.Supp. 261 (D.S.C. 1968). Thus, the multiple efforts by Spencer and others to introduce collateral issues is barred by procedural precedent, even if collateral estoppel did not prevent the attempts to litigate issues related to the settlement itself.

The only issue which remains for determination is Rakowsky's request that the settlement funds in the amount of $55,000.00 be paid into the Court. Only one claim has been filed in this action against the funds, that being Rakowsky's claim (to be shared with Falgione) for $22,000.00, which constitutes a forty-percent (40 %) attorneys' fee from the settlement proceeds. Rakowsky also seeks an award of equitable indemnification to recover from the net settlement funds (after payment of the $22,000.00 attorney fees due to him and his co-counsel Falgione from the original settlement) his attorney fees in bringing this action and pursuing it to conclusion.

Notably, neither Spencer nor any other defendant has filed any claim to the $55,000.00 settlement proceeds.

Motions Which Remain Pending

At a motion hearing on February 25, 2014, the Court heard argument from counsel for Rakowsky, Falgione, Horry County, Holt, Lail and Santacroce, and from Spencer. The Court also had the benefit of detailed filings by Spencer and Rakowsky. The Court took the following matters under advisement³:

- A. Motion for Jury Trial, filed July 14, 2011;
- B. Motion to Amend Answer and Counterclaim, filed August 29/30, 2011; and
- C. Motion for Sanctions (against attorney Stephanie Weissenstein) filed December 20, 2011.

In addition, Rakowsky filed a Motion for Equitable Indemnification dated July 24, 2014. That motion has not been argued and no response to that motion has yet been filed. Rakowsky reserves the right to reply to any responses that may be filed to that motion, by supplemental memorandum.

A. Motion for Jury Trial, filed July 14, 2011

A request for jury trial must be made "not later than 10 days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue." Rule 38(b), SCRPC. The last operative pleading is the "Certain Defendants' Response to John Rakowsky Second Amended Complaint for Interpleader" filed January 18, 2011⁴. No request for jury trial was made in that filing, and none had been made previously. The request filed July 14, 2011 was untimely and is denied. Shaw v. Atlantic Coast Life Insurance Co., 322 S.C. 139, 470 S.E.2d 382 (Ct. App. 1996).

³ The motion regarding the "uncontested" litigation funds was resolved by this Court's order dated June 23, 2014.

⁴ The counterclaims and other material were stricken from this pleading by order of Judge Seals dated July 25, 2011.

B: Motion to Amend Answer and Counterclaim, filed August 29/30, 2011

By motion dated August 30, 2011, certain defendants⁵ (Spencer, Estate of Doris Holt, Irene Santacroce, Ricky Stephens, Marguerite Stephens, and Rodney Lail) moved to amend their Answer to Second Amended Complaint for Interpleader. The argument made in the Motion to Amend falls into three (3) categories:

1. Arguments about alleged wrongs done to Doris Holt prior to her death;
2. A desire to add counterclaims based on discovery of "evidence (after July 12, 2011) supporting counter claims (sic) against the Plaintiff. . ."; and
3. Counterclaims aimed at vacating Judge Seal's order dated July 25, 2011.

1. Alleged wrongs done to Doris Holt

With reference to the alleged wrongs done to Doris Holt prior to her death, Spencer has already litigated these claims against other parties in his lawsuit in the District of Columbia, and lost them when the District Court issued its ruling on March 24, 2011. See Lail v. United States Government, supra.⁶ Collateral estoppel prevents the assertion of any claims on behalf of the Estate of Doris Holt for her alleged mistreatment in connection with her treatment while in the custody of the Department of Social Services. Nelson v. OHG of South Carolina Inc., supra.

2. Counterclaims based on discovery of "evidence (after July 12, 2011) supporting counter claims (sic) against the Plaintiff. . ."

At the time of the motion to amend, Spencer and the Estate of Doris Holt had recently filed (on August 15, 2011) an entirely separate lawsuit against Rakowsky and Falgione asserting legal malpractice in Richland County (Case No. 2011-CP-40-5384), to which no responsive pleadings had yet been filed⁷. Spencer and the Estate had the opportunity to amend that action as a matter of right to assert any claims they wanted to against Rakowsky pursuant to Rule 15, SCRPC. It is completely illogical to seek to amend an answer, where the precise counterclaims had already been stricken, when a brand new action had only been filed days earlier and the claims could have been asserted there as a matter of right. The motion is denied.

⁶ While the decision in Lail v. United States Government lists only Rodney Lail as the plaintiff in that action, the PACER record reflects that the "et al." plaintiffs included Spencer and The Estate of Doris Holt. The District Court's order of March 24, 2011 denies "plaintiff's motion for leave to file a third amended complaint." Id.

3. Counterclaims aimed at vacating Judge Seal's order dated July 25, 2011.

Judge Seals' order could have been appealed pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. Section 14-3-330(2)(c). It was not. The striking of the counterclaims, and the procedure which led up to that (which is apparently the basis for Spencer's claims of ex parte contact: Judge Seals' review of documents in camera) is the law of the case. Spencer is apparently seeking to add counterclaims that somehow challenge Judge Seals' order or the methodology by which he arrived at his decision to strike certain matter from the Answer (to Second Amended Complaint) dated January 18, 2011. Judge Seals' order is final. Nothing can be added to this litigation to change that. This motion is denied.

4. Motion for Sanctions against Attorney Stephanie Weissenstein

The gist of this motion is that Weissenstein, who formerly represented Rakowsky in this action, refused to release "uncontested" litigation funds. As more fully explained in this Court's order dated June 23, 2014, there were never any "uncontested" litigation funds. There were funds that Spencer demanded, but the pleadings and orders in this case establish clearly that he had no right to receive the funds until this court's order of June 23, 2014 was issued. This motion is denied.

Settlement Funds

The issues regarding the settlement funds are framed by the Second Amended Complaint filed December 3, 2010⁸. Horry County has filed an answer to this action, consenting to the interpleader and requesting the execution of a release. The Law Offices of Adrian L. Falgione LLC has also filed an answer consenting to the relief requested.

The other defendants who have responded to the Second Amended Complaint and are parties to the matter at this time are: James Spencer (hereafter "Spencer"), Estate of Doris Holt⁹ (hereafter "Holt"), Nick Williamson on behalf of RSC¹⁰ (hereafter "RSC"), Rodney Keith Lail (hereafter "Lail"), Irene Santacroce (hereafter "Santacroce"), Marguerite Stephens (hereafter "M. Stephens"), and Ricky Stephens (hereafter "R. Stephens") (Answer dated January 18, 2011). They oppose Plaintiff's request to disperse funds in accordance with Plaintiff Rakowsky's Complaint for Interpleader.¹¹ Id. The gist of their position is, as stated above, there was no settlement. That issue has long been determined; the settlement is as final as final can be¹¹. None of these parties has filed any claim to the settlement funds.

⁸ Earlier proceedings involved multiple other defendants, who either defaulted or were dismissed from the action.

¹⁰ According to PACER, Williamson was dismissed as a plaintiff in the Southern Holdings litigation in 2004, so he was not a settling party in 2007 when the litigation was settled.

¹¹ Rakowsky doesn't mean to suggest that Spencer and others will not continue litigation, into its 15th year and beyond, but the finality of the settlement in the Southern Holdings case will not change.

ME

Rakowsky holds a total of $55,000.00 in settlement proceeds for settlement on behalf of seven plaintiffs from the Southern Holdings litigation. He seeks an order of this Court permitting the clerk of court to accept those funds under Rule 22, SCRPC and to release him for liability as to those funds.

Rakowsky also requests that $22,000.00 of the settlement funds be paid to him as attorneys' fees in accordance with his fee contract with his former clients. In his motion filed December 12, 2013, Rakowsky introduced the applicable fee agreements, which support his claim for $22,000.00 in attorney fees. The only opposition to Rakowsky's claim comes from defendants Santacroce and Lail (Objection dated January 26, 2014). Their objection incorporates their argument that there was no settlement, but also argues various other grounds by which Rakowsky's fees should be denied. Primarily, it contains a "Declaration" by Spencer that he drafted the "Addendum" to the fee agreement, and that he didn't intend Rakowsky or Falgione to be paid unless certain circumstances were present. Spencer's declaration cannot be used to vary the terms of the fee agreement.

The fee agreement provides for a 40% contingency fee after trial begins. As repeatedly noted by District Judge Bryan Harwell, when the settlement was placed on the record and in subsequent written orders, the jury had already been impaneled and trial was ready to begin. The addendum to the fee agreement reaffirms the original fee agreement (which included Mark Hardee, who formerly represented the Southern Holdings plaintiffs). The closing paragraph of the original fee agreement provides that Rakowsky will be paid via quantum meruit if he is discharged. He has never been discharged as counsel, and Judge Harwell denied his request to be relieved.

#10

Interpleader is an equitable remedy available to a third party when he holds money and it is unclear to whom the money should be paid. Symmes v. Graham, 167 S.C. 290, 166 S.E. 269 (1932). Interpleader provisions should be liberally construed as to best effectuate their purposes. First Union National Bank of South Carolina v. FCVS Communications, 321 S.C. 496, 469 S.E.2d 613 (Ct. App. 1996), reversed in part 328 S.C. 290, 494 S.E.2d 429. As long as there is a potential for multiple claims against the funds in question, interpleader is appropriate. Id.

Spencer, Holt, RSC, Lail, Santacroce, M. Stephens, and R. Stephens oppose the interpleader on the grounds that there was no settlement. There was a settlement; that much is clearly established. Notwithstanding any allegations to the contrary, and setting aside the collateral estoppel effect of the prior rulings of this and other courts, the Southern Holdings plaintiffs are bound by the settlement that was placed on the record by their attorneys. Arnold v. Yarborough, 281 S.C. 570, 316 S.E.2d 416 (Ct. App. 1984).

Rakowsky's motion to interplead the $55,000.00 in settlement proceeds was made necessary by the refusal by his former clients to consummate the settlement; Judge Harwell's orders detail the proceedings following the settlement in glaring detail. The settlement is final. Horry County and the settling defendants in the Southern Holdings action are entitled to its release for payment of settlement funds. Rakowsky is entitled to be relieved of his duty to hold the settlement funds and should be permitted to pay them into court as pleaded in this action, less the $22,000.00 attorney fee to which he is entitled.

Rakowsky's claim for equitable indemnification seeks an award of attorney's fees and costs against Spencer, Estate of Doris Holt, Nick Williamson on behalf of RSC, Irene Santacroce, Rodney Keith Lail, Marguerite Stephens and Ricky Stephens, to the extent the balance of the interpleaded funds is not sufficient to indemnify Rakowsky. He asserts that the wrongful efforts of these parties to refute the settlement in the Southern Holdings case made the bringing of this action necessary. There can be little doubt that is true. The orders of Judge Harwell in the District Court case make that abundantly clear. What should have been a simple interpleader action has been made into dramatic, complex, and tortured litigation by Spencer and other defendants. Rakowsky is entitled to his fees and costs for bringing this action to conclusion. Byrd v. Livingston, 398 S.C. 237, 727 S.E.2d 620 (Ct. App. 2012).

Rakowsky has requested reimbursement for attorney's fees in the amount of $ 66,172.35 (through the date of filing the motion). Having held Rakowsky is entitled to recover his attorney's fees and costs, this Court must examine that request in light of the factors set forth in Jackson v. Speed, 326 S.C. 289, 486 S.E.2d 750 (1997). The billings for time Rakowsky's counsel worked on this case are reasonable (and excludes all billing prior to April, 2011) and are in fact modest in light of the work that has been required.

This case was filed in 2008 after Rakowsky attempted to pay the interpleader funds into Federal Court. Since filing this case, Plaintiff's counsel has necessarily filed and defended numerous motions and attended numerous hearings. After nearly six years, the Court's file on this case became so cumbersome, and the procedural history of the case so complex, that the case was assigned to a single judge, the undersigned. Nevertheless, the Court finds the total amount of fees requested should be reduced under the circumstances of this case. While Rakowsky is entitled to an award of attorney's fees and costs, that amount should not exceed the amount of the interpleader funds. I therefore find an award of $33,000.00 is appropriate for Rakowsky's attorney's fees and costs.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows::

A. Rakowsky's Request for Interpleader is granted;

- B. Rakowsky shall be paid $22,000.00 in attorney fees from the settlement proceeds for his representation of the Southern Holdings plaintiffs in the Southern Holding litigation. These funds are to be shared with Falgione in whatever division they have agreed upon. Allocation of these funds between Rakowsky and Falgione is not before this Court;
- C. Rakowsky's request for equitable indemnification is granted in part. In addition to the award above, Rakowsky shall receive the amount of $33,000.00 as reimbursement toward his reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by him in bringing and prosecuting this matter to conclusion;
- D. Rakowsky's request for judgment for the balance of attorney fees and costs against Spencer and other defendants which are not paid from the $55,000.00 is denied;
- E. Rakowsky is discharged from any further obligations regarding the settlement proceeds he received in his capacity as counsel for the Southern Holdings plaintiffs. Any and all claims which might have been made by any persons who are now or have been parties to this action against those funds are extinguished.
- F. The Clerk of Court is directed to execute a general release in favor of Horry County and the settling defendants in the Southern Holdings action on behalf of the Southern Holdings plaintiffs, to be prepared by counsel for Horry County. The general release shall release those defendants from claims that were brought or could have been brought in the Southern Holdings litigation.
- G. This order concludes this action in its entirety.
- IT IS SO ORDERED.

Plaintiff John Rakowsky, pursuant to Rule 22 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, herein prays unto this Honorable Court for an order allowing him to pay certain funds in the amount of sixty-four thousand, eight hundred fifty-five dollars and eighty-five cents ($64,855.85) into court and to make a determination of the owners of said funds which are hereby tendered to the Court. In support of the relief sought, plaintiff Rakowsky would show:

1. The Plaintiff John R. Rakowsky (hereafter "Rakowsky") is an attorney in good standing in the state and federal courts of South Carolina.
2. On information and belief, Defendants, Adrian L. Falgione is a citizen and resident of the County of Lexington, State of South Carolina.
3. On information and belief, Doris Holt and James Spencer are citizens and residents of Richland County, South Carolina.
4. On information and belief, Defendants Marguerite Stephens, Ricky Stephens, Rodney Keith Lail and Irene Santacroce are citizens and residents of Horry County.

5. On information and belief, defendants Linda Williamson Lawrence and Ernest H. Morton are citizens and residents of Albemarle, North Carolina.
6. On information and belief, Defendant Ronald N. Scrota is a citizen and resident of Las Vegas, NV.
7. Upon information and belief, Defendant Southern Holdings, Inc. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of South Carolina.
8. Upon information and belief, Defendant Law Max Legal Finance LLC is a legal entity organized and existing under the laws of a state other than South Carolina.
9. Upon information and belief, Defendant Litfunding USA is a corporation organized and existing under the law of a state other than South Carolina.
10. Upon information and belief, Defendants Michael Steven Hartness and Harold Steven Hartness are citizens and residents of Charlotte, North Carolina. Upon information and belief, Defendant Horry County, South Carolina is a municipality organized and existing under the laws of the State of South Carolina.
11. Previously, Defendants Southern Holdings, Inc., Linda Williamson-Lawrence, Ernest H. Morton, Marguerite Stephens, Ricky Stephens, Rodney Keith Lail, Irene Santacroce, Doris Holt and James Spencer (hereafter jointly referred to as "the federal court plaintiffs") were the plaintiffs in an action pending in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina, entitled Southern Holdings, Inc., et al. v. Horry County, South Carolina, et al., and bearing Case No. 4:02-CV-01859-RBH (hereafter referred to as "the federal court action.").

The federal court plaintiffs had numerous successive counsel, but the most recent counsel to represent them were defendant Falgione (hereafter "Falgione") and plaintiff Rakowsky.

12. Defendants Michael Steven Hartness, Harold Steven Hartness and Horry County, South Carolina were defendants in the federal court action, and collectively paid settlement funds to settle the federal court claim.
13. In connection with the litigation of the federal court action, one or more of the federal court plaintiffs advanced funds for costs to be incurred in the federal court litigation. The balance of these funds was eventually held by Rakowsky in trust. At the time of the events described herein, Rakowsky held in trust the sum of nine-thousand eight hundred and fifty-five dollars ($9,855.00) which had not been expended toward litigation costs.
14. In or about May 2007, the federal court plaintiffs authorized Rakowsky and Falgione to enter into a settlement in the federal court action which would provide, inter alia, for payment to them of a settlement in the amount of fifty five thousand dollars ($55,000.00). Rakowsky and Falgione communicated the acceptance of settlement to counsel for defendants in the federal court action. Defendants Michael Steven Hartness, Harold Steven Hartness and Horry County, South Carolina paid the sum of fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000.00) to the federal court plaintiffs to consummate the settlement.
15. Falgione and Rakowsky and are entitled to receive a portion of the funds in question as attorneys fees for their services in the federal court action. Defendant John R. Rakowsky, acting as legal counsel for the plaintiffs, now defendants named above, received the fifty-five thousand dollar ($55,000.00) settlement proceeds in trust from defendants Michael Steven Hartness, Harold Steven Hartness and Horry County, South Carolina as agents for the plaintiffs.

16. On information and belief, one or more of the plaintiffs in the federal court action thereafter repudiated the settlement and sought various avenues of relief through the federal court action, all of which were denied.
17. During that time, it became known that Defendants Serota, Law Max Legal Finance LLC and Litfunding USA Inc. claimed an interest in the settlement proceeds. On information and belief, Law Max Legal Finance LLC and/or Litfunding USA Inc. (hereafter referred to jointly as "the creditor defendants") may have loaned litigation funds to one or more of the federal court plaintiffs for use in the litigation, but Rakowsky has no knowledge of whether any of the funds held by him (of the nine-thousand eight-hundred and fifty-five dollars ($9,855.00)) were actually advanced by the creditor defendants.
18. On information and belief, Defendant Serota claims to have provided legal services to one or more of the plaintiffs and further claims to be entitled to some attorney fees from the funds held by Rakowsky. On or about February 21, 2008, Defendant John R. Rakowsky filed a Motion for Deposit of Funds with the United States District Court, Florence Division, which was ultimately denied.
19. On information and belief, the federal court action is concluded, but the federal court plaintiffs repudiated the settlement and the settlement was never consummated. No determination of the ownership of the funds has been made. Rakowsky remains in possession of the sum of sixty-four thousand, eight hundred fifty-five dollars and eighty-five cents ($64,855.85), which is composed of fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000.00) in settlement proceeds and nine-thousand eight hundred and fifty-five dollars ($9,855.00) in costs advanced by one or more of the federal court plaintiffs.

20. Rakowsky is informed and believes that the ownership of the funds is in dispute and that one or more of the defendants claims entitlement to all or a portion of the funds currently held by him.

21. Because there exist claims of one or more of the Defendants to the settlement monies in the amount of fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000.00) as well as claims to the funds for advanced costs in the amount of nine-thousand eight hundred and fifty-five dollars ($9,855.00) being held in trust by the Plaintiff, Plaintiff hereby tenders funds in the amount of sixty-four thousand, eight hundred fifty-five dollars and eighty-five cents ($64,855.85), to the Court for determination and distribution as deemed to be appropriate.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays for an order permitting the clerk of court to receive the sum of sixty-four thousand, eight hundred fifty-five dollars and eighty-five cents ($64,855.85); until further order of this Court.

CERTAIN DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR COURT TO ORDER THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF "LITIGATION" FUNDS AS INSTRUCTED BY ALL
 DEFENDANT CONTRIBUTORS AS IDENTIFIED BY PLAINTIFF JOHN
 RAKOWSKY'S COMPLAINT FOR INTERPLEADER (2008-CP-40-6656)

NOW COME CERTAIN DEFENDANTS and move the Court to Order
 Plaintiff John Rakowsky to transfer the residual "litigation" funds into the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA, to be credited in the name of Irene Santacroce and

Nicholas Williamson, Doris Holt, Ricky Stephens, Marguerite Stephens, Irene Santacroce, James

should immediately be mailed to the above named law firm to the attention of Ms. Patty Davis. The address of the firm is 1303 3rd Ave. Conway, SC 29526.

INTRODUCTION

1. Paragraph 13, found on page 3 of John Rakowsky's Complaint for Interpleader clearly identifies residual funds totaling nine-thousand- eight-hundred- fifty-five dollars ($9,855.00) were deposited by various Plaintiffs into Rakowsky's trust account for costs incurred in the Southern Holdings, et al. v Horry County, et al., case litigation (See attachment "A").
2. John Rakowsky has refused numerous requests to provide the signatory Defendants the remaining funds for ongoing litigation purposes in this matter.
3. John Rakowsky has refused numerous requests by the signatory Defendants to identify any conflicting claims to the remaining funds slated for litigation purposes.
4. John Rakowsky has identified individuals as his clients who were not listed as parties to the Southern Holdings, et al., v Horry County, et al., litigation, persons who include Linda Williamson Lawrence and Ernest Morton. John Rakowsky for the first time revealed in his Complaint for Interpleader that he represented the interests of Linda Williamson Lawrence and Ernest Morton in the Southern Holdings, et al., v Horry County, et al. case. Such representation, heretofore unknown by the Plaintiffs in the Southern Holdings, et al., v Horry County, et al., case created a clear conflict of interest with the parties John Rakowsky and Adrian Falgione openly represented in that Federal District Court case.

5. The parties John Rakowsky openly represented in Federal District Court are Southern Holdings, Inc., Rodney Lail, Irene Santacroce, Ricky Stephens, Marguerite Stephens, Doris Holt, James Spencer and Nicholas C. Williamson. (See caption attachment "B").
6. All Defendants associated with the remaining litigation funds as identified by John Rakowsky on page 3, paragraph 13 of the Rakowsky's Interpleader complaint, have executed this Motion to transfer the remaining litigation funds to a designated trust account and/or likewise have instructed John Rakowsky to do so in attached correspondence (See attachment "C").

DISCUSSION

There is no disagreement among the Defendants who have an interest in the "litigation funds" (Defendants identified by John Rakowsky in paragraph 13 of page 3 of John Rakowsky's Complaint for Interpleader) regarding their unanimous request to transfer the remaining litigation funds to the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA. The multiple requests for the transfer of the litigation funds have been repeatedly ignored by John Rakowsky despite the fact John Rakowsky does not represent the interests of his former clients. All Defendants John Rakowsky openly represented who were parties to the case (See attachment "B") and which are identified in the caption of the case, have requested John Rakowsky to transfer remaining "litigation funds" to the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA, to be credited in the name of Irene Santacroce and James Spencer for use as directed by James Spencer. The check should be certified and it should immediately be mailed to the above named law firm to the attention of Ms. Patty Davis. The address of the firm is 1303 3rd Ave.

Conway, SC 29526.

CONCLUSION

All the contributors/claimants to the "litigation funds" identified by Plaintiff John Rakowsky in his Complaint for Interpleader are in unanimous agreement about the disposition of the "litigation funds" ($9,855.00) and how the use of the funds is to be directed. Therefore, the Defendants pray the Court Order such funds be immediately transferred to the trust account identified herein for the funds intended use as directed by James Spencer for matters concerning the Appellants and related to the ongoing lawsuit currently in the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

Re: Litigation Funds Remaining and accounting for expended funds.

Dear Mr. Rakowsky:

In regard to any and all remaining residual funding that you believe may have come from Southern Holdings, Inc., please consider this formal notice that any such funds are to be transferred to the trust account named below for the use of the Plaintiffs in the ongoing litigation as directed by James B. Spencer and Southern Holdings Corporate Secretary Irene Santacroce.

In that regard, as you have been previously and repeatedly requested to do, transfer the remaining litigation funds to the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA, to be credited in the name of Irene Santacroce and James Spencer. The check should be certified and it should immediately be mailed to the above named law firm to the attention of Patty. The address of the firm is 1303 3rd Ave. Conway, SC 29526.

If you believe that I personally contributed any funds as a Plaintiff that are part of the residual litigation funds, then please consider my authorization and request to immediately transfer the remaining litigation funds to the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA to be credited in the name of Irene Santacroce and James Spencer. The check should be certified and it should immediately be mailed to the above named law firm to the attention of Patty. The address of the firm is 1303 3rd Ave. Conway, SC 29526.

If you have any questions please call me directly. Thanks you for your prompt attention to this matter.

CORRECTED MOTION TO AMEND ANSWER

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT Certain Defendants¹ ("Defendants") moves this Honorable Court, pursuant to SCRCP Rule 15, for an order permitting Defendants to amend Defendants' Answer to the Plaintiff's Second Complaint in accordance with: (1) Defendants' Second Amended Complaint, (2) the Plaintiff's Motion to Strike and File Under Seal, (3) the Death of Defendant Doris Holt, (4) the May 5, 2011 SC Probate Court's appointment of an Administrator for the Doris Holt Estate, (5) Plaintiff's May 16, 2011 Motion and Affidavit of Default, (6) the Motions hearing held on July 11, 2011, (7) the defining actions taken by Plaintiff's counsel, Defendant Adrian Falgione, Defendant Horry County's counsel Andrew Lindemann in concert, and (8) the Court Order received by the Defendants on August 11, 2011.

The grounds for this motion are that based on: (1) Prior to the establishment of her estate, Doris Holt was wrongfully held in isolation and in alleged violation of a Court Order in another legal proceeding for over nine months and wrongfully restrained in alleged violation of SC State law as of July 29, 2009 until her death from executing documents herself or having documents executed by her duly appointed durable power of attorney in this matter, (2) the substitution as a Defendant the Estate of Doris Holt for Defendant Doris Holt, (3) discovery of evidence (after July 12, 2011) supporting counter claims against the Plaintiff by the Defendants, and (4) the discovery on and after July 11, 2011, of documentation of Plaintiff, Plaintiff's counsel, Defendant Adrian Falgione and Defendant Horry County's counsel, Andrew Lindemann, allegedly participated in unethical ex-parte communications with the Court. In support of this motion, Defendants respectfully submit the following:

1. This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's request to interplead certain funds related to protracted litigation and appeals in a separate matter.

2. Defendants are informed and believe that Plaintiff wrongfully has inserted, withdrawn and/or omitted various parties, which led to the multiple versions of the Plaintiff's Interpleader Complaint.²

3. Defendants are informed and believe that Plaintiff knew or should have known at the time of his insertion, withdrawal and omission of various parties, that such action was wrongful.

4. Defendants are informed and believe that Plaintiff misused this Court to circumvent Plaintiff's obligations under the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct 1.16 and Rule 417, SCACR.

5. SCRCF Rule 15(a) permits amendments of pleadings before trial, with leave of Court, or by the opposing parties' written consent. In this case, the Defendants seek to amend pleadings based on the documentation recently discovered by the Defendants and the Plaintiffs refusal to provide documentation despite repeated requests for production that have gone unanswered. "Pleadings may be amended by leave of Court, which shall be freely given when justice so requires and [it] does not prejudice any other party.'" Griffith v. Griffith, 332 S.C. 630, 506 SE2d 526, 529 (Ct. App. 1998).

² First Interpleader Complaint dated September 12, 2008, the 1st Amended Interpleader Complaint dated November 14, 2008, the 2nd Amended Interpleader Complaint (Version 1) dated July 28, 2010, and the 2nd Amended Interpleader Complaint (Version 2) dated December 3, 2010.

6 Rule 20(a) permits joinder of parties (the Estate of Doris Holt) who are interested in claims that arise out of the same transaction or occurrence, and who share in common at least one question of law or fact. Ellis v. Oliver, 307 SC 365, 367, 415 SE2d 400, 401 (1992). Upon information and belief, the amended pleading will finally ensure all interested parties are allowed to be heard in this matter.

Wherefore, having fully set forth the grounds for the relief requested, Defendants move for an order granting Defendants permission to file and serve their proposed Amended Answer to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint (attached hereto).

CERTAIN DEFENDANTS' AMENDED RESPONSE AND COUNTER CLAIMS IN RESPONSE TO JOHN RAKOWSKY'S
SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR INTERPLEADER

NOW COME CERTAIN DEFENDANTS (hereinafter known as the "Defendants") and move the Court to Deny Plaintiff's request to disperse funds in accordance with Plaintiff Rakowsky's Complaint for Interpleader captioned above.

Defendants deny each and every allegation not hereinafter specifically admitted, modified or qualified.

1. Admitted.

2. Admitted.

James Spencer, individually and as Administrator for the Estate of Doris Holt, Ricky Stephens, Marguerite Stephens, Irene Santacroce, and Rodney Lail.

3. Admitted in part and denied in part as Doris Holt is now deceased.
4. Admitted.
5. Admitted.
6. Admitted in part and denied in part. Based on information and belief Eugene Chewning is not a resident of South Carolina and Eugene Chewning's work is not completed.
7. Admitted in part and denied in part. Based on the information and belief that Glen Harrison is not a resident of Seminole County, Florida.
8. Admitted in part and denied in part. Plaintiff Rakowsky was not one of the most recent counsels added to that case as the Court Docket evidences, he was in fact one of the earliest counsels who made an appearance in the case. Mr. Rakowsky in fact became a member of the legal team shortly after the filing of the Complaint in Federal District Court of Case No. 4:02-CV-01859-RBH, entitled Southern Holdings, Inc., et al. vs. Horry County, et al. on May 29, 2002. Plaintiff Rakowsky did not file his Motion for Appearance until December 3, 2002 (Dkt.#57), months after he already had been working on the case. Plaintiff Rakowsky assumed control of the legal team and initiated the firing of legal counsels he determined needed to be dismissed, and the hiring of legal counsels he handpicked including the hiring of the two most recent Counsels in that case. The two most recent Counsels were Ron Serota (admitted July 6, 2005, Dkt.#146) and Defendant Adrian Falgione (admitted November 15, 2006, Dkt.#287). Additionally, former Defendants' Counsel in that action, Charles Cooper, died.

while the case was pending and James Cooper, Charles Cooper's brother and law partner, became ill and had to withdraw from that case for health reasons.

9. Admitted.

10. Denied. All funds held by the Plaintiff Rakowsky were advanced by Defendant Spencer and Plaintiff Rakowsky knows, or was/is required to know, the source and amount of those litigation funds advanced as Plaintiff Rakowsky was required to keep records of any such funds he held for such purposes under both South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct, ("SCRPC") Rule 1.15(a) and under agreement with Defendant Spencer to provide such records and return such property on demand of former client Spencer under SCRPC 1.15(d) and 1.16. Furthermore, under Rule 417 of the South Carolina Judicial Department, Plaintiff Rakowsky was required to keep records showing the specific amount of funds provided by a client and any disbursement from said funds and the balance of funds provided by each client. Therefore, Plaintiff Rakowsky knew the litigation funds were provided by James Spencer and no other Defendant. The funds advanced by Lit Funding, Resolution Settlement Corporation and LawMax Legal Funding on behalf of James Spencer were non-recourse funds where all three organizations gave up any and all claims against any and all funds advanced for the litigation and/or personal expenses of Defendant Spencer to be used as determined by Defendant Spencer.

The purported balance of the litigation funds reported by Plaintiff Rakowsky was nine thousand, eight hundred and fifty-five dollars ($9,855.00) which was an amount fully advanced by Defendant James Spencer and there were no other claims to this $9,855.00 in litigation funds and Plaintiff Rakowsky knew it from July 2007 to date.

The Defendants cannot rely on Plaintiff Rakowsky's claim as to the balance. Mr. Rakowsky and his counsel Desa Ballard have refused numerous requests and discovery requests by the Defendants to provide a complete accounting of the funds provided for that lawsuit regarding that litigation required under the SCRPC 1.16, Rule 417 of the SCACR and under contract with RSC and Defendant James Spencer.²

11. Denied. Mr. Rakowsky claimed on May 8th, 9th, and 10th of 2007 to the Defendants, except for Defendant Doris Holt, that no agreement could be legally binding until each and every individual Defendant that Plaintiff Rakowsky represented in Southern Holdings, Inc., et al. vs. Horry County, et al. had formally signed off on a final written settlement agreement. The Defendants never gave Plaintiff Rakowsky and co-counsel Defendant Falgione authorization to settle that case hence the dispute over the $55,000.00 in "settlement funds". Defendant Doris Holt was not aware of any proposed settlement agreement and was not present in Court in May 2007, under the specific instructions of Plaintiff John Rakowsky. Doris Holt was never consulted with by either Plaintiff Rakowsky or co-counsel Defendant Adrian Falgione in that case directly, and/or indirectly, about the pseudo settlement of May 2007 at any time before, after and/or during May 2007. Defendant Doris Holt's position was steadfast from the date the lawsuit was filed that she wanted the individuals who physically and financially injured her brought to justice solely under terms decided by a jury. Defendant Doris Holt never agreed to a settlement at any time. A malpractice action is now pending against Plaintiff John Rakowsky and his co-counsel Defendant Adrian Falgione in a Court with proper venue.

12. Denied. A malpractice action is pending against Plaintiff John Rakowsky and his co-counsel Defendant Adrian Falgione in that matter in a Court with proper venue.
13. Denied. Defendants cannot repudiate something they have never agreed to and the Defendants never agreed to the pseudo settlement agreement proffered by Plaintiff Rakowsky, Defendant Falgione, Defendant Horry County and its legal counsel Defendant Andrew Lindemann. Further, Plaintiff Rakowsky lacks sufficient information to make or infer such despite his defacto refusal to end the attorney client relationship between the Defendants and Plaintiff Rakowsky by refusing to release the Plaintiff admitted remaining litigation funds of $9,855.00 to the Defendants.
14. Defendants lack sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained in paragraph 14.
15. Admitted.
16. Denied. Plaintiff Rakowsky purportedly has taken action as if he represents Defendants and as if he had not filed this Interpleader action, by wrongfully reducing the amount of Plaintiff reported remaining litigation funds by making a payment to a named Defendant in this Interpleader action from the reported

$9,855.00 of Interplead litigation funds, reducing the reported funds to $7,690.93 without authorization and without consent of either Defendant Spencer and/or the Court.³ Plaintiff Rakowsky for years wrongfully withheld the remaining litigation funds. Plaintiff Rakowsky is wrongfully misusing this Court to both control and purportedly disperse the Defendant's remaining litigation funds, supposedly protected in trust, without the Defendant's review, approval and consent; purportedly on behalf of the Defendants effectively retaining his representation of the Defendants. Additionally, any such payment out of litigation funds was not to be made by Plaintiff Rakowsky without the explicit consent of Defendant James Spencer under Defendant's agreement with Plaintiff Rakowsky. Withdrawing $2,164.07 and expending such funds on behalf of the Defendants constituted a breach of ethics under SCRPC Sections, 1.15 & 1.16, a breach of fiduciary duty to Defendant Spencer and a breach of contract with the contractual rights held by Defendant Spencer and contradictory to the supposed reason Plaintiff Rakowsky filed the Interpleader Action.

³ Plaintiff Rakowsky knows full well that the $2,164.07 reduction is not a legitimate legal expense but were costs related to personal travel unrelated to the case by a potential witness visiting friends and family in Columbia, SC including his rental car expenses and flight expense (i.e. frolic & detour). Rakowsky maintained understood his clients position regarding the non-payment of these personal expenses when the expenses were invoiced in mid May 2007. Plaintiff Rakowsky further acknowledged and maintained Defendants had already advanced funds that covered any pretrial preparation time contained in that invoice by the Defendant who received the $2,164.07. The Defendants refused to authorize the release of any funds to pay the $2,164.07 invoice. Further, Plaintiff Rakowsky acknowledged this as his Interpleader Complaint filed on September 12, 2008 and his first Amended Interpleader Complaint filed on November 14, 2008 were without any claims on the litigation funds. (Note: The two Complaints were filed after Plaintiff Rakowsky received invoices for $2,164.07 in May 2007, on or about August 20, 2008 and a hand delivered invoice was received by Rakowsky on October 14, 2008 a mere month before Rakowsky filed his first Amended Interpleader Complaint on November 14, 2008.) Further, under the terms of the Contract of Representation, dated May 27, 2005, with James Spencer it is clear no money is to be paid for legal expenses without the Defendant Spencer's explicit authorization. "amounts paid and or owed as authorized by client [James Spencer whose funds make up 100% of the litigation funds] of case related costs and expenses" (see page one of the contract of representation, lines 13, 14 and 15). This $2,164.07 has never appeared on any accounting presented to the Defendant Spencer and any funds released to a named Defendant or a third party would have to both be approved by the client [James Spencer] and the Richland County Court where the Interpleader was filed by Plaintiff, neither of which occurred.

17. Admitted in part, denied in part as Plaintiff Rakowsky knows the originally purported $9,855.00 in remaining litigation funds belongs to Defendant Spencer

18. Denied. The amount of $55,000.00, relates to the disputed settlement and the amount of the originally purported remaining litigation funds of $9,855.00 belongs to the Defendant Spencer for expenses authorized by Defendant Spencer.

Wherefore, the Defendants humbly pray this Honorable Court for an Order that the funds currently and wrongfully being controlled by John Rakowsky and Desa Ballard, in the sums of sixty-four thousand, eight hundred fifty-five dollars ($64,855.00), to be transferred forthwith into the trust account of the Defendants' designated legal counsel, Jim Young, Esquire of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, P.A., located at 1303 3rd Avenue, Conway, SC, 29526. The funds are to be transferred by certified check in the amount of sixty-four thousand, eight hundred fifty-five dollars ($64,855.00) which is to be mailed to the attention of Ms. Patty Davis, assistant to Jim Young, Esquire of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, P.A., with the litigation funds component to be further disbursed from that account as directed solely by Defendant Spencer. The Plaintiff has fully demonstrated through his actions that he has and continues to wrongfully use this Honorable Court to attempt to dissipate the litigation funds reportedly held in trust pending this litigation. Of the funds transferred, $55,000.00 will be held in trust until the rights of ownership of the funds are established through the pending malpractice litigation against Plaintiff Rakowsky and Defendant Falgione and the anticipated litigation concerning the disputed settlement of the underlying case, Case No: 4:02-CV-01859-RBH, are both litigated to conclusion.

The residual litigation funds of $9,855.00 or any portion thereof is to be utilized as directed by the Defendant Spencer as maintained in Defendants October 20, 2008, motion which is still pending before this Court. In addition, the Defendants pray that the Court impute an interest rate of eight and three-fourths percent (8.75%) per annum⁴ to be used to compute interest on the litigation funds the $9,855.00 plus any litigation funds wrongfully expended by Plaintiff Rakowsky (litigation funds expended without the express written permission of Defendant James Spencer in violation of Plaintiff's agreement with Defendant Spencer). This interest rate is to be computed from the date of July 14, 2007⁵ to the date the remaining $9,855.00 in litigation funds, or applicable funds thereof, are deposited into the trust account designated by the Defendants in their pending motion of October 20, 2008, still pending before this Court.

COUNTER CLAIMS BY DEFENDANTS

Facts

19. The Defendants learned on July 12, 2011, that a representative of Resolution Settlement Corporation ("RSC") had contacted Plaintiff John Rakowsky prior to filing this Interpleader Action and his legal counsel, Desa Ballard, and provided documentation to each regarding claims RSC had against any settlement funds in Case No. 4:02-CV-01859-RBH. It was also learned by the Defendants that RSC requested documentation from Plaintiff Rakowsky and Desa Ballard on the use of litigation funds as this was documentation required to be provided under contract between RSC, Plaintiff Rakowsky and Defendant James Spencer.

⁴ S.C. Code Ann. § 34-31-20. Legal rate of interest: "In all cases of accounts stated and in all cases wherein any sum or sums of money shall be ascertained and, being due, shall draw interest according to law, the legal interest shall be at the rate of eight and three-fourths percent per annum."

20. All such lawful requests for accounting of funds by RSC went unanswered
21. Lit Funding and LawMax Legal Funding provided the same litigation funding service as RSC to Defendant Spencer also with the participation of Plaintiff Rakowsky in the same Case No. 4:02-CV-01859-RBH. Plaintiff John Rakowsky, in his initial Interpleader Complaint before this Court, named Lit Funding and LawMax as Defendants. Nevertheless, each successive version of the Interpleader Complaint thereafter did not name any of the three funding companies used by Defendant Spencer as Defendants in this action.⁶ Importantly, upon information and belief, Lit Funding never contacted Plaintiff Rakowsky nor his legal counsel Desa Ballard like RSC did, yet RSC was excluded by Plaintiff Rakowsky throughout the entire process as recognition of RSC would have revealed additional litigation funds unaccounted for by Plaintiff Rakowsky.
22. Additionally, the Defendants also first learned on July 12, 2010, that representatives of RSC contacted the Honorable Judge Lee and notified Judge Lee on, or about, January 21, 2010, of the failure of Plaintiff Rakowsky to name RSC as having an interest in the settlement proceeds of $55,000.00.
23. On July 11, 2011, at a hearing before this Court, Plaintiff John Rakowsky's counsel, Stephanie Weissenstein, falsely claimed to the Court that Plaintiff John Rakowsky had produced the required documentation on "four separate occasions" that pertained to the receipt of funds and disbursement of all the litigation funds which would be due former clients by Plaintiff John Rakowsky, Defendant James Spencer, RSC, Lit Funding and LawMax. However, Stephanie Weissenstein only produced documentation that showed deposits of $67,500.00. The RSC agreements alone were for sixty thousand dollars ($60,000.00) by themselves in litigation funds and living expenses for Defendants advanced by RSC to Plaintiff Rakowsky for Defendant James Spencer executed under terms and agreement also both acknowledged, agreed to and executed by Plaintiff John Rakowsky.

24. On July 12, 2011, the captioned Defendants learned that Plaintiff John Rakowsky and his legal counsel, Stephanie Weissenstein, had failed to respond to repeated requests by RSC for documentation that Plaintiff John Rakowsky is contractually obligated to provide to RSC.⁷
25. Additionally, as a result of: (1) the untruthful statements given to the Court during the July 11, 2011, hearing by the Plaintiff's counsel, Stephanie Weissenstein, on and for the behalf of Plaintiff Rakowsky and Defendant Falgione; (2) the ex parte communications conducted with the Court including ex parte evidence presented to the Court and sealed by the Court, upon information and belief only shared with Defendant Falgione and Defendant Horry County's legal counsel Andrew Bindemann; and (3) the Court Order issued on August 3, 2011, making the information confidential due under contract to Defendant James Spencer and RSC regarding the use and authorization by Defendant James Spencer of the litigation funds provided by RSC, it is clear that Plaintiff John Rakowsky misused this court to breach his fiduciary duty to Defendant Spencer and RSC.

26. Additionally, the Court Order issued on August 3, 2011, appears to make confidential and thus unavailable to the Defendants, pertinent information the Defendants are entitled to under the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct Section 1.16 and Rule 417, SCACR.
27. Plaintiff Rakowsky has, therefore, breached his fiduciary duty regarding the care of the $60,000.00 entrusted and advanced by Defendants obtained from RSC by Plaintiff John Rakowsky for use as directed by Defendant James Spencer.
28. Plaintiff Rakowsky has conducted ex parte communications with the Court and provided ex parte evidence to the Court which the Court has sealed in violation of Rule 3, CJC, Rule 501, SCACR, Canon 3(B) (5) which states, "judge shall not initiate, permit, or consider ex parte communications, or consider other communications made to the judge concerning a pending proceeding, or consider other communications made to the judge outside the presence of the parties concerning a pending proceeding".⁸
29. Plaintiff Rakowsky unlawfully used this Court to conceal expenditures from the claimed $60,000.00 in litigation funds provided by Spencer through RSC.
30. Plaintiff Rakowsky wrongfully withheld (by and through the misuse of this Interpleader action and this Court) the reported remaining $9,855.00 in litigation funds. Further, Plaintiff Rakowsky claims to have expended additional amounts of litigation funds after filing the Interpleader without required authorization by Defendant Spencer after it had previously mutually agreed the $2,167.04 invoice (see footnote 3 herein) was not proper by both Plaintiff Rakowsky and Defendant Spencer when received. Any such payment is a breach of fiduciary duty by Plaintiff Rakowsky due Defendant Spencer and a clear demonstration of the lack of legal basis initiating this baseless Interpleader action regarding litigation funds.

⁸ The ex parte communications excluding the Defendants (as defined herein), by Plaintiff John Rakowsky and/or his Counsel with the Court occurred, but are not limited to, on or before May 21, 2010, on or about February 22, 2011, on or about June 24, 2011, on or about July 11, 2011, and on or about the end of July 2011.

31. Plaintiff Rakowsky presented what he claimed to the court was a full accounting of monies he received from LawMax and Lit Funding, the two funding companies he named as Defendants in the Interpleader (See Exhibit A, an accounting from Plaintiff's counsel Stephanie Weissenstein documenting total receipts as $67,500.00 into the Rakowsky account from Lit Funding and LawMax). Exhibit B (See Exhibit B, attached hereto), documents that Rakowsky acknowledged receipt through his signed record provided to the court by Rakowsky he received $50,000 from Lit Funding, $25,000⁹ from RSC and $35,000 from LawMax, for a total of $110,000.00 into litigation funds that went to Rakowsky for litigation and living expenses as needed as determined by Defendant Spencer. Therefore, Rakowsky clearly is concealing at least $42,500.00 (forty two thousand, five hundred dollars) of litigation funds an amount untruthfully had been verified by Stephanie Weissenstein on the Court record as having been properly accounted for under Rule 417 a summary of which was presented to the Defendants by Plaintiff's counsels (See Exhibit A). Stephanie Weissenstein claimed that a complete accounting was kept which she reviewed and confirmed under the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct Section 1.16 and Rule 417, SCACR, however, the former Defendants were not entitled to see such records under the rules, a statement she has repeatedly made on the court record. Weissenstein, Ballard and Rakowsky therefore, knew or would have known both who the remaining litigation funds belonged to, which means there never was a basis for the remaining litigation funds to have been interplead and also the fact the remaining litigation funds accounted for by Plaintiff Rakowsky and his legal counsels were understated by $42,500.00 due to the record requirements of Section 1.16 and Rule 417 of the SCACR which were claimed to have been complied with by the Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsels.¹⁰

32. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Rakowsky has breached his contract with Defendant Spencer and Defendant Spencer seeks a full refund of the $42,500.00 and the $9,855.00 for a total of $52,385.00 plus interest of 8.75% compounded annually from the date July 14, 2007, to the date of payment in full of this amount plus interest as directed by Defendant Spencer.

33. The Defendants allege Plaintiff John Rakowsky withheld the remaining litigation funds, living expenses and the records regarding the litigation funds due Defendants under contract and/or as required by the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct Section 1.16 and Rule 417, SCACR, to prevent the use of the litigation funds by indigent and disabled Defendants to financially undermine any malpractice action against Plaintiff Rakowsky and Defendant and Falgione.

¹⁰ Despite Desa Ballard and Stephanie Weissenstein's claims to the contrary, they cannot have it both ways. They have stated on the record all accounting records were maintained as required under the SCRPC Section 1.16 and Rule 417 of the SCACR by Plaintiff Rakowsky as verified by them. If that were true then there would be no confusion as to who the remaining litigation funds belonged to, however, if there was truly a confusion as to who the remaining litigation funds belonged to by Plaintiff Rakowsky he committed legal malpractice because the rules required each clients funds, receipts and disbursements be segregated and accounted for. The Plaintiff's legal counsels and Plaintiff are being untruthful to the tribunal.

Jurisdiction

34. This Court has jurisdiction to hear Counter Claims under SCRCP Rule 22(a).
35. South Carolina courts have considered breaches of fiduciary duty as the basis for contractual and tort actions. See e.g., Corley v. Ott, 326 S.C. 89, 485 S.E.2d 97 (1997). Restatement 2nd Torts § 874 cmt. (C) (1979) Hendricks v. Clemson Univ., 339 S.C. 552, 561 (S.C. Ct. App. 2000).
36. Competing claims regarding the funds involved in the Interpleader action include, but are not limited to, a claim that Plaintiff John Rakowsky breached his fiduciary duty regarding $52,383 in litigation funds advanced by Defendant Spencer.
37. The Defendants allege this Court has been misused by Plaintiff Rakowsky to circumvent his fiduciary duty and to circumvent his requirements under the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct Section 1.16 and Rule 4.17, SCACR, regarding the litigation funds for the sole purpose of financially undermining Defendants' efforts to bring a Legal Malpractice action against Plaintiff Rakowsky and his co-counsel Defendant Falgione.

"One who uses a legal [256] process, whether criminal or civil, against another primarily [16] to accomplish a purpose for which it is not designed, is subject to liability to the other for harm caused by the abuse of process." Restatement (Second) of Torts § 682 (1977) (emphasis added). As noted in the Restatement comment, "the significance of [primarily] is that there is no action for abuse of process when the process is used for the purpose for which it is intended, but there is an incidental motive of spite or an ulterior purpose of benefit to the Defendant." Restatement (Second) of Torts § 682 cmt. b. at 475 (1977). Accordingly, liability exists not because a party merely seeks to gain a collateral advantage by using some legal process, but because the collateral objective was its sole or paramount reason for acting. See id.; Harper, supra, § 4.9 at 4:84-85. HN37 ("The process must be used 'primarily' to accomplish the ulterior end.")

Food Lion, Inc. v. United Food & Commer. Workers Int'l Union,
351 S.C. 65, 75 (S.C. Ct. App. 2002)

38. The Defendants seek a jury trial for all causes of action related to this Interpleader Complaint and Counter Claims still outstanding after the Court rules on the Defendant's motion to release the remaining litigation funds per the pending October 20, 2008, Defendant's motion plus any and all accrued interest on said funds.

COUNTER CLAIM RELIEF SOUGHT BY DEFENDANTS

WHEREAS the Defendants seek:

39. The remaining litigation funds clearly documented as provided by James Spencer from RSC, Lit Funding and LawMax ($52,385.00) to Plaintiff Rakowsky. The $52,385.00 is to be reduced by the remaining litigation funds, purportedly $9,855.00, or any portion thereof held by Plaintiff John Rakowsky, that are turned over forthwith to the Defendants herein named attorney's trust account as Defendants pray are Ordered by the Court in regard to Defendants' pending motion of October 20, 2008.
40. Plaintiff Rakowsky place the disputed $55,000.00 of settlement money in an interest earning trust account of Defendants herein named attorney for safekeeping for release only as directed by Court Order so said funds can be earning interest.
41. Punitive damages of an amount to be determined by a jury for the misuse of judicial process in these matters to be assessed against Plaintiff Rakowsky.

42. The Court impute an interest rate of eight and three-fourths percent (8.75%) per annum¹¹ to be used to compute interest on remaining litigation funds (the $9,855.00 and the $42,500.00). This interest is to be computed from the date of July 14, 2007, to the date the $52,385.00 in litigation funds are deposited into an account designated by Defendant Spencer.
43. Defendants seek an amount for their bills for legal research and costs owed for consulting fees incurred by the Defendants for Plaintiff Rakowsky bringing this baseless Interpleader action regarding the litigation funds. An amount that totals in excess of $8,400.00 as of the date of this filing to be increased for costs that continue to be incurred and owed from the date of this filing.
44. Defendants reserve the right to amend this complaint if and when Plaintiff allows a proper discovery which all efforts to date have been unsuccessful.
45. Any other amount the Jury finds proper in order to deter such action from occurring in the future by members of the South Carolina Bar.
46. The Court impute an interest rate of eight and three-fourths percent (8.75%) per annum¹² to be used to compute lost interest on the settlement funds ($55,000.00) from the date of deposit into Desa Ballard's account until the date the funds are deposited into an interest bearing account by order of this Honorable Court.
47. Any and all costs of counsel(s) and counsel's legal fees if counsel(s) can be found to represent the indigent Defendants in this action.

¹¹ S.C. Code Ann. § 34-31-20, Legal rate of interest. "In all cases of accounts stated and in all cases wherein any sum or sums of money shall be ascertained and, being due, shall draw interest according to law, the legal interest shall be at the rate of eight and three-fourths percent per annum."

1 not supposed to be interpleaded and for ---

2 THE COURT: Well, and that won't be dealt with

4 MR. SPENCER: Okay.

5 THE COURT: Because that won't be --- what you
6 will probably have to do is seek some sort of 7 frivolous action if, in fact, they're not there.

8 MR. SPENCER: That's part of our counterclaim.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, that will have to 10 be decided in the whole picture.

11 MR. SPENCER: We have a motion to amend our 12 answer for a counterclaim and for a jury trial.

13 THE COURT: Well, I don't think it's for a jury
14 trial.

15 MR. SPENCER: All right. Our counterclaim ---

16 THE COURT: It's an equitable action.

18 MR. SPENCER: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: On the amended complaint?

20 MR. SPENCER: We have had an amended complaint
21 and counterclaim since August of 2011.

22 THE COURT: Have you seen the amended complaint?

23 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: Your Honor, I couldn't
24 understand what he just said.

25 THE COURT: He said that since August of 2011, he

1 had filed a motion to amend the answer and the 2 counterclaim and when he did that, he submitted a 3 proposed answer and counterclaim, which is what you're 4 required to do. Are you going to fighting him on the 5 amendment? You're going to lose. Do you want to 6 fight him?

7 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: Your Honor, I believe that an 8 order of August 3rd, 2011 addressed that motion.

9 THE COURT: Let me see it.

10 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: I'm sorry?

11 THE COURT: Let me see it.

12 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: I don't have that with me
13 today, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Why wasn't it filed?

15 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: Because, Your Honor, I
16 believed that we were here to schedule the outstanding 17 motions and not litigate the issues.

18 THE COURT: We're here to determine the status of 19 the thing. I'm not litigating it, but you know as 20 well as I do, the rules liberally allows for amended 21 pleas, so you're probably going lose that.

22 What I'm trying to figure out is the if he 23 amends, when can they do the depositions and let's go 24 ahead and schedule the hearing on the merits of the 25 interpleader action.

1 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: Your Honor, if the --- this
2 action has been pending since 2008. He could have 3 moved for the depositions a long time ago, and we
4 would object to any further discovery at this point.
5 It's an interpleader action.

6 THE COURT: I don't care. We're going to give 7 him an opportunity to do it. We are going to give 8 everybody an opportunity to do what they need to do
9 before we go to a hearing, but we're going to schedule
10 a hearing. If they don't do it before we go to the 11 hearing, then they're going to give up their right to 12 do it. I want to get the issues framed so that 13 everybody knows what it is we're talking about when we 14 go to a hearing.

15 What you need to do is consent to his amending 16 the answer and the counterclaim, let's get on with 17 that. Find out when it is he can take these 18 depositions, let's get on with that and schedule a 19 hearing.

20 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: All right, Your Honor. We'll 21 consent to him filing his amended.

22 THE COURT: All right, they're consenting to 23 allow you to amend your answer and counterclaim, so 24 get them filed and get them served.

25 MR. SPENCER: Yes, sir.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

COUNTY OF RICHLAND

Case No. 2008-CP-40-6656

John R. Rakowsky,

Plaintiff,

v.

Adrian L. Falgione, James Spencer,
 The Estate of Doris Holt, Rodney Lail,
 Irene Santacroce, Marguerite Stephens,
 Ricky Stephens, Horry County,
 South Carolina.

Defendants.

2014 JAN 30 PM 1:31

OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF RAKOWSKY'S CLAIM AGAINST INTERPLED FUNDS

NOW COMES THE UNDERSIGNED, as counsel for defendants Irene Santacroce, and Rodney Lail (hereinafter the "defendants") and hereby objects to the claim made by plaintiff John Rakowsky as to funds he is owed out of the $55,000.00 of "pseudo" settlement funds which are a subject of this litigation. In support of their objection the defendants respond to the plaintiff's claim as follows:

Under South Carolina law this case has not been settled and the Plaintiff knows this case has not been settled. Decisively, there was no required written authorization received from the seven diverse plaintiff clients authorizing the negotiation of a settlement by their attorneys. This is a prerequisite before an aggregate settlement can be finalized under applicable substantive law, South Carolina Court Rule 407, 1.8 (g). The lack of the existence of the required written authorization is definitive prima facie evidence that there could be no legally binding settlement under any set of circumstances, emphasis added, in the present case. Unless plaintiff Rakowsky can produce such a document, there simply is no settlement under the law and therefore he has no claim. Plaintiff's acceptance of funds to impose

1. Admitted.
2. Denied.
3. Denied as to both the amount of litigation funds remaining that are in dispute and also the fact that the underlying case has not been settled under the law.
4. Denied. Mr. Rakowsky is not entitled to receive a portion of the funds proffered for the Interpleader in this matter for attorneys' fees for his service in the federal court action. Pursuant to the fee agreement (Plaintiffs Exhibit "A" attached hereto), neither Mr. Rakowsky nor any other attorney has met any of the terms and conditions necessary for payment of fees for services.

First, Mr. Rakowsky's claim of 40% of the $55,000.00² is a contingency percentage that is applicable only if the trial is commenced (See Exhibit A, lines 9 and 10 on page one). This case has not gone to trial and the trial never was commenced. Therefore, Mr. Rakowsky at most could claim 33%. However, the only possible way the 33% contingency fee is applicable is if the total dollars of recovery from the litigation exceeds the costs incurred since April 1, 2005; (See Exhibit A, page one, lines 6, 7 and 8). However, Plaintiff Rakowsky's own accounting he presented to the court documents that costs were in excess of $57,000.00, therefore, Mr. Rakowsky is entitled to nothing under the terms of the representation agreement (See Exhibit B, attached hereto.)

Consequently, Mr. Rakowsky under the terms of the Contract of Representation executed by plaintiff Rakowsky, Exhibit A, is not entitled to any a wrongful settlement necessitates the funds be removed from plaintiff's control and placed with the Court forthwith to earn interest, an action long sought by the undersigned defendants.

² The $55,000 is used here for illustrative purposes only by the defendants. The defendants are in no way claiming there was a settlement of the case but are responding to plaintiff Rakowsky's baseless claim of being owed money from the $55,000 imposed, pseudo settlement.

fees under the terms and conditions mutually agreed to. Forty percent of nothing or thirty-three percent of nothing is still nothing. This is clearly his entitlement under the agreement.

Further, John Rakowsky unilaterally resigned from the case. This entitles him to nothing (Emphasis added) in terms of remuneration under the agreement (Exhibit A).

The Contract of Representation and Addendum were drafted by defendant James Spencer. As the drafter of the agreement he is in a unique position to identify and define the "clear intent" of the terms of the agreements. He knows what he intended to draft. His interpretation of the meaning and intent of the agreement must be given great weight. Please see attached sworn declaration by James Spencer (See Exhibit C).

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA) CONTRACT OF REPRESENTATION
) (CONTINGENCY FEE AGREEMENT)
 COUNTY OF RICHLAND)

James Spencer formerly known as Robert Holt ("Client") hereby employs and retains Mark W. Hardee, John R. Rakowsky, and Ron Serota, Attorneys at Law ("Law Firm") to represent his interests in connection with the aforesaid matter, and in connection with all damages and/or injuries related thereto.

Client agrees to pay to the Law Firm a contingency fee. The Law Firm's contingency fee shall equal one-third of any and all monies received by way of settlement after deducting an amount equivalent to direct case and litigation expenses incurred and or paid from April 1, 2005, regardless of whether such settlement occurs before or after suit is brought and filed in this case. The contingency fee component of the aforementioned equation herein increases from one third to 40 percent of total judgment once the trial is commenced. Client understands that the aforesaid attorneys' fees will be deducted from the gross recovery less direct case related expenses paid and/or incurred from April 1, 2005, and that the said case expenses associated with this matter will be paid after attorneys' contingency fees have been paid in full. The remainder, after attorney contingency fees are taken out, will be further reduced by the repayments of amounts paid and/or owed as authorized by Client of case related costs and expenses paid and will be deducted after attorney contingency fees and prior to any personal recovery to Client.

After each individual Law Firm member as defined herein receives one hundred thousand dollars in compensation from this case in sum total from all Clients in this case, the residual base that will be used to multiply the contingency fee component to determine remaining Law Firm compensation, will be reduced by all case-related expenses incurred and paid prior to April 1, 2005.

If settlement of this case is made by a structured settlement, attorneys' fees will be computed based on one third of the total present day value of the settlement after an amount equivalent to expenses incurred is deducted from the formula accounting for expenses in the same manner as applicable as defined above. The contingency amounts of the attorneys' fees shall be paid out of the initial cash payment.

Client empowers the aforesaid Law Firm to take all steps in this matter deemed by Law Firm to be advisable.

Client specifically acknowledges that the Law Firm has made no guarantee regarding the successful completion of the aforesaid claim and that all expressions relative thereto are matters of opinion only.

It is agreed and understood between the parties that Client will be responsible for all reasonable non-overhead related direct costs and expenses in addition to the agreed legal fee and will pay such reasonable non-overhead related direct costs and expenses as are required by law and additional costs as shall be agreed to by Client as part of the necessary non-overhead related direct expenses and costs with reference to the above described matter. Client agrees to escrow with the Law Firm the sum of -0-.

Client agrees that a full time law clerk dedicated to this case will be hired and compensated by Client as a cost of this litigation as defined herein.

Law Firm is to keep accurate hourly records due to nature of the case and that if any representation fees are awarded using hours worked, the hourly fees generated will offset the contingency fees up to the 40% level as computed herein above. Law Firm agrees to structure any hours incurred in this case by Gene Waas and Jimmy Cooper in such a manner to be eligible for such a court awarded formula that would not impact financial proceeds to either Law Firm or Client.

If any such hours are used in this case and are not reimbursed by the court for the work of Gene Waas and Jimmy Cooper, these hours will be paid by the Law Firm and Client out of the funds received from the settlement or court ruling at the applicable rate of one third or forty percent by the Law Firm and two thirds or sixty percent by the Client. If Gene Waas and Jimmy Coopers' contingency hourly fees are not awarded by the court and Client does not prevail to an extent that covers the contingent legal fees due Gene Waas and Jimmy Cooper, then no fees of any kind will be due to Gene Waas and Jimmy Cooper by either Law Firm or Client.

Should suit be filed, Client understands that in the event that an adverse result occurs, Client may be responsible for costs incurred by opposing party(ies) and in some cases, attorney fees.

The parties hereto further agree that Law Firm is not obligated to represent Client in any appeal if Client does not prevail. If Client prevails Law Firm agrees to represent Client in first round of appeals under the terms of this agreement if award to Client is in excess of one million dollars or potentially could be valued in excess of one million dollars.

Client agrees that Law Firm will have a lien on any funds received by way of settlement or judgment to the extent of its contingency fees and mutually agreed upon reasonable direct costs not paid by client.

Client agrees to assist and cooperate with the Law Firm to the extent it is requested to do so by the Law Firm. Client further acknowledges that should Client fail to so assist and cooperate with the Law Firm, the Law Firm shall have the right to cancel this agreement.

Client understands that there are some types of cases in which attorneys' fees may be awarded by a court to a party. Should Client's case be one of those types of cases, and should a court award attorneys' fees in Client's behalf, then Client acknowledges and understands that they will be responsible for the difference, if any, between the attorneys' fees established by this Agreement and such attorneys' fees as may be awarded and recovered in this matter.

Law Firm is hired to represent Client in the aforesaid matter only. Law Firm does not undertake to represent Client on other matters, or to represent any related interest or parties. Law Firm may represent Client with adverse interests in unrelated matters.

This agreement does not include the Law Firm providing any tax advice to Client, and Client may not rely on the Law Firm for tax advice on any aspect of Client's case, including, but not limited to: (1) tax implications of settlement proceeds or verdict proceeds; (2) deductibility of attorneys' fees or costs. Client should consult with a tax advisor on all such issues.

Each party to this contract agrees to be solely responsible for any and all taxes from any entity assessed on the amount of the individual proceeds the party individually receives under this agreement.

This is the entire agreement between Law Firm and Client and can be amended by signed writing only.

In the event the Law Firm is dismissed by Client, Law Firm shall be paid per quantum.

Addendum to Contract of Representation
(Contingency Fee Agreement)
Executed on or about May 27, 2005
Between "Law Firm" and "Clients"
Regarding case Number 02-1859
As listed on the Docket of the Florence Division of the South Carolina Federal District Court

This addendum is necessitated by the withdrawal of Mark Hardee from the Law Firm (Law Firm as defined within the Contract of Representation) and Mark Hardee's release of any and all claims against any potential recovery in this case.

Adrian L. Falgione, Attorney at Law, has replaced Mark Hardee and as such under the terms of his retention, Mr. Falgione shall be entitled to the specific funds Mark Hardee would have received under the terms of the Contract of Representation executed between Clients and Law Firm and assumes the associated responsibilities formerly performed by Mark Hardee under the terms and conditions of the Contract of Representation as of November 15, 2006, the date the Motion for the Substitution of Counsel was filed with the Court.

This Addendum has no effect on any and all terms and conditions of the Contract of Representation executed on or about May 27, 2005, between the Law Firm and the Clients. This Addendum is a confirmation of the agreement to retain Adrian Falgione as counsel and compensate Mr. Falgione with the funds that would have gone to Mark Hardee under the terms of the Contract of Representation whom Mr. Falgione replaced.

This Addendum is mutually agreed to by the Law Firm,

Declaration

1. The information in this declaration is based on my personal knowledge;
2. I drafted the attached representation agreement and addendum at both John Rakowsky's and Adrian Falgione's respective requests;
3. I was present when John Rakowsky executed the representation agreement and Adrian Falgione executed the representation addendum;
4. When John Rakowsky and Adrian Falgione executed the representation agreement and addendum respectively they each indicated that they understood and agreed to the terms of the representation agreement.

5. It was my intent in drafting the agreement and all signatories understood that John Rakowsky and any other attorney who represented the plaintiffs in the underlying case were not to receive any compensation if the direct costs of litigation exceeded the recovery from the defendants in the underlying case.
6. It was my intent as the drafter of the representation agreement that John Rakowsky and any attorney who unilaterally resigned from representing the plaintiffs was not entitled to receive any compensation under the terms of the agreement that is executed and attached to this declaration. This was understood by all the attorneys at the time of their execution of the representation agreement and/or addendum.

Affiant further sayeth naught.

I affirm that the above is true to the best of my knowledge and recollection under penalty of perjury.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Discussion

I. INTRODUCTION

In July of 2007, Plaintiff John Rakowsky unilaterally resigned from representing the "stigmatized defendants", and Southern Holdings, Inc., (hereinafter "former clients") which comprise all the known clients of Plaintiff John Rakowsky and Defendant Adrian Falgione in the litigation of Southern Holdings, Inc., et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 02-CV-01859-RBH ("Southern Holdings"). The former clients in the Southern Holdings case jointly requested in writing a return of any and all the remaining litigation funds² in a manner to be determined and directed by Defendant James Spencer (hereinafter "Spencer").³ The remaining litigation funds is the subject of this Rule 11(a) Motion for Sanctions.

Additionally, the former clients requested a "full accounting" of all the litigation funds provided to Plaintiff John Rakowsky. Such a "full accounting" is required under

³ Furthermore, the three non-party providers of funds to the former clients (LawMax, Lit Funding and Resolution Settlement Corporation) had unconditionally and contractually released any claims on any remaining litigation funds that they had advanced in accordance with the terms of their contracts to advance the funds. All three contracts respectively were initiated and executed by Plaintiff John Rakowsky.

Rules 1.15(e) and/or 1.16(d) of the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct.⁴ No funds or accounting were ever received.

In August of 2007, the former clients again jointly requested in writing the return of the remaining litigation fees to be handled as directed by Spencer and a "full accounting" of all the litigation funds provided to Plaintiff John Rakowsky and Defendant Adrian Falgione for the litigation of the Southern Holdings case. No funds or accounting were received.

In January of 2008, Defendants Spencer and Doris Holt once again requested in writing the return of the remaining litigation fees and a "full accounting"⁵ of all the litigation funds provided to Plaintiff John Rakowsky and Defendant Adrian Falgione for the litigation of the Southern Holdings case, as required under Rules 1.15(e) and/or 1.16(d) of the South Carolina Rules of Professional ethics. No funds or accounting were received.

On February 21, 2008, in response to Defendants' requests for return of the remaining litigation funds and an accounting of funds provided to Plaintiff Rakowsky and Defendant Falgione, Weissenstein's law firm filed an ex-parte motion to interplead the remaining litigation funds in South Carolina Federal District Court in the case captioned Southern Holdings, Inc., et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 02-CV-01859-RBH (See Docket #596). Weissenstein's law firm wrongfully claimed that Plaintiff Rakowsky did not know which client that he represented in the Southern Holdings case was to be paid the remaining $9,855.00 of litigation funds.

On February 22, 2008, unaware of the ex-parte filing, Defendant Spencer requested for a fourth time in writing the return (a carbon copy sent to Bruce Benson, the CEO of Resolution Settlement Corporation) of the residual litigation funds provided by RSC and an accounting of all the funds provided to Plaintiff John Rakowsky and Defendant Adrian Falgione for the litigation of the Southern Holdings case. (See Exhibit "B".)

On August 12, 2008, the South Carolina Federal District Court denied Weissenstein's firm's ex-parte motion related to the interpleading of the remaining litigation funds (See Docket #666). After learning of the denial by the Federal District Court, each and every one of the "stigmatized defendants" called Plaintiff Rakowsky's office to request a return of the $9,855.00 in remaining litigation funds per their previous written instructions and to request an accounting of the disposition of all the litigation funds. Plaintiff Rakowsky, who answers his own telephone, refused to talk to each and every former client and hung up on each of them without comment when he was informed who was calling.

On August 22, 2008, attorney Weissenstein and/or her firm informed Defendant Spencer by mail that she had taken control of the remaining litigation funds and informed Defendant Spencer that he and the other former clients of John Rakowsky and Adrian Falgione in the Southern Holdings case were not to have any contact with their former attorney, John Rakowsky, and that if Spencer and the other former clients wanted access to the remaining litigation funds and the financial records, Defendant Spencer and the other former clients of John Rakowsky and Defendant Adrian Falgione⁶ would have to bring a lawsuit against John Rakowsky.

On August 27, 2008, attorney Weissenstein and/or her firm sent a second letter to Defendant Spencer and Bruce Benson, President of Resolution Settlement Corporation ("RSC"), a provider of litigation funds for Defendant Spencer, stating that RSC, Defendant Spencer and all other former clients in the Southern Holdings case would not be provided an accounting of the litigation funds and to refer to the contents of Weissenstein firm's August 22, 2008, letter referenced herein immediately above.⁷

On September 12, 2008, Weissenstein's firm on behalf of Plaintiff Rakowsky filed another Interpleader Complaint, this time in the South Carolina Court of Common Pleas in Richland County, South Carolina, and again wrongfully attempted to interplead the $9,855.00 in remaining uncontested litigation funds. In paragraphs 13 and 19 of the September 12, 2008, Interpleader Complaint, Plaintiff Rakowsky once again knowingly and baselessly claimed there were conflicting claims among his former clients in the Southern Holdings case as to who was owed the remaining litigation funds as the basis for interpleading the remaining litigation funds (purported to be $9,855.00 by Plaintiff

⁶ Defendant Adrian Falgione has cut off any communication with his former clients in the Southern Holdings case since July 2007.

⁷ The former clients of John Rakowsky in the Southern Holdings maintain such an accounting is due under Rules 1.15(e) and/or 1.16(d) of the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct and Rule 417 of the South Carolina Judicial Code.

Rakowsky) and, therefore, Plaintiff Rakowsky did not know to which former client(s) those remaining litigation funds should be refunded.⁸

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about October 20, 2008, all the former clients of Plaintiff John Rakowsky in the Southern Holdings case, jointly filed documents with this Court, stating once again that there were no conflicting claims regarding the disposition of the remaining $9,855.00 in remaining litigation funds. Further, and the former clients again requested the financial documentation related to the disposition of all the litigation funds in the Southern Holdings case provided to John Rakowsky. Despite this notarized documentation being submitted to the Court and to Weissenstein and additionally testimony on the Court record by the former clients during the first hearing on these matters, attended by Weissenstein and Rakowsky, testimony which confirmed that there was no conflict as to the disbursement of the litigation funds⁹, Weissenstein and her firm wrongfully continued to refuse to release the $9,855.00 in remaining litigation funds and duly amend Plaintiff Rakowsky's Interpleader Complaint to reflect the fact that there was in fact no conflict regarding the $9,855.00 in litigation funds. (See Exhibit "C".)

⁸ This is untruthful as all the former clients had consistently directed Plaintiff Rakowsky numerous times regarding what to do with the remaining litigation funds, see previous paragraphs above.

⁹ Weissenstein, Rakowsky and the Court were also presented a check for $25,000.00 during this initial hearing which was endorsed by John Rakowsky and deposited into his account from RSC and a copy of the signed notarized contract executed by John Rakowsky with RSC (See Exhibit D, Pg. 9) regarding the $25,000.00. John Rakowsky and Weissenstein continue to deny receiving monies from RSC and refuse to provide a full accounting of the litigation monies received and/or answer any discovery whatsoever. (See Exhibit "D".)

Over the ensuing years Weissenstein and/or her firm asked for several continuances to amend Plaintiff Rakowsky's Interpleader Complaint. The Interpleader Complaint revisions were needed as the "stigmatized defendants" answers to each successive version of the Interpleader Complaint left Plaintiff Rakowsky with no viable response, so his only alternative was to amend the Interpleader Complaint.¹⁰ As just one example of why such amendments were necessary, John Rakowsky in the first version of his Interpleader Complaint, filed on September 12, 2008, acknowledged that he also represented Linda Williamson Lawrence and Ernest H. Morton in the same Southern Holdings litigation (which was a conflict of interest) and that they also had contributed part of the residual $9,855.00 in litigation funds. Linda Williamson Lawrence and Ernest H. Morton, realizing this would have been a conflict of interest, petitioned the Court and a Court Order was issued dismissing them out as Defendants in John Rakowsky's Interpleader Complaint on October 20, 2008.

On December 1, 2009, Defendant Spencer submitted his first request for production and his first round of interrogatories to Weissenstein to be answered by Plaintiff Rakowsky. Weissenstein failed to respond to the request for production and the interrogatories.

¹⁰ Weissenstein amended the Interpleader Complaint on November 17, 2008, July 28, 2010, and again on December 3, 2010.

On January 4, 2010, Defendant Spencer's elderly mother, Pro Se Defendant Doris Holt, disappeared from a nursing home. It took 10 months to locate her even with the help of Governor Mark Sanford's Office.

On July 10, 2010, Bruce Benson, the CEO of RSC sent a notarized letter to Weissenstein, Spencer and the Court regarding Weissenstein and Rakowsky's refusal to acknowledge and account for the funding provided by RSC in the Southern Holdings case. (See Exhibit "E".)

On January 7, 2011, Defendant Spencer again submitted both his first request for production and his first round of interrogatories to Plaintiff Rakowsky as Weissenstein stated she never received the first requests for production and interrogatories from Spencer.

On or about February 10, 2011, Pro Se Defendant Spencer learned from Weissenstein that Plaintiff Rakowsky was not going to respond to the "stigmatized defendants" requests for production and interrogatories. The requests for production were only for documentation concerning the disposition of funds provided by the "stigmatized defendants" who were all former clients of Plaintiff John Rakowsky and Defendant Adrian Falgione. The requested documentation is required to be maintained and made available to clients and/or former clients under Rule 417 of the South Carolina Judicial Code in conjunction with Rule 1.15(e) and/or 1.16(d) of the South Carolina Code of Professional Conduct.¹¹

On February 10, 2011, Pro Se Defendant Spencer issued a subpoena in error, instead of a motion to compel, for the documents. Weissenstein refused to produce despite the repeated requests for production that Weissenstein ignored.

On February 13, 2011, Pro Se Defendant Spencer had his mother Pro Se Defendant Doris Holt admitted to the hospital. Doris Holt subsequently died on February 19, 2011. Defendant Spencer was appointed Administrator of the Estate of Defendant Doris Holt on May 5, 2011.

On May 11, 2011, a roster hearing was held before the Honorable Judge George C. James, Jr.¹² In attendance were the "stigmatized defendants", many of whom live over five hours away.

On June 24, 2011, Plaintiff John Rakowsky's legal counsel, Weissenstein, filed an ex-parte motion for a "date certain" with the Honorable Judge Alison Renee Lee only notifying certain "handpicked" Defendants of the motion. Weissenstein notified only Plaintiff John Rakowsky, Defendant Adrian Falgione, Esquire and Defendant Horry County Counsel, Andrew Lindemann (collectively hereinafter known as the "chosen handpicked parties")¹³ Not notified of the June 24, 2011 Weissenstein request/motion for a "date certain" were the "stigmatized Defendants".¹⁴ (See Exhibit "F".)

On Thursday afternoon at approximately 5:00 PM on July 7, 2011, a letter was received by Spencer from Weissenstein's office notifying Defendant Spencer of a Docket Hearing and Trial scheduled for Monday, July 11, 2011, set by the Honorable Judge Lee. Weissenstein's notice was mailed the day before and effectively gave less than three days (only one working day) before the hearing, which effectively prevented Defendant Spencer from properly preparing himself or obtaining a legal counsel for a motions hearing and trial on July 11, 2011. Weissenstein's office's letter further instructed Defendant Spencer that he was charged with notifying the other "stigmatized defendants" of the hearing and trial on July 11, 2011. (See Exhibit "G".)

On July 11, 2011, despite the "stigmatized defendants" not receiving the required ten days notice,¹⁵ the hearing was held. When Defendant Spencer, Defendant Lail and their lawyer requested a continuance based on the fact they were given inadequate notice and were not prepared and that the other defendants ["stigmatized defendants"] were not even properly notified of the hearing, their request for a continuance was denied by Judge Lee.¹⁶

¹⁴ Weissenstein blatantly lied in her June 24, 2011, ex-parte request for a date certain claiming that Defendant Spencer had requested the continuance on May 11, 2011, because, "some of the defendants would not be available to attend and he requested a continuance."

¹⁵ According to Rule 6 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedures, "A written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof, shall be served not later than ten days before the time specified for the hearing."

On July 12, 2011, Defendant Spencer was notified that his subpoenas for records were quashed at the hearing held on July 11, 2011. Obviously, the "stigmatized defendants" were not prepared for the hearing, given the short notice by Weissenstein's office. Additionally, the unwitting "stigmatized defendants" total lack of knowledge of the existence of the ex-parte motion for a date certain filed by Weissenstein prevented the "stigmatized defendants" from responding to the untruthful and misleading contents of the motion for a date certain submitted to the Honorable Judge Lee by Weissenstein.

On July 24, 2011, Defendant Spencer filed a motion to compel the production of a proper accounting that is due to former clients, as specified in Rule 1.15(e) and/or 1.16(d) of the South Carolina Professional Code of Conduct and in Rule 417 of the South Carolina Judicial Code.

On August 3, 2011, Judge Seals signed an Order drafted by Weissenstein that claimed that the financial information sought by Defendant Spencer was confidential and was, therefore, not discoverable. However, the financial records Defendant Spencer sought were solely related to the litigation funding provided by the former clients to Rakowsky for the litigation of the Southern Holdings case.

¹⁶ Ibid. Judge Lee stated to the unwitting "stigmatized defendants" present she would not allow the defendants ["stigmatized defendants"] to delay this case again. Judge Lee's baseless preconceived notion was apparently due to the untruthful claims by Weissenstein in the ex-parte motion for a date certain as the "stigmatized defendants" had never asked for a continuance from the Court of this case at any time.

On August 22, 2011, Defendant Spencer filed a Rule 59(e) Motion to amend Judge Seal's order to be in compliance with Rule 1.15 and 1.16 of the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct and Rule 417 of the South Carolina Judicial Code, and to both acknowledge and take into account the fact that the ex-parte filings were wrongfully submitted by Weissenstein both during the hearing and prior to the hearing. The contents of both ex-parte submissions remain unknown to this date to the "stigmatized defendants" (See Exhibit "H".)

On September 10, 2011, Defendant Spencer again resubmitted his first set of interrogatories to Weissenstein as Weissenstein claimed she had not received the previous submissions.

On September 15, 2011, a hearing was held before the Honorable Judge Barber on the motion to compel production filed on July 24, 2011. Judge Barber ruled he could not compel production of the financial records as Judge Seals had ruled they were confidential.

During the hearing Plaintiff Rakowsky admitted on the Court record (See September 15, 2011, transcript, Pg. 22, lines 10 to 19, Pg. 23, lines 8 to 14, Pg. 24, lines 12 to 15) there were no conflicting claims to the $9,855.00 of residual litigation funds, and Plaintiff Rakowsky further stated on the Court record (See September 15, 2011, transcript, Pg. 21, lines 1 to 10) that he had no objection, emphasis added, to refunding the [wrongly] interplead $9,855.00 in remaining litigation funds to the Defendants ["stigmatized defendants"]. (See Exhibit "I")

On October 12, 2011, Plaintiff Rakowsky submitted responses to Spencer's interrogatories. Plaintiff Rakowsky refused to answer each and every question as Plaintiff Rakowsky baselessly claimed that Judge Barber had orally ruled against discovery being conducted in this litigation. In that regard, Weissenstein also had deliberately drafted a proposed Order for Judge Barber to sign regarding the September 15, 2011, hearing that wrongfully included a ruling against discovery, a ruling that Judge Barber never issued. The topic of not allowing discovery was not even discussed by any participant during the hearing. (See Exhibit "J").¹⁷

On October 18, 2011, Judge Barber issued his Order regarding the September 15, 2011 hearing. The Order did not include Weissenstein's wrongful statement that Judge Barber had ruled against discovery in this case. Weissenstein previously used this wrongful claim as the rationale for not answering the interrogatories (See October 12, 2011, herein). (See Exhibit "K".)

On November 1, 2011, Defendant Spencer received Judge Barber's Order. Defendant Spencer subsequently emailed Weissenstein and respectfully asked her to amend her answers to the interrogatories. Weissenstein refused to amend any answer.

¹⁷ Weissenstein's document in response is both addressed to the wrong Defendant and is filled with typographic and other errors made by Weissenstein that make the questions asked by Defendant difficult to understand in some instances. The typographical and other errors were not in the interrogatories submitted by Spencer to Weissenstein.

including ones that had to do solely with the background and experience of Plaintiff Rakowsky, claiming she, Weissenstein, was standing by her responses irrespective of Judge Barber's executed Order. Ignoring Judge Barber's Order, Weissenstein refused to amend her refusal to answer every interrogatory question based upon Weissenstein's manifestly wrongful claim that Judge Barber had ruled against discovery in this case.

Additionally, on November 1st Defendant Spencer again respectfully asked Weissenstein to release the undisputed $9,855.00 in litigation funds that she was wrongfully trying to interplead and had wrongfully been withheld by Plaintiff John Rakowsky since July of 2007. Plaintiff Rakowsky, Weissenstein's client, agreed to return the $9,855.00 in undisputed litigation funds on the Court Record on September 15, 2011 (See Exhibit "I"). Defendant Spencer pointed out to Weissenstein her refusal to return the uncontested litigation funds emphasis added was in clear violation of Rule 22 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and that if she did not comply, sanctions would be appropriate.

Weissenstein responded that she would not release the undisputed litigation funds of $9,855.00 without a Court Order despite the admission on the Court record by all parties, including her client, that these funds were not in dispute. Weissenstein further stated she was cutting off all communication with Defendant Spencer as she would no longer "dignify Defendant Spencer's requests by a response." (See Exhibit "M".)

On November 4, 2011, Defendant Spencer was notified that Judge Seals had ruled against his 59(e) motion. On November 22, 2011, Defendant Spencer filed a notice of appeal on the merits of the denial of the 59 (e) motion with the South Carolina Appellate Court.

III. STANDARD OF REVIEW

Pursuant to Rule 11(a) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, an attorney filing a written motion warrants that the factual representations have evidentiary support and the motion is not submitted for an improper motive.

"The signature of an attorney or party constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading, motion or other paper; that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. . . . If a pleading, motion, or other paper is signed in violation of this Rule, the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, may impose upon the person who signed it, a represented party, or both, an appropriate sanction, which may include an order to pay to the other party or parties the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of the filing of the pleading, motion or other paper, including a reasonable attorney's fee." Southeastern Site Prep, LLC v. Atl. Coast Builders & Contrs., LLC, 394 S.C. 97, 108 (S.C. Ct. App. 2011).

The counsel has a duty, prior to filing a document, to conduct an examination of the facts alleged in that document.

"Any person who takes part in the procurement, initiation, continuation, or defense of civil proceedings must be considered to have acted to secure a proper purpose as stated in item (1) of Section 15-36-10 if he reasonably believes in the existence of the facts upon which his claim is based and (1) reasonably believes that under those facts his claim may be valid under the existing or developing law; or . . . (3) believes, as an attorney of record, in good faith that his procurement, initiation, continuation, or defense of a civil cause is not intended to merely harass or injure the other party. See Southeastern Site Prep, LLC v. Atl. Coast Builders & Contrs., LLC, 394 S.C. 97, 108 (S.C. Ct. App. 2011).

Further, The South Carolina Federal District Court maintains that,¹⁸

"In order to determine 'improper motive' under Rule 11, a court must judge the attorney's conduct under an objective standard of reasonableness rather than assessing subjective intent."

Fahrenz v. Meadow Farm Ist ship, 850 F.2d 207, 210 (4th Cir. 1988).

IV. DISCUSSION

The "stigmatized defendants" contend that Weissenstein, Counsel for Plaintiff Rakowsky, failed to determine if there were true conflicts between the "stigmatized defendants" as to who paid in the litigation funds and how the funds were to be refunded to the "stigmatized defendants", causing Plaintiff Rakowsky to wrongfully continue to withhold the funds since he unilaterally resigned from the Southern Holdings case in July of 2007. The funds and an accounting of which should have been tendered on or about the date of his resignation in July 2007, neither of which Plaintiff Rakowsky has provided to date. Weissenstein continues to wrongfully attempt to interplead the remaining litigation funds despite the fact that Plaintiff Rakowsky had already put on the Court record that there was no conflict regarding the disbursement of the $9,855.00 and that he had no objection to refunding the $9,855.00 to the defendants ["stigmatized defendants"].

¹⁸ Plaintiff Rakowsky tried unsuccessfully to first interplead the litigation funds in South Carolina Federal District Court.

Moreover, Weissenstein stated on the Court record during the September 15, 2011, hearing that, "the account records as required by Rule 417 and Rule 1.15 have been created"¹⁹ emphasis added. If such was the case, then there would have been no dispute as to the disposition of the $9,855.00 in remaining litigation funds as the required records under Rule 417 would clearly identify the contributor of the funds and the directions as to how the remaining litigation funds of $9,855.00 were to be distributed. Therefore, either the records were not kept according to Rule 417, which is a violation of the Judicial Code by Weissenstein's client, Rakowsky, or the records would reveal both the documentation of agreement of the disbursement of the remaining $9,855.00 of litigation funds and also the disposition of the $60,000.00 in funds that have not been accounted for by Plaintiff Rakowsky. Under either alternative, and there appears to be no other legitimate explanation, the $9,855.00 in litigation funds was wrongfully interpled by Weissenstein, in a clear violation of Rule 11(a).

This wrongful action is further compounded by Plaintiff Rakowsky's refusing to produce, since July 2007, what should otherwise be benign financial records on the disposition of the litigation funds in the Southern Holdings case. The interpleading of the remaining litigation funds was not accomplished by Plaintiff Rakowsky and Weissenstein because there is a legitimate dispute as to the disposition of the remaining litigation funds, but rather, apparently, to wrongfully delay and withhold needed litigation funds.

that put a financial litigation roadblock in the path of the indigent "stigmatized defendants." This unjustified roadblock by Rakowsky and Weissenstein furthers their effort to keep the truth from being known about the disposition of the alleged missing $60,000.00 and/or the lack of proper record keeping under Rule 1.15(e) and 1.16(d) as defined by Rule 417 by Plaintiff Rakowsky.

Even when taken in the most favorable light to Weissenstein, Weissenstein failed to establish the validity of the representations she made to the Court by conducting a reasonable investigation as to whether there was, in fact, a dispute among the former clients as to the disposition of the residual litigation funds. A proper review of the records (Rule 417)²⁰ by Weissenstein would have revealed that all of the former clients of Plaintiff John Rakowsky in the Southern Holdings case had made it known there was no dispute as to the disposition of the litigation funds of $9,855.00. Without reviewing the records, Weissenstein and/or her firm filed the Interpleader action in South Carolina Federal District Court wrongfully including the $9,855.00 in 2008. Weissenstein's deliberately wrongful actions regarding the litigation funds are violations of Rule 11(a) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and the ex-parte attempt to interplead the undisputed $9,855.00 in litigation funds in South Carolina Federal District Court was a violation of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Weissenstein, to further her cause of keeping the litigation funds and the related financial records out of the hands of the "stigmatized defendants", also took the following unethical actions to further illegitimately tie up the $9,855.00²¹ of remaining litigation funds: (1) presented ex-parte evidence with Judge Lee and Judge Seals, respectively, the contents of which have been sealed by the Court and the contents of which are unknown to the "stigmatized defendants" to this date, (2) filed an ex-parte motion for a date certain containing untruthful claims about the "stigmatized defendants" delaying the case, (3) gave the "stigmatized defendants" notification of effectively less than three days, (including two weekend days), for a hearing set up by Weissenstein's wrongful filing of what is essentially an ex-parte motion for a date certain, (4) during the hearing on July 11, 2011, a hearing that resulted from the ex-parte filing for a date certain, Weissenstein wrongfully submitted ex-parte evidence to Judge Seals, resulting in Judge Seals ruling that an accounting of funds required to be given to clients and/or former clients under Rule 1.15 and/or Rule 1.16 of the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct and Rule 417 of the South Carolina Judicial Code was going to be denied to "the stigmatized defendants", (5) based on that unethically obtained ruling, Weissenstein unilaterally expanded the scope of Judge Seal's Order and refused to participate in any discovery of any nature with the "stigmatized defendants" despite multiple requests for production and interrogatories that had been submitted years prior to and after the July 11, 2011 hearing; (6) During the September 15, 2011 hearing, Weissenstein for the first time, produced a document she claimed was the only accounting of the litigation funds due to the "stigmatized defendants." This so called "accounting" had no supporting original documents and was at best inadequate by any accounting standard. Further, the total monetary figure that Weissenstein produced regarding the litigation funding Rakowsky received differed by approximately $60,000.00 from the total that one calculates when using independent third party records in the hands of the "stigmatized defendants."

Weissenstein claims she had assembled all the records required under Rule 1.15 and Rule 417 under the South Carolina Judicial Code. However, without citing any legal basis, Weissenstein claimed that such records were not required to be turned over to clients or former clients of an attorney. Weissenstein clearly did not research the law as required under Rule 11(a) and Weissenstein's lack of research has been repetitive over the years as evidenced by her continued presentation of legally unsupported positions. Weissenstein's legally unsupported refusal to produce the financial records including countless motions she signed denying access to the financial records over the years is, taken in the best light for Weissenstein, prima facie evidence of a lack of research of the applicable law, research which is required under Rule 11(a).

Subsequent to the September 15, 2011, hearing, Weissenstein refused to allow her client to answer interrogatories submitted by Pro Se Defendant Spencer, untruthfully claiming that Judge Barber had ruled against discovery in this Interpleader case. Additionally, Weissenstein untruthfully claimed that Judge Seals had ruled the information asked for in the interrogatories was confidential financial information. However, the interrogatory questions were reasonable and appropriate under Judge Seals's order since they on their face did not pertain to confidential financial information. In fact, the questions merely requested that Plaintiff Rakowsky divulge standard background, legal experience and other related factual information.

The Honorable Judge Barber's subsequent issuance of his Order clearly documenting that he did not rule against discovery in this case on September 15, 2011, was stridently ignored by Weissenstein as she, apparently unaffected by the Order, refused to amend her non-answers to the interrogatory questions based on her wrongfully invoking an Order Judge Barber never issued. Her only overt response to Judge Barber's Order was Weissenstein's cutting off all communications with Pro Se Defendant Spencer, claiming she would no longer dignify any of Spencer's contacts with a response which is clearly exhibited by Weissenstein's refusal to clarify her position to date as requested by Spencer on November 1, 2011. (See Exhibit "M".) The "stigmatized defendants" maintain that Weissenstein's unilateral cutting off of communications primarily reflects the notion that would be evident to the objective observer that Weissenstein is symbolically throwing her hands up and acknowledging that she is in a legally untenable situation that is of her own making.

Weissenstein unwittingly documented her own glaring violation of Rule 11(a) during the September 15, 2011 hearing. Weissenstein stated on the Court record she did not know that the ["stigmatized defendants"] (the only parties with claims on the $9,855.00) had all concurred that there was no dispute among them as to the disposition of the $9,855.00 and that the funds were to be sent to the trust account of attorney James Young. Weissenstein untruthfully stated on the Court record, *"This is the first we heard of it your honor."*²²

However, on October 20, 2008, the "stigmatized defendants" filed a document with the Court and with Weissenstein where the document had the exact same information Weissenstein claimed she never heard of, (See Exhibit "C"). Weissenstein also had no justifiable answer for interpleading the undisputed litigation funds of $9,855.00 during the ensuing motions hearing on the "stigmatized defendants" motion filed October 20, 2008. This hearing was attended both Plaintiff Rakowsky and Weissenstein.

Despite Weissenstein being present at the September 15, 2011 hearing, when all parties admitted on the Court record there was no dispute over the litigation funds, Weissenstein wrongfully continues to this date to refuse to release the $9,855.00. It has been over four years since the "stigmatized defendants" first requested the release of the remaining litigation funds from Plaintiff John Rakowsky (July 2007) and the former clients should have received the remaining litigation funds forthwith at that time. The requests and releases showing there was no dispute regarding the remaining litigation funds are the same information and releases that Ms. Weissenstein and Plaintiff

²² Transcript of September 15, 2011 hearing, Pg. 23, lines 11 and 12; (See Exhibit "I").

Rakowsky have refused to acknowledge numerous times both during and since July of 2007 even though her client has put on the Court record he has no objection to the return of the $9,855.00 of litigation funds. In 2008 Plaintiff Rakowsky contrived a conflict among his former clients for not releasing the remaining litigation funds and Weissenstein facilitated the contrivance by the aforementioned wrongful actions of twice interpleading the remaining litigation funds. However, Weissenstein's lies, or taken in the best light, her lack of reading the documentation clearly showing there was no dispute regarding the disposition of the $9,855.00 in remaining litigation funds finally, by Weissenstein's own admission on the Court record, caught up with her during the September 15, 2011 hearing when she stated, *"This is the first we heard of it your honor."*²³

Given the aforementioned actions by Weissenstein, the "stigmatized defendants" have been left with no choice but to file this Rule 11(a) motion for sanctions for the unethical acts, misuse of judicial process, knowingly filing untruthful pleadings and outright lying on the Court record by Weissenstein regarding the remaining litigation funds and the damages incurred by the "stigmatized defendants" in their attempts to regain possession of the ($9,855.00) in remaining undisputed litigation funds. The $9,855.00 should have immediately been turned over to the "stigmatized defendants" along with a proper accounting of the litigation funds (in accordance with Judicial Rule 417) when Plaintiff John Rakowsky unilaterally resigned from the Southern Holdings case in July 2007 under Rule 1.16(d) of the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct.

V. LEGAL BASIS FOR RULE 11(a) SANCTIONS

The Supreme Court of South Carolina has long established an attorney's responsibility to produce financial documents to a client and/or former client under Rule 1.15(d), in conjunction with Rule 417. In re Mayer, 391 S.C. 621, 625 (S.C. 2011), the Court found:

"...in a lawyer's possession in connection with a representation separate from the lawyer's own property; funds shall be kept in a separate account; complete records of such account funds and other property shall be kept by the lawyer and the lawyer shall comply with the financial recordkeeping requirements of Rule 417, SCACR); Rule 1.15(d) upon receiving funds or other property in which a client or third person has an interest, a lawyer shall promptly notify the client or third person, except as stated in Rule 1.15 or otherwise permitted by law or by agreement with the client, promptly deliver to the client or third person any funds or other property that the client or third person is entitled to receive and, upon request by the client or third person, promptly render a full accounting regarding such property);"

Weissenstein's wrongful refusal to participate in discovery by refusing to produce documents and answer interrogatories has prevented Plaintiff Rakowsky's former clients the ("stigmatized defendants") from obtaining information relevant to actions taken by their former counsels Plaintiff John Rakowsky and Defendant Adrian Falgione in the Southern Holdings case.

Weissenstein did not investigate the baseless claims by Plaintiff Rakowsky concerning there being a dispute over who deposited the litigation funds and a related dispute existing over who should receive the remaining $9,855.00 in litigation funds. Even a casual review by Weissenstein would have proven that the "stigmatized defendants" produced documents showing there were no conflicting claims on the $9,855.00 in litigation funds among the former clients. Furthermore, the fact that there were no conflicts over the $9,855.00 among the "stigmatized defendants", the only parties who could have legitimate claims on the litigation funds, was put on the Court record by all parties including Weissenstein's client, Plaintiff Rakowsky, making it clear Weissenstein that misused the judicial process by using the Interpleader lawsuits to wrongfully withhold the remaining undisputed litigation funds. This misuse of the Courts by Weissenstein must be addressed by Rule 11(a) Sanctions.

In Runyon v. Wright, 322 S.C. 15, 17-18 (S.C. 1996), the South Carolina Supreme Court heard the case of the judicial misuse of an Interpleader action, the South Carolina Supreme Court found:

"Under S.C. R. Civ. P. 11(a), a party and/or the party's attorney may be sanctioned for filing a frivolous pleading, motion, or other paper, or for making frivolous arguments. The party and/or attorney may also be sanctioned for filing a pleading, motion, or other paper in bad faith (i.e., to cause unnecessary delay) whether or not there is good ground to support it. The sanction may include an order to pay the reasonable costs and attorney's fees incurred by the party or parties defending against the frivolous action or action brought in bad faith, a reasonable fine to be paid to the court, or a directive of a nonmonetary nature designed to deter the party or the party's attorney from bringing any future frivolous action or action in bad faith. Further, if appropriate under the facts of the case, the court may order a party and/or the party's attorney to pay a reasonable monetary penalty to the party or parties defending against the frivolous action or action brought in bad faith. Rule 11(a)."

Runyon v. Wright, 322 S.C. 15 (S.C. 1996).

In viewing this matter in a light most favorable to Plaintiff's Counsel, Weissenstein neglected to review the relevant documents or research the applicable law and took unethical actions including, but not limited to, the submission of ex-parte evidence and knowingly both filing untruthful statements with the Court and also making untruthful statements on the Court record. This failure is particularly egregious given that the Pro Se "stigmatized defendants" are disabled and indigent. This misuse of the law and abuse of the legal process is at the very least unconscionable and is meant to harm the right of the "stigmatized defendants" to find out the truth regarding the actions of Plaintiff Rakowsky and Defendant Falgione, in the Southern Holdings case, including, but not limited to, what happened to the unaccounted for estimated $60,000.00 in litigation funds in that case. Weissenstein's interpleading of $9,855.00 that Plaintiff Rakowsky claims remains of the litigation funds is clearly an action a reasonable attorney would not have taken. The stated rationale of there being a dispute among the former clients for including the litigation funds in the Interpleader actions was and is baseless.

What is not baseless is the fact that Plaintiff Rakowsky and Weissenstein knew by their own statements on the Court record that they excluded the RSC funding of the Southern Holdings lawsuit in their accounting reconciliation. Plaintiff Rakowsky's and Weissenstein's refusal to provide what should have been benign accounting records as to the disposition of the litigation funds can only be motivated by the fact that they knew that the funds were either mishandled and/or misappropriated. At the very least there has been a misuse of the judicial process by Rakowsky and Weissenstein by their prevarication to the Court that all the companies that advanced funds were named, a lie they both maintained despite being presented with irrefutable evidence to the contrary, evidence consisting of an executed and notarized funding contract signed by Plaintiff Rakowsky with RSC and a check from RSC deposited in John Rakowsky's bank account endorsed by Plaintiff Rakowsky himself. (See Exhibits "D" and "E".)

On, September 15, 2011, Plaintiff Rakowsky stated on the Court record, *"So that's why we [Weissenstein and Rakowsky] named them all [the lending companies]. There were a couple of funding organizations that Mr. Spencer contacted that they paid money in to help fund the procedure of the case or the forwarding of the case."*²⁴ The only lending companies ever named in this Interpleader action by Weissenstein and Rakowsky were LawMax and Lit Funding. Nevertheless Weissenstein stated on the Court record on September 15, 2011, that the Rule 417 accounting requirements had been met. If that were true, the fact that Weissenstein had already been presented both the contract Rakowsky signed with RSC and also a copy of the check from RSC that Rakowsky deposited into his account, provides prima facie evidence that Weissenstein is arrogantly misusing the judicial process to either cover up the diversion of an estimated $60,000.00 of litigation funds for Rakowsky's personal use, and/or is misusing the judicial process to cover up the lack of required record keeping by John Rakowsky or some combination of both. Weissenstein's deliberately unethical actions and misuse of judicial process demonstrate that Weissenstein rightly or wrongly believes she is invulnerable to any repercussions by the Court in this case, emphasis added.

VI. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, DEFENDANTS humbly request that their Motion for Sanctions, Pursuant to Rule 11(a) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, be granted including (1) the return forthwith of $9,855.00 with interest compounded at the rate of 12.25%²⁵ annually from July 30, 2007 to November 30, 2011, for a total of $16,548.26 plus the additional compounded interest due at 12.25% until payment is made in the manner requested by the "stigmatized defendants" in Exhibit "A" above, (2) the repayment of Court costs including, but not limited to, depositions and filing fees of $1,200.00 paid in that same manner, (3) the repayment of the direct cost of legal research during this period incurred by the "stigmatized defendants" of $10,800.00 to be paid as requested by the "stigmatized defendants" in Exhibit "A" above, (4) striking with prejudice any and all of Plaintiffs' objections to the "stigmatized defendants" future discovery requests, regarding Plaintiff Rakowsky's Interpleader action captioned above and any such other actions the Court deems appropriate to deter such misuse of judicial process and the related unethical acts in the future.

Exhibit "A"RULE 417
FINANCIAL RECORDKEEPING

(a) A lawyer who practices in this state shall maintain current financial records as provided in this rule, and shall retain the following records for a period of six (6) years after termination of the representation:

(1) receipt and disbursement journals containing a record of deposits to and withdrawals from bank accounts which concern or affect the lawyer's practice of law, specifically identifying the date, source, and description of each item deposited, as well as the date, payee and purpose of each disbursement;

(2) ledger records for all trust accounts required by Rule 1.15 of the Rules of Professional Conduct, showing, for each separate trust client or beneficiary, the source of all funds deposited, the names of all persons for whom the funds are or were held, the amount of such funds, the descriptions and amounts of charges or withdrawals, and the names of all persons to whom such funds were disbursed;

(3) copies of retainer and compensation agreements with clients as required by Rule 1.5 of the Rules of Professional Conduct;

(4) copies of accountings to clients or third persons showing the disbursement of funds to them or on their behalf;

(5) copies of bills for legal fees and expenses rendered to clients;

(6) copies of records showing disbursements on behalf of clients;

(7) checkbook registers or check stubs, bank statements, records of deposit, and prenumbered canceled checks or their equivalent;

(8) copies of monthly reconciliations of the lawyer's trust accounts with the statements received from the financial institutions; and

(9) copies of those portions of clients' files that are reasonably necessary for a complete understanding of the financial transactions pertaining to them.

(b) With respect to trust accounts required by Rule 1.15 of the Rules of Professional Conduct:

(1) receipts shall be deposited intact and records of deposit should be sufficiently detailed to identify each item; and

(2) withdrawals shall be made only by check payable to a named payee and not to cash, or by authorized bank transfer.

(c) Records required by this rule may be maintained by electronic, photographic, computer or other media provided that they otherwise comply with this rule and provided further that printed copies can be produced. These records shall be located at the lawyer's principal office in the state or in a readily accessible location.

(d) Upon dissolution of any partnership or limited liability company of lawyers or of any legal professional corporation, the partners, members or shareholders shall make appropriate arrangements for the maintenance of the records specified in paragraph (a) of this rule.

(e) Upon the transfer or discontinuance of a law practice, the lawyer shall make appropriate arrangements for the maintenance of the records specified in paragraph (a) of this rule.

Dear John:

It has come to my attention that there are funds remaining that were advanced to you under my name. In that regard, please forward to me immediately the remaining funds at the above address. This should have been done the moment you no longer were looking after my interests in the lawsuit as at that point I represented my own interests. As you know, the monies were advanced to move forward my interests in the ongoing litigation or for my specific personal use as in the case of Resolution Settlement Corporation.

Additionally, I again request a specific accounting of all the funds that you received. You need not wait to forward the remaining funds to me for this accounting, but please follow up with the accounting as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

James Spencer

CERTAIN DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR COURT TO ORDER THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF "LITIGATION" FUNDS AS INSTRUCTED BY ALL
RAKOWSKY'S COMPLAINT FOR INTERPLEADER (2008-CP-40-6656)

NOW COME CERTAIN DEFENDANTS¹ and move the Court to Order
Plaintiff John Rakowsky to transfer the residual "litigation" funds into the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA, to be credited in the name of Irene Santacroce and

INTRODUCTION

1. Paragraph 13, found on page 3 of John Rakowsky's Complaint for Interpleader clearly identifies residual funds totaling nine-thousand- eight-hundred- fifty-five dollars ($9,855.00) were deposited by various Plaintiffs into Rakowsky's trust account for costs incurred in the Southern Holdings, et al. v Horry County, et al., case litigation (See attachment "A").
2. John Rakowsky has refused numerous requests to provide the signatory Defendants the remaining funds for ongoing litigation purposes in this matter.
3. John Rakowsky has refused numerous requests by the signatory Defendants to identify any conflicting claims to the remaining funds slated for litigation purposes.
4. John Rakowsky has identified individuals as his clients who were not listed as parties to the Southern Holdings, et al., v Horry County, et al., litigation, persons who include Linda Williamson Lawrence and Ernest Morton. John Rakowsky for the first time revealed in his Complaint for Interpleader that he represented the interests of Linda Williamson Lawrence and Ernest Morton in the Southern Holdings, et al., v Horry County, et al. case. Such representation, heretofore unknown by the Plaintiffs in the Southern Holdings, et al., v Horry County, et al., case created a clear conflict of interest with the parties John Rakowsky and Adrian Falgione openly represented in that Federal District Court case.

5. The parties John Rakowsky openly represented in Federal District Court are Southern Holdings, Inc., Rodney Lail, Irene Santacroce, Ricky Stephens, Marguerite Stephens, Doris Holt, James Spencer and Nicholas C. Williamson. (See caption attachment "B").
6. All Defendants associated with the remaining litigation funds as identified by John Rakowsky on page 3, paragraph 13 of the Rakowsky's Interpleader complaint, have executed this Motion to transfer the remaining litigation funds to a designated trust account and/or likewise have instructed John Rakowsky to do so in attached correspondence (See attachment "C").

DISCUSSION

There is no disagreement among the Defendants who have an interest in the "litigation funds" (Defendants identified by John Rakowsky in paragraph 13 of page 3 of John Rakowsky's Complaint for Interpleader) regarding their unanimous request to transfer the remaining litigation funds to the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA.. The multiple requests for the transfer of the litigation funds have been repeatedly ignored by John Rakowsky despite the fact John Rakowsky does not represent the interests of his former clients. All Defendants John Rakowsky openly represented who were parties to the case (See attachment "B") and which are identified in the caption of the case, have requested John Rakowsky to transfer remaining "litigation funds" to the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA, to be credited in the name of Irene Santacroce and James Spencer for use as directed by James Spencer. The check should be certified and it should immediately be mailed to the above named law firm to the attention of Ms. Patty Davis. The address of the firm is 1303 3rd Ave.

Conway, SC 29526.

CONCLUSION

All the contributors/claimants to the "litigation funds" identified by Plaintiff John Rakowsky in his Complaint for Interpleader are in unanimous agreement about the disposition of the "litigation funds" ($9,855.00) and how the use of the funds is to be directed. Therefore, the Defendants pray the Court Order such funds be immediately transferred to the trust account identified herein for the funds intended use as directed by James Spencer for matters concerning the Appellants and related to the ongoing lawsuit currently in the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

ATTACHMENT APAGE 1 OF 1

The federal court plaintiffs had numerous successive counsel, but the most recent counsel to represent them were defendant Falgione (hereafter "Falgione") and plaintiff Rakowsky.

12. Defendants Michael Steven Hartness, Harold Steven Hartness and Horry County, South Carolina were defendants in the federal court action, and collectively paid settlement funds to settle the federal court claim.

13. In connection with the litigation of the federal court action, one or more of the federal court plaintiffs advanced funds for costs to be incurred in the federal court litigation. The balance of these funds was eventually held by Rakowsky in trust. At the time of the events described herein, Rakowsky held in trust the sum of nine-thousand eight hundred and fifty-five dollars ($9,855.00) which had not been expended toward litigation costs.

14. In or about May 2007, the federal court plaintiffs authorized Rakowsky and Falgione to enter into a settlement in the federal court action which would provide, inter alia, for payment to them of a settlement in the amount of fifty five thousand dollars ($55,000.00). Rakowsky and Falgione communicated the acceptance of settlement to counsel for defendants in the federal court action. Defendants Michael Steven Hartness, Harold Steven Hartness and Horry County, South Carolina paid the sum of fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000.00) to the federal court plaintiffs to consummate the settlement.
15. Falgione and Rakowsky and are entitled to receive a portion of the funds in question as attorneys fees for their services in the federal court action. Defendant John R. Rakowsky, acting as legal counsel for the plaintiffs, now defendants

Re: Litigation Funds Remaining and accounting for expended funds.

Dear Mr. Rakowsky:

In regard to any and all remaining residual funding that you believe may have come from Southern Holdings, Inc., please consider this formal notice that any such funds are to be transferred to the trust account named below for the use of the Plaintiffs in the ongoing litigation as directed by James B. Spencer and Southern Holdings Corporate Secretary Irene Santacroce.

In that regard, as you have been previously and repeatedly requested to do, transfer the remaining litigation funds to the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA, to be credited in the name of Irene Santacroce and James Spencer. The check should be certified and it should immediately be mailed to the above named law firm to the attention of Patty. The address of the firm is 1303 3rd Ave. Conway, SC 29526.

If you believe that I personally contributed any funds as a Plaintiff that are part of the residual litigation funds, then please consider my authorization and request to immediately transfer the remaining litigation funds to the trust fund of Singleton, Burroughs and Young, PA to be credited in the name of Irene Santacroce and James Spencer. The check should be certified and it should immediately be mailed to the above named law firm to the attention of Patty. The address of the firm is 1303 3rd Ave. Conway, SC 29526.

If you have any questions please call me directly. Thanks you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Nicholas C. Williamson, PhD
Personally and as President of

AND SECURITY AGREEMENT

THIS TRANSFER AND CONVEYANCE OF PROCEEDS AND SECURITY AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made this 5th day of June, 2005, by and between RESOLUTION SETTLEMENT CORPORATION ("Transferee"), a Nevada Corporation, and SOUTHERN HOLDINGS; JAMES SPENCER ET AL ("Transferor"), whose address is: C/O John Rakowsky Esq. Attorney of Record; PO Box 3593 West Columbia, SC 29171 Tel: 803 331-2788.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Transferor has a claim against and/or is a plaintiff in an action or suit (whether a claim, action or suit, the "Litigation") now pending before the United States District Court; district of South Carolina (Civil Action 4 02 1859 12; (the "Defendant"), whose various insurance carriers are defending such Litigation, arising out of an act of negligence, accident or other incident occurring on or about June 1, 2000 in which the Defendants damaged the Transferor with false arrest, personal injury and other torts. A brief description of the Litigation is attached and identified as Schedule C.

WHEREAS, Transferor does not have sufficient funds to proceed with the Litigation, has no asset against which to borrow, and has sought funds from other sources but has been unable to find any.

WHEREAS, an undetermined amount of time will be required for Transferor to seek compensation from the Defendant(s) through continued legal action and/or negotiations to otherwise persuade or prevail upon the Defendant(s) to pay the Transferor an amount appropriate and necessary to compensate Transferor for the injuries incurred and/or damages suffered; and

WHEREAS, in order to afford Transferor sufficient funds to proceed with the Litigation, Transferee has agreed to accept certain proceeds which may arise from settlement or verdict resulting from the Litigation.

WHEREAS, Transferor desires to pursue the Litigation to such time that a fair and favorable settlement or judgment can be obtained.

WHEREAS, Transferee has made its own determination to make this advance and has not relied on any advice from Transferor's counsel regarding the merits, value, risk, or legitimacy of the Litigation.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00), cash in hand paid, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Transferee and Transferor do hereby agree as follows:

Transferor's Initials hl

1. Transferor unconditionally and irrevocably transfers and conveys to Transferee all of Transferor's control, A RIGHT OF PROCEEDS which includes the right, title and interest in the first TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($25,000.00) paid to Transferor from the Proceeds, as hereinafter defined, or other recovery derived from the Litigation. Said amount shall, by agreement, increase by FOUR THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED ($4,500.00) PER MONTH beginning on the first day of the month following the date of execution of this agreement, pursuant to the schedule attached hereto as Schedule A. The first month's interest will accrue upon signing this agreement for purposes of an early settlement payment, however the second month will begin on August 1, 2005 and increase as stated the first of each month thereafter. For purposes of this Agreement, "Proceeds" shall be defined as the gross amount of the recovery from the Litigation, less Transferor's attorney's fees of approx. 40 % of any recovery, the actual costs of the Litigation advanced by Transferor's legal counsel on Transferor's behalf, and any other prior superior assignments, liens, encumbrances or security interests of any kind or nature in or relating to the Proceeds as provided for in Schedule B hereto, if any.
2. Transferor hereby grants to Transferee a security interest in the Proceeds of the Litigation in the sum of TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($25,000.00) plus any and all increases pursuant to Schedule A hereto, in order to secure the conveyance, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
3. This agreement is expressly intended to transfer, convey and relinquish control over only a specified portion of the Proceeds that may flow from, and as a result of the Litigation referred to above. This agreement is not an assignment, nor a purchase of any right, chose in action, cause of action, or claim which Transferor may have or possess as against any responsible party, respondent or defendant referred to herein. Transferee contemplates no control, input, influence, right or involvement of any kind regarding any claim, right, or interest of Transferor in the Litigation.
4. This agreement, and the obligation to pay over the Proceeds specified herein is totally contingent, speculative and without recourse on the part of Transferee, except for the security interest in the Litigation, and any successor claim(s) and/or litigation(s) arising out of the same facts, or arising out of the conduct of the Litigation. If there is no recovery of Proceeds by Transferor as specified herein, then Transferee shall receive NOTHING.
5. Transferor hereby authorizes Transferee to send to the applicable insurance company a "Notice of Lien", so that Transferor may perfect its Lien against the subject claim. (An example is attached hereto as Schedule "B"). Transferor represents that the applicable insurance company(ies) is (are) as follows:
6. Transferor shall, and does hereby require and direct his/her attorney(s) to execute this Agreement. By execution hereof, Transferor's attorney(s) acknowledges receipt of, and actual notice of this Agreement and agrees to disburse the Proceeds as set forth herein above.

7. All parties to this agreement acknowledge that by execution hereof, Transferor's attorney is solely and merely following Transferor's instructions. Transferor's attorney is making neither representation nor guarantee, inferred, expressed or implied; concerning either merits or value of the claim(s) or litigation matter(s) referred to herein to ANY PARTY. Further, all parties to this agreement acknowledge that Transferor's attorney assumes no affirmative duties herein other than the ministerial obligations of disbursement, and conveying information contained herein.
8. If Transferor changes his/her attorney(s) after signing this Agreement, Transferor and Transferor's attorney each shall give immediate written notice, by certified mail return receipt requested, to Transferee at 9360 W. Flamingo Rd. Suite 110-527, Las Vegas, NV 89147, of the identity, address and phone numbers of Transferor's new attorney(s). Transferor further agrees to require and to direct any new attorney(s) to execute and acknowledge this Agreement.
9. Transferor hereby authorizes his attorney(s) to release to Transferee any information, files, records, documents regarding the Litigation requested by Transferee, who agrees to treat such information as privileged and who shall receive and review these materials solely in the limited capacity necessary for this Agreement.
10. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and there are no representations, warranties, covenants or obligations except as set forth herein. This Agreement supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, written or oral, of the parties hereto, relating to any transaction contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding on, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their successors and assigns. In the event any one or more of the covenants, terms and conditions of this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, liability or enforceability of any other covenant, term or condition in this Agreement.
11. Transferor represents and warrants unto Transferee that as of the date of this Agreement that (a) Transferor believes the Litigation to be meritorious and filed in good faith; (b) Transferor has complete right, title and interest in and to the Litigation and full power and authority to make and execute this Agreement; (c) Transferor has not and will not assign or encumber the Proceeds from the Litigation, except as otherwise provided herein; and (d) there is no other assignment, lien, encumbrance or security interest of any kind or nature in or relating to the Proceeds other than is provided for in Schedule B hereto, if any.
12. Transferor intends this agreement to be fully valid and binding as to and upon all heirs, trustees, executors, or any other successor-in-interest who may obtain or assert control over the Litigation by reason of Transferor's death, disability, or decline in health such that someone other than Transferor is, or becomes entitled to make decisions concerning the disposition of the Litigation, or any of the proceeds thereof. Further, by executing this agreement, Transferor intends to exercise any Power of Appointment with which Transferor is empowered to the extent necessary to complete the Transfer that is the subject of this agreement.
13. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Nevada and venue for any dispute arising hereunder (including any interpleader action) shall lie in the 8th Judicial District Court for Clark County, Nevada. Transferor agrees that any and all Federal lawsuits related to or arising from this agreement shall be filed and maintained in the Federal Courthouse located in Las Vegas, Nevada. Transferor understands that the "choice of laws", "forum", and "venue" clauses contained herein are critical in nature, and are essential to this Contract, and that they have not been placed in this contract as mere "form" insertions and recitals.

14. If a dispute between the parties to this Agreement arises, the parties agree and acknowledge that all funds in dispute shall be interpleaded into the Nevada courts until such time said dispute is resolved.
15. Transferor has been advised to have not only his/her counsel, but also outside counsel, review this agreement prior to Transferor's signing it.
16. Transferor has been advised that Transferee is a provider of funds of last resort and that other sources may have more favorable rates and payment schedules.
17. Transferee has answered all of Transferor's questions.
18. Transferor acknowledges that Transferee will, in the event that Transferor should make a recovery, make a substantial profit from this advance.
19. Transferee acknowledges that this contract has been drafted by both Transferor and Transferee, and is made a part of this entire transaction.
20. Transferor understands that the attached Schedule A, Schedule B, Schedule C, Schedule D, and Schedule E are each hereby made a part of this agreement.
21. Transferor acknowledges that the Transferee advised Transferor to take no fewer than three (3) days to consider the terms contained in this agreement before signing it. Transferor acknowledges that he/she signed this agreement after taking 5 days to consider the terms contained herein.

SCHEDULE C

Litigation Description

A brief description of the Litigation follows:

- After years of delays by the defendants, the case pending in SC Federal District Court is locked in to be heard this July 18, 2000.
- There are five Plaintiff attorneys on a contingency basis on the case.
- This medical costs due to traumatic injuries to dates are in excess of $120,000, and there are huge increasing lifetime health complications from the personal injuries.
- I lost a valuable long-term employment contract valued in excess of $300,000 annually due to the malicious actions of the defendants. Please note the attached economic expert's report concerning damages and links below to the experts' credentials.
- The defendants have deep pockets and are able to pay the damages. The case involves individuals being paid off to forge a Judge's signature on arrest papers in addition to the pay off of individuals to make entries on the NCIC system for what has been determined by two individual Judges in two State Courts to be unfounded, convicted and baseless charges. The two hearings that lasted a combined total of less than fifteen minutes.
- The defendants were captured on videotape torturing me after a Fifteenth Circuit Court Judge had issued an Order a month concerning the baseless charges. The perpetrators knew about and deliberately ignored the Judge's Order as validated by conclusive police audiotape evidence. Please note attached overview to this email concerning the case.

In summation, please remember we have two Judges who made decisions in our favor including a decision that there was no probable cause to stop and arrest me for any reason on August 8, 2000. There is not even a dispute over the forged Judge's signature that initiated the phony warrant and the impossibility of the charges that has been acknowledged by the defendants.

Therefore, the case is going to center on damages and the defendants missed the deadline for naming experts. The defendants will have no chance for that based on their inaction while we have been able to secure a team of the most credible experts available with both outstanding credentials and reputations for honesty.

Re: Case Number 2008-CP-4006656
John R. Rakowsky vs. Southern Holdings, Inc., et al

Dear Judge Lee:

It is my understanding a hearing was held regarding funds that should have included funds advanced for litigation expense in 2005, to John Rakowsky and Adrian Falgione. Both Rakowsky and Falgione flew to Nevada and met with me, regarding the advance of funds to the case involving James Spencer.

I am now aware despite my repeated notice to John Rakowsky and despite his agreement as evidenced in a certified written agreement, that he has not named RSC nor myself as Defendants. The monies were advanced to be used by Plaintiffs for expenses approved by James Spencer. I have not received an accounting for such funds that were provided to Rakowsky after he had claimed he had exhausted the fund provided by the two other companies Rakowsky named as defendants in the Interpleader action, Law Max Legal Finance and Litfunding, USA.

Litfunding was also located in Las Vegas, Nevada. It is my understanding based on personal knowledge that John Rakowsky also personally obtained funding for the litigation. I have personally requested John Rakowsky for an accounting of the funds he now denies knowledge of yet were deposited into his account. I felt it necessary to inform the Court of the lack of standing and notice by Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel. If I had been notified I would have been present at trial as it is also my personal knowledge that the case related expenses were paid for years ago. Additionally, I am fully aware that Rakowsky is withholding litigation funds advanced to James Spencer to assist in litigation in these matters and withholding such funds prevents Spencer from funding expenses necessary for expenses and advice from counsel.

I am submitting this ex-parte communication as a third party as I was not given standing in the case due to deliberate action by Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel.

I affirm under oath that the above statements are based on my personal knowledge and are true. I submit this certified statement after being notified that a hearing was held on a matter that I understood is currently being litigated in the 4th Circuit Court of appeals. Defendants with standing notified me that a hearing in fact took place and it took place with our deliberate exclusion. The bottom line is we advanced money that has now disappeared and as such never reached the intended goal of assisting in the ongoing litigation.

I will be happy to answer any questions the Court may have under oath at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Bruce Benson

Re: John Rakowsky vs. Adriann Falgione, et al.
Case No: 2008-CP-40-6656

of trial

Dear Judge Lee:

Although date-certain scheduling is not the common or preferred method in South Carolina, I hereby request that in this circumstance, you please consider issuing such a scheduling order.

On behalf of the Plaintiff, attorney John Rakowsky, we filed the original complaint seeking to interplead funds on September 12, 2008 and served it on the Defendants. On October 20, 2008, some of the Defendants filed a motion demanding the immediate release of the funds. An Amended Complaint was filed on November 17, 2008, and this matter was called for hearing on January 19, 2010. The Court received notice from several individuals that additional claims would be made against the disputed funds, so the Court issued its judgment on May 21, 2010, denying Defendants' motion to release funds and requesting that the new parties be added to the action as defendants.

Plaintiff filed a motion pursuant to Rule 15, SCRPC, requesting an order permitting him to join new parties whose existence and involvement have been revealed through this matter and to delete claims against those who were not proper parties or who are no longer involved in the matter. Present at the hearing on Plaintiff's motion were the undersigned, Defendant Adrian L. Falgione, and counsel for Defendant Horry County. I affirmed that notice of the motion and hearing were served upon all defendants, pursuant to Rule 5, SCRPC, but none had appeared.

The case was placed on the roster for August 9, 2010, but the hearing could not be scheduled until November 1, 2010. As a result, a Second Amended Summons and Complaint were filed and served. The amended complaint included defendant John Doe, who was served by publication pursuant to South Carolina Code § 15-67-40 (1976, as amended).

The case was called again for trial and the undersigned appeared at the roster meeting on May 11, 2011. Defendant Spencer announced to the Court that due to the last minute nature of the pending trial, some of the defendants would not be available to attend and he requested a continuance.

Your Honor, this case has been pending since 2008, and we feel the substantive issues are relatively simple: there is money held in trust and multiple parties claim to be owed a portion or all of it. Because this case has many pro se defendants who are antagonistic to plaintiff, the case continues to be delayed. We believe that a Date Certain Trial will give to all the parties enough notice that further delays and continuances will not be allowed, and this matter can finally be resolved. I consulted with counsel for Horry County and with Defendant Adrian Falgione, Esquire, regarding this request and they consent.

Please call me if you have any questions regarding this request for scheduling. Thank you for your consideration.

With warm personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Stephanie Weissenstein

DECLARATION OF MARGUERITE SANTACROCE

I, Marguerite Stephens, declare under penalty of perjury:

1. I am over eighteen years old and am qualified to testify.
2. The information in this declaration is based on my personal knowledge.
3. I never received answers to questions (interrogatories) I submitted to John Rakowsky through his attorney in the matter captioned 2008CP4006656, John R. Rakowsky vs. Adrian Falgione, et al.
4. These questions were submitted after the second amended complaint by Rakowsky was issued (July, 2010) as his complaint was adjusted based upon responses to each issuance of the previous versions of the complaint.
5. I never received an answer to the interrogatory questions I submitted in August 2010.
6. I never received accounting of the funds received by Rakowsky despite multiple requests of production submitted.
7. I understand that there was to be a motions hearing on obtaining the information we have been seeking as required to be provided by John Rakowsky under Rule 1.15 of South Rules of Legal Ethics.
8. I did not receive word of the docketing hearing held today July 11, 2011, until Friday July 8, 2011 when Irene Santacroce called me about a letter she just received from Desa Ballard.
9. I never received any correspondence from Desa Ballard to date on this hearing.
10. I knew nothing about the motion for a request for a date certain that was submitted to the Court until I talked to Irene Santacroce on July 8, 2011.
11. My father just passed away on May 14, 2011, as he was fighting cancer. I have been taking turns with my sister Irene Santacroce (another defendant in this matter) taking care of my 90 year old mother who is also fighting cancer and dealing with the death of my father. As such without proper notice I could not attend today's docket hearing.

12. I respectfully ask the Court to compel discovery to proceed in this matter by compelling production and having Rakowsky answer the interpleader questions previously submitted and compel Desa Ballard to give proper notice and work out details regarding motions for hearings to me as a Pro Se litigant.

Affiant further sayeth naught.

I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR AND AFFIRM UNDER THE PENALTIES OF PERJURY THAT THE ABOVE FOREGOING STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT TO THE BEST OF MY PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.

1 THE COURT: Which is 9,000-some-odd dollars.

2 MR. RAKOWSKY: Our understanding was the agency that 3 actually paid in.

4 THE COURT: He just said --

5 MR. RAKOWSKY: Nobody's ever notified
6 Ms. Weissenstein --

7 THE COURT: Whoa! He just said the only people
8 claiming any of that have all agreed that those funds
9 should be paid into some lawyer's trust account.

10 ~~MR. RAKOWSKY: We wouldn't object to that.~~

11 THE COURT: Unfortunately, you got an interpleader
12 action. So what's probably going to have to happen is get 13 that, funds paid into the Court and then you get this 14 thing heard. If everybody is agreeable that the $9,000
15 ought to be paid to Mr. Young, then it will be paid to 16 Mr. Young.

17 MR. SPENCER: We haven't been delaying putting this 18 into --

19 THE COURT: I'm not blaming anybody. I'm just telling 20 you, this case was filed, when was it, 2008?

21 MR. SPENCER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: That's too long for everybody.

23 MR. SPENCER: Right. I agree. Mr. Rakowsky just 24 made an offer that he will gladly submit the funds that 25 aren't in dispute.

1 THE COURT: He can't. He's got an interpleader
2 action now of which those are funds that are pled in the
3 interpleader.

4 MR. SPENCER: Okay.

5 THE COURT: So you better get a hearing and get it
6 resolved quickly. It sounds to me like y'all are fighting
7 each other over something that you shouldn't be fighting
8 at this stage. Pay the $9,000 to Mr. Young. Put the 9 $55,000 in the Court. Then I don't know what you're going

10 to have -- if y'all people dispute how the $9,000 should 11 be divided up.

12 MR. SPENCER: No dispute.

13 THE COURT: Well then get it paid to whoever you
14 agree should get it. He doesn't care. Then the $55,000
15 would be in the Court which is good. It's going to draw
16 some interest. It's good as being in a trust account
17 better, because if the lawyer absconds with the money
18 you'll have to go find her. If the County absconds with 19 it, you know where we are. So, draw me an order. I'm 20 denying this order -- I mean, this motion. I don't have 21 the authority to go behind Judge Seals' order. Judge 22 Seals' already determined that they're not entitled to 23 that information. What else?

24 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: Your Honor, would you like to make 25 an order that the funds that could be inter pleaded into

1 the Court today?

2 THE COURT: Well, I can't do that. Nobody's been
3 given notice of the hearing for that purpose. I can't do
4 that. Seems to me if y'all can agree on that --

5 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: Your Honor, we have no pending --

6 THE COURT: If everybody can agree on it, let's take 7 the $65,000 and pay it into the Court and acknowledge that

8 the only people that are entitled to the $9,800 or so are 9 these folks. Y'all agree that it would be paid to 10 Mr. Young. I don't know why y'all would care about that.

11 ~~MS. WEISSENSTEIN: This is the first we've heard of~~

12 ~~Mr. Young.~~

13 THE COURT: And then sign a consent order paying that 14 out.

15 MR. SPENCER: Your Honor --

16 THE COURT: Look, I don't care.

17 MR. SPENCER: Yeah.

18 THE COURT: But I do care about this. Come January 1
19 when I'm in charge of this roster, this case ain't going 20 to stay here very long. It's an '08 case.

21 MR. SPENCER: Sounds good to me.

22 THE COURT: But y'all ought to be able to resolve it

24 MR. SPENCER: I agree.

25 THE COURT: Sounds to me like you agree on it. You

TO IRENE SANTACROCE. PRO SE:

Pursuant to Rules 33 and 34. SCRPC. Plaintiff, through his counsel, answers Defendant Irene Santacroce's First Set of Interrogatories as follows, reserving the right to amend and/or supplement these responses:

GENERAL RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS

1. Plaintiff objects to each Request to the extent that it seeks information and documents that are protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work product rule, and any other applicable privilege law or rule.
2. Plaintiff objects to each Request to the extent that it seeks information for an unspecified time period. Such Requests are overly broad in time and scope and seek information that is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence and would be unduly burdensome to respond to such request.
3. Plaintiff objects to each Request to the extent it seeks to require answers, information, identification of documents or persons or things, or to impose any obligations beyond what is permitted by the applicable South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure or which are not relevant to this matter.

4. Plaintiff objects to each Request to the extent that it seeks disclosure of information, documents, things, facts, opinions, or any other matter prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial which is outside the scope of discovery permitted by Rule 26(b)(3) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.
5. Plaintiff incorporates his General Objections by reference as though fully set forth into its specific response to each and every Request served by Defendant Spencer.
6. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement their responses to Defendant's discovery requests as additional information or documents become known.

RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES

1. Within thirty-three days after service hereof, you are requested to produce in writing under oath to defendant at Suite 183, 7001 Saint Andrews Road, Columbia, SC 29212, listing what cases: Prior to undertaking Defendant Spencer's case captions Southern Holdings, Inc., et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 20-CV-01859-RBH, any and all cases, bit it civil or criminal, Plaintiff litigated in any United States Federal District Court and/or in any United States Federal Appellate Court. List each such case by name, date, citation and caption so that Defendant and/or any third party could easily locate documentation on such case.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory on the basis that the information sought is irrelevant and not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the basis that Judge Seals quashed the subpoena issued by Defendant Spencer which requested substantially similar information and pursuant to the oral ruling of Judge Barber that such discovery is not appropriate in this action.

2. Within thirty-three days after service hereof, you are requested to produce in writing under oath the answer to defendant at Suite 183, 7001 Saint Andrews Road, Columbia, SC 29212, to the following question: What has Plaintiff refused to list Resolution Settlement Corporation as a defendant in Case No. 2008-CP-40-6636 with a claim on the $55,000 of the "pseudo" settlement funds?

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory on the basis that the information sought is irrelevant and not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the basis that Judge Seals quashed the subpoena issued by Defendant Spencer which requested substantially similar information and pursuant to the oral ruling of Judge Barber that such discovery is not appropriate in this action.

3. Within thirty-three days after service hereof, you are requested to produce in writing under oath the answer to defendant at Suite 183, 7001 Saint Andrews Road, Columbia, SC 29212, to the following question: Did you provide your personal ECF pass code(s) to Defendant so Defendant could enter motions and answer to motions into the South Carolina Federal District Court's Electronic filing system?

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory on the basis that the information sought is irrelevant and not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the basis that Judge Seals quashed the subpoena issued by Defendant Spencer which requested substantially similar information and pursuant to the oral ruling of Judge Barber that such discovery is not appropriate in this action.

4. Within thirty-three days after service hereof, you are requested to produce in writing under oath the answer to defendant at Suite 183, 7001 Saint Andrews Road, Columbia, SC 29212, to the following question: Why did Plaintiff object to Dan Ivey, Esquire joining the legal team in the case captioned Southern Holdings, Inc. (sic), et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 02-CV-01859-RBH?

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory on the basis that the information sought is irrelevant and not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the basis that Judge Seals quashed the subpoena issued by Defendant

Spencer which requested substantially similar information and pursuant to the oral ruling of Judge Barber that such discovery is not appropriate in this action.

5. Within thirty-three days after service hereof, you are requested to produce in writing under oath the answer to defendant at Suite 183, 7001 Saint Andrews Road, Columbia, SC 29212, to the following question(s): Has the Plaintiff ever been sued by Resolution Settlement Corporation ("RSC"), Lit Funding and/or LawMax and /or an agent for any of the above companies regarding the funding of the case captioned Southern Holdings, In. (sic), et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 02-CV-01859-RBH? Which entity sued Plaintiff? What are the dates of litigation? What was the resolution and the date of resolution of the proceeding? What documents does the Plaintiff have access to regarding such litigation and what is the identity of anyone the Plaintiff knows that has documents regarding any such litigation? Will Plaintiff provide all such documents to Defendant and if not on what legal basis would you not provide such documents?

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory on the basis that the information sought is irrelevant and not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the basis that Judge Seals quashed the subpoena issued by Defendant Spencer which requested substantially similar information and pursuant to the oral ruling of Judge Barber that such discovery is not appropriate in this action.

6. Within thirty-three days after service hereof, you are requested to produce in writing under oath the answer to defendant at Suite 183, 7001 Saint Andrews Road, Columbia, SC 29212, to the following question(s): did Plaintiff purchase an electronic copier combination fax, etc., with the money advanced by Defendant or on behalf of the Defendant or Defendants in the case captioned Southern Holdings, In. (sic), et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 02-CV-01859-RBH? If such a purchase was made, what was the amount of the money so expended on the purchase?

Vegas, Nevada to select and attorney or attorneys to be on Plaintiff's legal team in the case of Southern Holdings, Inc. et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 02-CV-01859-RBH, while in Las Vegas, Nevada?

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory on the basis that the information sought is irrelevant and not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the basis that Judge Seals quashed the subpoena issued by Defendant Spencer which requested substantially similar information and pursuant to the oral ruling of Judge Barber that such discovery is not appropriate in this action.

10. Within thirty-three days after service hereof, you are requested to produce in writing under oath the answer to defendant at Suite 183, 7001 Saint Andrews Road, Columbia, SC 29212, to the following question: Did Plaintiff interview Ron Serota, Esquire to join Plaintiff's Legal team in the case of Southern Holdings, Inc. et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 02-CV-01859-RBH, while in Las Vegas, Nevada?

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory on the basis that the information sought is irrelevant and not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the basis that Judge Seals quashed the subpoena issued by Defendant Spencer which requested substantially similar information and pursuant to the oral ruling of Judge Barber that such discovery is not appropriate in this action.

11. Within thirty-three days after service hereof, you are requested to produce in writing under oath the answer to defendant at Suite 183, 7001 Saint Andrews Road, Columbia, SC 29212, to the following question: Did Plaintiff meet with Mr. Gene Waas, Esquire in Las Vegas, Nevada? Did Mr. Gene Waas do legal research on the case of Southern Holdings, Inc. et al. vs. Horry County, et al. Case No: 02-CV-01859-RBH for the Plaintiff?

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this interrogatory on the basis that the information sought is irrelevant and not likely to lead to admissible evidence. Dear Ms. Santacroce:

This is to inform you and the other defendants in receipt of our correspondence with discovery responses the style of the case on the response is incorrect. The responses should have been titled "Plaintiff's Response to Defendant James Spencer's Re-Request and Supplement of First Set of Interrogatories." Please replace the first page of the responses with the page I have enclosed for that purpose. The responses to your discovery request will be forthcoming.

FIFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
CASE NO.: 2008-CP-40-6656

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO COMPEL,
SUBSTITUTING PARTIES,
RELEASE OF LITIGATION
FUNDS, AND AMENDING

FILED
RICHLAND COUNTY

This matter came before me on September 15, 2011, for hearing on Defendant James Spencer's "EXPEDITED MOTION TO COMPEL DEFENDANTS REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND REQUEST TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF TO ANSWER DEFENDANTS FIRST ROUND OF INTEROGATORIES AND REQUEST FOR A JURY TRIAL ON ALL MATTERS RELATED TO 2008-CP-40-6656". Present were the Plaintiff and his Counsel, Stephanie Weissenstein, Defendant, Adrian Falgione, pro se, and Defendants James Spencer and Rodney Lail, who are pro se.

This case was before the Honorable William H. Seals, Jr. for a hearing on July 11, 2011, for a hearing on several motions, including Plaintiff's motion to quash a subpoena issued against him at the behest of Defendant James Spencer. The subpoena which was the subject of that hearing and the requests for production which Mr. Spencer seeks to compel includes several of the same documents.

Exhibit "K"

There is a long-standing rule in this State that one judge of the same court cannot overrule another. Tisdale v. Amer. Life Ins. Co., 216 S.C. 10, 56 S.E.2d 580 (1950); Dinkins v. Robbins, 203 S.C. 199, 26 S.E.2d 689 (1943). Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT Mr. Spencer's motion to compel the production of documents included in the subpoena is Denied¹.

The Court understands that Defendant Doris Holt is now deceased. Plaintiff Rakowsky, Defendant Falgione, Defendant Spencer and Defendant Lail consent to Doris Holt's estate being substituted as the real party at interest. The substitution of the estate is Granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

1. Are you telling me that you require a Court Order to release the $9,855.00 of uncontested funds and unless there is a Court Order you are still going to hold on to the $9,855.00 in uncontested funds under Rule 22?
2. Are you telling me that Judge Barber confirming that he never issued an Order against discovery in this case matters not to you and you are going to stand by your position of not providing the answers to the interrogatories despite Judge Barber's Order which clearly documents he did not rule against discovery?

Please confirm, so I know exactly what your position is!!!

Dear Ms. Weissenstein:

12/19/2011

I just received Judge Barber's Order dated October 18, 2011, entitled "Order Denying Motion to Compel, Substitution of Parties, Release of Litigation Funds, and Amending Complaint Accordingly." In consideration of this Order applying to production of documents, please now fully answer the interrogatories previously submitted to you by me as your stated rationale for refusing to answer now clearly has no legitimate basis. The interrogatory questions are very basic, non-confidential and material in nature. Please submit the answers by noon Friday or I will be forced to seek a motion to compel and sanctions for your blatant refusal to cooperate in discovery in any manner.

On another matter, please indicate when you will have a check prepared in the amount of $9,855.00 as all parties in this action are on the Court record that the money is not in dispute. In that regard, if you continue misuse Rule 22 of the SCRCP to retain the funds you are misusing the Court system and in so doing violating Rule 1.15 of the South Carolina Rules of Professional ethics.

Please have the check for $9,855.00 ready to be picked up by noon on Friday. If you do not plan to comply with turning over the funds by noon on Friday, please so indicate by Wednesday at 6:00 p.m., so I can pursue legal remedies to obtain your compliance with the law.

Thank you very much,

1 $67,000, I believe.

2 THE COURT: Wait. Hang on a minute. (Pause.) And 3 tell me what it is you want.

4 MR. SPENCER: An accounting of what was done with 5 over $100,000 that Mr. Rakowsky received in 6 accordance with Rule 417.

7 THE COURT: He shows $67,500.

8 MR. SPENCER: I just received that this morning and I
9 understand that. It -- we're saying that that number is 10 not correct. We want the records that are due us. That's 11 not the --

12 THE COURT: Are they any kind of a defendant? This 13 is just a straight interpleader action?

14 MS. WEISSENSTEIN: Your Honor, the account records as

16 However, there's absolutely nothing in either one of those 17 rules that requires a lawyer to turn over his bank records
18 to his client. The rule merely requires that an 19 accounting of all expenses be provided to the client.
20 This has been provided to Mr. Spencer during the 21 representation of him. It's been provided to other 22 parties and, again, we provided it again today.

23 We cannot perceive how there's any dispute or 24 question of fact or why that would even be relevant at 25 this juncture. We have the money. We want to inter plead

1 that's were lending institutions that paid funds into the 2 case prior to the settlement. And our position was that 3 they might or might not have a claim. So that's why we 4 named them all.

5 THE COURT: Who was that now?

6 MR. RAKOWSKY: There were a couple funding
7 organizations that Mr. Spencer contacted that they paid
8 money in advance of the trial to help fund the procedure

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. RAKOWSKY: And they're all named in that action, 12 that's right.

13 THE COURT: Here's the deal. I'm going to deny the 14 motion to compel. I can't go behind Judge Seals' order.
15 He's already determined that you're not entitled to this 16 information. I don't have the authority to overturn -- 17 one Circuit Judge can't go and say another Circuit Judge 18 was wrong. I'd spent my whole life doing that because if 19 they disagree with me, they're wrong.

20 MR. SPENCER: Okay.

21 THE COURT: So I don't have the authority to do that.
22 I don't know what you all have that might satisfy these 23 people, but you might sit down and try to see if there's 24 some verification that, I don't know, where is that, that 25 you spent $175, $170 with the Court of Appeals. So I

Regarding the above referenced case, since there is currently a pending motion in federal court as to the validity of the settlement in the original lawsuit, Judge Early will hold this case in abeyance until there has been a ruling on the federal court motion. Judge Early will, however, conduct a hearing to return litigation funds on Monday, April 28th at 1:30 in Bamberg. Please confirm that you will be able to attend the hearing.

Judge Early will require that affidavits and evidence of all monies paid to Plaintiff's counsel in the original lawsuit for litigation expenses be provided to the Court no later than 10 days prior to hearing. Furthermore, affidavits and evidence of expenditures from the litigation funds are required to be provided to the Court no later than 10 days prior to hearing.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Dear Judge Early and Ms. Weatherbee, Esq.:

I have received an email stating that Ms. Weissenstein, Esq. will be appearing for Mr. Rakowsky, Esq. I find this unacceptable as I have subpoenaed Mr. Rakowsky, and Mr. Falgione and the production of the settlement agreement from the Southern Holdings case as required under Rule 407 1.8(g). Furthermore, if Ms. Weissenstein is representing Mr. Rakowsky at tomorrow's hearing, this is a contested issue, and a violation of Rule 407 3.7(a)(1). If Mr. Rakowski is truly unable to attend the hearing and honor his subpoena, then I ask that his Honor, Judge Early, delay the hearing. I presently have a call into both Ms. Ballard and Ms. Weissenstein, but both are unavailable.

Sincerely,
Michael G. Sribnick

Defendants.)

Personally appeared before me, Mara T. Ballard, who being duly sworn, deposes and says that:

1. I am over the age of eighteen years and am competent to state the matters which are set forth herein. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein, except as to those matters stated on information and belief, and as to those, I have a good faith belief regarding the accuracy thereof.
2. I am a Certified Fraud Examiner, Forensic Accountant and Certified Management Accountant and have been employed by Desa Ballard, PA d/b/a Ballard & Watson, Attorneys at Law, f/k/a Ballard Watson Weissenstein, f/k/a Law Offices of Desa Ballard since 2000. My Curriculum Vitae is provided as Exhibit D. I regularly assist in reviews of lawyer trust accounts as part of the representation to attorneys offered by the firm and provide conclusions based on my expertise and the review of relevant trust account documents.
3. As part of the firm's representation of Mr. Rakowsky, which began in February 2008, when Las Vegas attorney Ron Serota filed a complaint against Mr. Rakowsky with the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, I have reviewed the trust account records of the Plaintiff as they pertain to Mr. Rakowsky's representation of plaintiffs in the underlying matter of Southern Holdings et al. v. Horry County, Case No. 4:02-cv-1859-RBH (hereafter "the civil litigation.").
4. As part of my review, I have reviewed Mr. Rakowsky's file on the civil litigation as well as bank statements and cleared checks for his attorney trust account (account ending in 1313) the period June 2005, to July 2008¹.

MTB0001

5. Based on his trust account records and the file, Mr. Rakowsky received a total of $67,500.00 as advanced litigation funds from Lit Funding and Resolution Settlement Corporation for the civil litigation. None of the advanced funds came from James Spencer or Southern Holdings.
6. Attached as Exhibit A is my accounting reconstruction of all transactions for the civil case reflecting the receipt and disbursement of $67,500.00 from Mr. Rakowsky's trust account. When Mr. Rakowsky initially retained our firm, Southern Holdings' (James Spencer) trust ledger indicated an ending balance of $9,855.55 (Exhibit B attached). Those funds were transferred to Ms. Ballard's trust account in May, 2008. Exhibit A also contains copies of the source documents and / or cancelled checks that I have been able to locate which support the expenditures made by Mr. Rakowsky.
7. At Ms. Ballard's instructions, on December 17, 2008, we issued Check No. 1892 from Ms. Ballard's trust account payable to Eugene G. Chewning, Jr., PhD, CPA after confirmation by Mr. Rakowsky this was a legitimate cost in the civil litigation. The current balance of the remaining advanced litigation funds in Ms. Ballard's trust account is $7,691.78.
8. There is no evidence in Mr. Rakowsky's file or his trust account records that he ever received any funds, or specifically, thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000), from an entity named Law Max. We did locate documents attached as Exhibit C, which evidence the funding of this loan. However, there is no evidence Mr. Rakowsky ever received any funds from Law Max.

Further, deponent sayeth not.

CONTINGENT ADVANCE AND SECURITY AGREEMENT (NR)

LFC 101, LLC, a Nevada Corporation, and the LAW OFFICE OF JOHN RAKOWSKY and John Rakowski ("Attorney") hereby enter into this Contingent Advance And Security Agreement on this 21st day of June 2005 for good and valuable consideration.

Section One: Definitions

1.1 Advance. As used herein the term "Advance" means the sum of forty seven thousand five hundred dollars ($47,500.00) advanced to Attorney pursuant to this Agreement, less any fees or commissions payable from this sum with the consent of Attorney.

1.2 Agreement. As used herein the term "Agreement" refers to this Contingent Advance And Security Agreement, together with the attached Declaration of Attorney and Client Consent Form.

1.3 Claims. As used herein the term "Claims" refers to any and all causes of action, claims for relief, recovery rights, or rights to payment of any kind stated by the Plaintiff in the Lawsuit, incorporated into the Lawsuit by later amendment, or included in any other lawsuit seeking relief on the same Claims, whether filed by the Plaintiff, or by any assignee, or successor-in-interest to the Plaintiff.

1.4 Fee. As used herein the term "Fee" refers to the applicable amount indicated in the table below:

Payment Time Frame	Fee Amount
A. If the Advance is paid in full on or before July 21, 2005	$7,125.00
B. If the Advance is paid in full after July 21, 2005 but before August 21, 2005	$14,250.00
C. If the Advance is paid in full after August 21, 2005 but before September 21, 2005	$21,375.00
D. If the Advance is paid in full after September 21, 2005 but before October 21, 2005	$28,500.00
E. If the Advance is paid in full after October 21, 2005 but before November 21, 2005	$35,625.00
F. If the Advance is paid in full any time after November 21, 2005 it will continue to increase at the rate of 15% per month.	15% per month

1.5 Lawsuit. As used herein the term "Lawsuit" refers to the action entitled James Spencer, et al. v. Horry County, et al., bearing Case No. 40218-527, which is pending in the United States District Court, District of South Carolina, Florence Division, inclusive of any future amended, or later filed or re-filed versions of the same.

1.6 Plaintiff. As used herein the term "Plaintiff" refers to James Spencer, et al.

1.7 Recovery. As used herein the term "Recovery" refers to any payments, or other consideration of any kind, paid to, or for the benefit of, the Plaintiff or Attorney, on account of the Claims, whether obtained through the Lawsuit, or through any later action or proceeding where the judgment, settlement, or other relief is obtained on account of the Claims, whether by Plaintiff, or any assignee or other holder of the Claims.

1.8 Attorney Recovery. As used herein the term "Attorney Recovery" is forty percent (40%) of the Recovery, whether or not these funds are actually paid to the Attorney for services rendered to Plaintiff.

Section Two: Amount And Terms of Advance

2.1 LFC 101, LLC agrees to make an Advance to Attorney in the amount of forty seven thousand five hundred dollars ($47,500.00) to fund the costs associated with the pursuit of a Recovery on account of the Claims, subject to the terms and conditions provided for herein. Once LFC 101, LLC has tendered the Advance in good funds, and Attorney has accepted the same, ~~then~~ LFC 101, LLC's obligations under this contract are fully performed.

2.2 Within three (3) business days of the Attorney's receipt of Recovery, Attorney shall pay to LFC 101, LLC a sum equal to the lesser of the following two amounts (the "Payment Obligation"):

- A. The Advance plus the accrued Fee; or
- B. An amount equal to the Attorney Recovery.

If for any reason no Recovery is generated on the Claims, then Attorney shall have no further liability hereunder except as otherwise provided herein.

2.3 ATTORNEY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THE TERM "ATTORNEY RECOVERY" AS DEFINED HEREIN IS FORTY PERCENT (40%) OF THE RECOVERY ON THE CLAIMS, ~~WHETHER OR NOT THIS SUM IS ACTUALLY PAID TO ATTORNEY BY PLAINTIFF.~~ STATED OTHERWISE ATTORNEY RECOGNIZES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ALTHOUGH THE PAYMENT OBLIGATION IS CONTINGENT UPON THE AMOUNT OF THE RECOVERY, IT IS NOT CONTINGENT UPON WHETHER OR NOT ATTORNEY ACTUALLY OBTAINS PAYMENT FROM THE PLAINTIFF FOR HIS FEES AND COSTS. IF A RECOVERY IS OBTAINED ON THE CLAIMS, THEN THE PAYMENT OBLIGATION (the lesser of the Advance plus the accrued Fee, or an amount equal to the Attorney Recovery) MUST BE PAID BY ATTORNEY, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PAYMENT PROBLEMS THAT ATTORNEY MAY EXPERIENCE WITH PLAINTIFF.

2.4 Attorney and Plaintiff agrees to notify LFC 101, LLC within one (1) day of the payment of any Recovery, and to hold any Recovery in a separate state bar mandated interest bearing trust account for LFC 101, LLC until the Payment Obligation is paid in full.

Section Three: Lien Rights

3.1 Attorney hereby grants LFC 101, LLC a first priority lien against any and all receivables, contract rights, or payment rights of any kind, now in existence or hereafter arising in favor of Attorney, for legal services provided to Plaintiff, or any successor-in-interest to Plaintiff, relating to the pursuit of the Claims. The lien shall also encumber the proceeds of the foregoing. The foregoing lien shall secure all obligations hereunder, including but not limited to the Payment Obligation. LFC 101, LLC is hereby authorized to file a UCC-1 with the applicable Secretary of State, or to take any other action reasonably necessary to duly perfect this lien.

3.2 Attorney agrees that any lien in favor of Attorney against the Recovery for fees and costs is assigned to LFC 101, LLC as additional collateral.

Section Four: Representations And Warranties

- 4.1 Attorney represents and warrants that Attorney has investigated other funding alternatives, and has independently determined that the Fee being charged for the Advance is reasonable.
- 4.2 Attorney represents and warrants that to the best of Attorney's knowledge, in the exercise of reasonable prudence, Plaintiff possesses full, complete and unencumbered rights to the Recovery, and intends to retain such rights during the terms of this Agreement.
- 4.3 Attorney represents and warrants that Attorney has accurately represented the status of the Lawsuit and further represents that neither the Plaintiff, nor any of the defendants, are currently in bankruptcy, receivership or liquidation.
- 4.4 Attorney represents and warrants that Attorney fully understands that the Advance made hereunder is not a recourse loan, but a non-recourse financial transaction pursuant to which the funds are materially at risk.

Section Five: Withdrawal/Rescission

- 5.1 If Attorney is replaced as counsel for Plaintiff in the Lawsuit, for any reason, Attorney must immediately notify LFC 101, LLC of said substitution.
- 5.2 In the event Attorney is replaced as counsel by Plaintiff, LFC 101, LLC shall have the unilateral right to rescind this Agreement. If LFC 101, LLC chooses rescission, then Attorney shall immediately pay to LFC 101, LLC the amount of the Advance plus ten percent (10%) interest thereon from the date of the Advance. Alternatively, LFC 101, LLC can retain its rights hereunder, including its lien rights.
- 5.3 If LFC 101, LLC discovers that any of the material information provided by Attorney regarding the Claims or the Lawsuit is not truthful, honest or complete, or that any of the Claims in the Lawsuit are illegal or asserted in bad faith, LFC 101, LLC shall have the right to rescind this Agreement. If LFC 101, LLC chooses rescission on this basis, then Attorney shall immediately pay to LFC 101, LLC the amount of the Advance, plus the Fee.

Section Six: Miscellaneous

- 6.1 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and any modifications thereto must be in writing and signed by both parties.
- 6.2 Attorney has read, understands, and agrees to all of the terms, promises, authorizations and instructions set forth herein and understands, and agrees to all of the terms, promises, authorizations and instructions set forth in this Agreement.
- 6.3 By executing the Agreement, Attorney acknowledges receipt of the Advance, and LFC 101, LLC's consequent full performance of its obligations hereunder.
- 6.4 This agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon and enforceable against the parties hereto and their successors and assigns.
- 6.5 Each of the parties hereto agrees to execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all such instruments, and to take all such actions as the other party may reasonably request which are reasonably necessary to effectuate the intent and purposes of this Agreement, all at the sole expense of the requesting party.

6.6 In the event that LFC 101, LLC is required to take any legal action to interpret or to enforce the terms of this Agreement, then LFC 101, LLC shall be entitled to recover the full amount of any attorneys fees and costs incurred, whether or not a legal action is commenced.

6.7 The parties to this Agreement, and each of them, hereby represent and warrant that they have the full authority to execute this Agreement and to fully bind the respective parties to each and all of the terms and conditions set forth herein.

6.8 This Agreement constitutes a single, integrated written contract, expresses the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter of this agreement, and supersedes all negotiations, prior discussions, and preliminary agreements.

6.9 This Agreement was jointly prepared through negotiations of the parties, and the provisions of the agreement are not to be strictly or liberally construed for or as against any of the parties.

6.10 The parties agree that this agreement shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the State of Nevada. All parties agree that in the event any dispute arises over the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement, jurisdiction over the matter and the parties shall only be appropriate in Clark County, Nevada, unless LFC 101, LLC consents in writing to have such dispute heard in another jurisdiction.

6.11 This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and each counterpart shall be effective as an original.

1. I, John Rakowsky hereby declare and state as follows:
 2. I am an attorney licensed to practice before the courts of the State of South Carolina.
 3. I am the attorney of record for James Spencer, et. al., the plaintiff (the "Plaintiff") in that certain Lawsuit more fully described James Spencer, et. al. v. Horry County, et. al., hearing Case No. 402185927, which is pending in the United States District Court, District of South Carolina, Florence Division (the "Lawsuit").
 4. I have considered, and sought out other potential funding options and consider the Advance set forth herein to be reasonable under the circumstances.
 5. I fully understand the terms under which the Advance is being provided, all as set forth in the Contingent Advance And Security Agreement (the "Agreement"), and I agree to abide by and comply with the terms of this Agreement.
 6. The Plaintiff understands the terms under which the Advance is being provided, all as set forth in the Agreement.
 7. The Plaintiff has expressly consented to this contractual arrangement, has consented to the lien being granted LFC 104, LLC herein against all receivables, contract rights, or payment rights of any kind, now in existence or hereafter arising in favor of Attorney, for legal services provided to Plaintiff, or any successor-in-interest to Plaintiff, relating to pursuit of the Claims. This lien shall also encumber the proceeds of the foregoing. The Plaintiff's consent appears in the duly executed Client Consent Form attached hereto.
 8. I understand that your company will advance monies to me/my firm to use as I see fit to pay the costs associated with the pursuit of the Claims. I also understand that this transaction is not a loan, but an investment that involves substantial risk and repayment is not guaranteed.
- I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada and the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

CLIENT CONSENT FORM

I, James Spencer, hereby declare and state that I have reviewed the attached Contingent Advance And Security Agreement (the "Agreement"), or my Attorney has reviewed this agreement and I am prepared to rely upon his review and advice. I hereby authorize my Attorney to enter into this agreement, and I authorize Attorney to grant LFC 104, LLC a first priority lien against all receivables, contract rights, or payment rights of any kind, now in existence or hereafter arising in favor of Attorney, for legal services provided to me, or to my successors-in-interest, relating to the pursuit of the Claims. I further agree that Attorney is authorized to assign any attorneys lien that he holds against the Claim to LFC 104, LLC as security for Attorney's obligations under the Agreement.

CONTINGENT ADVANCE AND SECURITY AGREEMENT (NR)

~~LTC 104~~ LLC, a Nevada Corporation, and the LAW OFFICE OF JOHN RAKOWSKY and John Rakowski ("Attorney") hereby enter into this Contingent Advance And Security Agreement on this ~~11~~ day of June 2005, for good and valuable consideration.

Section One: Definitions

- 1.1 Advance. As used herein the term "Advance" means the sum of ~~two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00)~~ advanced to Attorney pursuant to this Agreement, ~~less any Fees or commissions payable from this sum with the consent of Attorney.~~
- 1.2 Agreement. As used herein the term "Agreement" refers to this Contingent Advance And Security Agreement, together with the attached Declaration of Attorney and Client Consent Form.
- 1.3 Claims. As used herein the term "Claims" refers to any and all causes of action, claims for relief, recovery rights, or rights to payment of any kind stated by the Plaintiff in the Lawsuit, incorporated into the Lawsuit by later amendment, or included in any other lawsuit seeking relief on the same Claims, whether filed by the Plaintiff, or by any assignee, or successor-in-interest to the Plaintiff.
- 1.4 Fee. As used herein the term "Fee" refers to the applicable amount indicated in the table below:

Payment Time Frame	Fee Amount
A. If the Advance is paid in full on or before July 21, 2005	$375.00
B. If the Advance is paid in full after July 21, 2005 but before August 21, 2005	$750.00
C. If the Advance is paid in full after August 21, 2005 but before September 21, 2005	$1,125.00
D. If the Advance is paid in full after September 21, 2005 but before October 21, 2005	$1,500.00
E. If the Advance is paid in full after October 21, 2005 but before November 21, 2005	$1,875.00
F. If the Advance is paid in full any time after November 21, 2005 it will continue to increase at the rate of 15% per month.	15% per month

1.5 Lawsuit. As used herein the term "Lawsuit" refers to the action entitled ~~James Spencer et al. v. Horry County, et al.~~ bearing Case No. ~~402184973~~ which is pending in the ~~United States District Court, District of South Carolina, Florence Division~~, inclusive of any future amended, or later filed or re-filed versions of the same.

1.6 Plaintiff. As used herein the term ~~"Plaintiff"~~ refers to ~~James Spencer et al.~~

1.7 Recovery. As used herein the term "Recovery" refers to any payments, or other consideration of any kind, paid to, or for the benefit of, the Plaintiff or Attorney, on account of the Claims, whether obtained through the Lawsuit, or through any later action or proceeding where the judgment, settlement, or other relief is obtained on account of the Claims, whether by Plaintiff, or any assignee or other holder of the Claims.

1.8 Attorney Recovery. As used herein the term "Attorney Recovery" is forty percent (40%) of the Recovery, whether or not these funds are actually paid to the Attorney for services rendered to Plaintiff.

Section Two: Amount And Terms of Advance

2.1 LFC 104, LLC agrees to make an Advance to Attorney in the amount of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) to fund the costs associated with the pursuit of a Recovery on account of the Claims, subject to the terms and conditions provided for herein. Once LFC 104, LLC has tendered the Advance in good funds, and Attorney has accepted the same, then LFC 104, LLC's obligations under this contract are fully performed.

2.2 Within three (3) business days of the Attorney's receipt of Recovery, Attorney shall pay to LFC 104, LLC a sum equal to the lesser of the following two amounts (the "Payment Obligation"):

- A. The Advance plus the accrued Fee; or
- B. An amount equal to the Attorney Recovery.

If for any reason no Recovery is generated on the Claims, then Attorney shall have no further liability hereunder except as otherwise provided herein.

2.3 ATTORNEY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THE TERM "ATTORNEY RECOVERY" AS DEFINED HEREIN IS FORTY PERCENT (40%) OF THE RECOVERY ON THE CLAIMS, WHETHER OR NOT THIS SUM IS ACTUALLY PAID TO ATTORNEY BY PLAINTIFF. STATED OTHERWISE ATTORNEY RECOGNIZES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ALTHOUGH THE PAYMENT OBLIGATION IS CONTINGENT UPON THE AMOUNT OF THE RECOVERY, IT IS NOT CONTINGENT UPON WHETHER OR NOT ATTORNEY ACTUALLY OBTAINS PAYMENT FROM THE PLAINTIFF FOR HIS FEES AND COSTS. IF A RECOVERY IS OBTAINED ON THE CLAIMS, THEN THE PAYMENT OBLIGATION (the lesser of the Advance plus the accrued Fee, or an amount equal to the Attorney Recovery) MUST BE PAID BY ATTORNEY, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PAYMENT PROBLEMS THAT ATTORNEY MAY EXPERIENCE WITH PLAINTIFF.

2.4 Attorney and Plaintiff agrees to notify LFC 104, LLC within one (1) day of the payment of any Recovery, and to hold any Recovery in a separate state bar mandated interest bearing trust account for LFC, 104, LLC until the Payment Obligation is paid in full.

Section Three: Lien Rights

3.1 Attorney hereby grants LFC 104, LLC a first priority lien against any and all receivables, contract rights, or payment rights of any kind, now in existence or hereafter arising in favor of Attorney, for legal services provided to Plaintiff, or any successor-in-interest to Plaintiff, relating to the pursuit of the Claims. The lien shall also encumber the proceeds of the foregoing. The foregoing lien shall secure all obligations hereunder, including but not limited to the Payment Obligation. LFC 104, LLC is hereby authorized to file a UCC-1 with the applicable Secretary of State, or to take any other action reasonably necessary to duly perfect this lien.

3.2 Attorney agrees that any Lien in favor of Attorney against the Recovery for fees and costs is assigned to LFC 104, LLC as additional collateral.

Section Four: Representations And Warranties

- 4.1 Attorney represents and warrants that Attorney has investigated other funding alternatives, and has independently determined that the Fee being charged for the Advance is reasonable.
- 4.2 Attorney represents and warrants that to the best of Attorney's knowledge, in the exercise of reasonable prudence, Plaintiff possesses full, complete and unencumbered rights to the Recovery, and intends to retain such rights during the terms of this Agreement.
- 4.3 Attorney represents and warrants that Attorney has accurately represented the status of the Lawsuit and further represents that neither the Plaintiff, nor any of the defendants, are currently in bankruptcy, receivership or liquidation.
- 4.4 Attorney represents and warrants that Attorney fully understands that the Advance made hereunder is not a recourse loan, but a non-recourse financial transaction pursuant to which the funds are materially at risk.

Section Five: Withdrawal/Rescission

- 5.1 If Attorney is replaced as counsel for Plaintiff in the Lawsuit, for any reason, Attorney must immediately notify LFC 104, LLC of said substitution.
- 5.2 In the event Attorney is replaced as counsel by Plaintiff, LFC 104, LLC shall have the unilateral right to rescind this Agreement. If LFC 104, LLC chooses rescission, then Attorney shall immediately pay to LFC 104, LLC the amount of the Advance plus ten percent (10%) interest thereon from the date of the Advance. Alternatively, LFC 104, LLC can retain its rights hereunder, including its lien rights.
- 5.3 If LFC 104, LLC discovers that any of the material information provided by Attorney regarding the Claims or the Lawsuit is not truthful, honest or complete, or that any of the Claims in the Lawsuit are illegal or asserted in bad faith, LFC 104, LLC shall have the right to rescind this Agreement. If LFC 104, LLC chooses rescission on this basis, then Attorney shall immediately pay to LFC 104, LLC the amount of the Advance, plus the Fee.

Section Six: Miscellaneous

- 6.1 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and any modifications thereto must be in writing and signed by both parties.
- 6.2 Attorney has read, understands, and agrees to all of the terms, promises, authorizations and instructions set forth herein and understands, and agrees to all of the terms, promises, authorizations and instructions set forth in this Agreement.
- 6.3 By executing the Agreement, Attorney acknowledges receipt of the Advance, and LFC 104, LLC's consequent full performance of its obligations hereunder.
- 6.4 This agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon and enforceable against the parties hereto and their successors and assigns.
- 6.5 Each of the parties hereto agree to execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all such instruments, and to take all such actions as the other party may reasonably request which are reasonably necessary to effectuate the intent and purposes of this Agreement, all at the sole expense of the requesting party.

6.6 In the event that LFC 104, LLC is required to take any legal action to interpret or to enforce the terms of this Agreement, then LFC 104, LLC shall be entitled to recover the full amount of any attorneys fees and costs incurred, whether or not a legal action is commenced.

6.7 The parties to this Agreement, and each of them, hereby represent and warrant that they have the full authority to execute this Agreement and to fully bind the respective parties to each and all of the terms and conditions set forth herein.

6.8 This Agreement constitutes a single, integrated written contract, expresses the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter of this agreement, and supersedes all negotiations, prior discussions, and preliminary agreements.

6.9 This Agreement was jointly prepared through negotiations of the parties, and the provisions of the agreement are not to be strictly or liberally construed for or as against any of the parties.

6.10 The parties agree that this agreement shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the State of Nevada. All parties agree that in the event any dispute arises over the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement, jurisdiction over the matter and the parties shall only be appropriate in Clark County, Nevada, unless LFC 104, LLC consents in writing to have such dispute heard in another jurisdiction.

6.11 This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and each counterpart shall be effective as an original.

To Whom It Does Concern:

As the recipient of Presettlement Funding I want to thank you for providing $50,000.00 as an investment in the success of my case.

Prior to my case being presented for funding I agreed to pay 1st Choice Funding 20% of any funding amount I received as payment for the service they provide in securing funding. I am attaching the contractual agreement which outlines the conditions of my agreement. I understand Lit Funding provides as direct compensation 5% of the amount funded to 1st Choice which leaves me with the remaining 15% to be deducted out of my proceeds. I am requesting a balance of $7,500.00 be deducted as payment in full for the service provided and sent direct to 1st Choice Funding and send to my attorney the remaining balance of $42,500.00.

SCHEDULE C

Litigation Description

A brief description of the Litigation follows:

- After years of delays by the defendants, the case pending in SC Federal District Court is locked in to be heard this July 19, 2005.
- There are five Plaintiff attorneys on a contingency basis on the case.
- The medical costs due to traumatic injuries to dates are in excess of $120,000, and there are have increasing lifetime health complications from the personal injuries.
- I lost a valuable long-term employment contact valued in excess of $300,000 annually due to the malicious actions of the defendants. Please note the attached economic expert's report concerning damages and links below to the experts' credentials.
- The defendants have deep pockets and are able to pay the damages. The case involves individuals being paid off to forge a Judges signature on arrest papers in addition to the pay off of individuals to make entries on the NCIC system for what has been determined by two individual Judges in two State Courts to be unfounded, contrived and baseless charges. The two hearings that lasted a combined total of less than fifteen minutes.
- The defendants were captured on videotape torturing me after a Fifteenth Circuit Court Judge had issued an Order a month concerning the baseless charges. The perpetrators knew about and deliberately ignored the Judge's Order as validated by conclusive police audiotape evidence. Please note attached overview to this e-mail concerning the case.

In summation, please remember we have two judges who made decisions in our favor including a decision that there was no probable cause to stop and arrest me for any reason on August 6, 2000. There is not even a dispute over the forged Judges signature that initiated the phony warrant and the impossibility of the charges that has been acknowledged by the defendants.

Therefore, the case is going to center on damages and the defendants missed the deadline for naming experts. ~~The defendants will have no experts for trial~~ based on their inaction while we have been able to secure a team of the most creditable experts available with both outstanding credentials and reputations for honesty.

LETTER OF AGREEMENT

_____, 2005

Dear Counselor:

Thank you for choosing Forensic Tape Analysis, Inc. ("FTA") as your expert and consultant. FTA is confident you will find our work and professionalism amongst the best available.

You have requested that FTA perform the following tasks: _____

_____. The terms and conditions upon which we have agreed to perform these tasks is set forth in this Letter Agreement ("Agreement").

Due to the high quality of our work product, our services are in considerable demand. Furthermore, the nature of our business frequently requires that we handle matters on an expedited and time intensive basis. For these reasons, FTA requires that you pay an initial, non-refundable, retainer ("Retainer") in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____.00) in order to engage our services to perform the tasks described above.

The high demand for our work product also dictates that we not undertake any work until the initial Retainer is paid, and you have returned a signed copy of this Agreement to us. If you pay the Retainer with certified funds or bank wire transfer, we can begin work immediately. In all other instances, we will need to wait five (5) business days before proceeding.

Our minimum hourly rate(s) and minimum charges for most services are set forth in the Fee Schedule which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit A. Reimbursable expenses, include, but are not limited to, airfare, fees for lodging, car rental fees and/or travel expense, copying charges, and expenses associated with obtaining records.

On occasion, the services of other experts are required for us to complete our work. By signing this Agreement, you agree to retain any experts whose assistance we deem necessary, in the exercise of our professional judgment and to pay the fees and expenses due any such expert. This will be discussed prior to our hiring any other needed expert(s). You also agree to indemnify FTA and hold FTA harmless against any claim made by such expert(s) for payment for the performance of their work.

While the Retainer is our best estimate as to the cost to perform the services requested above, it is only an estimate. FTA reserves the right to request an additional Retainer(s). FTA reserves the right to request another Retainer, all work performed thereafter will be billed at the minimum hourly rate applicable to the work performed as set for the in the Fee Schedule, plus expenses.

We will provide you with periodic invoices which will reflect a credit for any Retainer(s) paid. All invoices are due and payable no later than thirty (30) days from the invoice date. In entering into this Agreement, you understand and agree that FTA is entitled to cease work, and that FTA is not obligated to release examination results until all sums outstanding have been paid in full.

Most of FTA's engagements involve an initial analysis, followed by a request for additional services. This usually entails further investigation, analysis, and/or testimony. The terms and conditions of this Agreement apply to any additional services requested. An additional Retainer will likely be required to engage our services for any additional work.

Upon receipt of a request from you for additional work, we will forward an Addendum to this Agreement to you. The Addendum will include a description of the additional services which you are requesting, and a statement as to the additional Retainer, if any, which will be required. Upon receipt of the signed addendum and monies for the additional Retainer, FTA will perform the requested additional services. By execution of this Agreement, you agree that FTA shall have no obligation to perform any services not specifically described herein, unless and until FTA has received the signed Addendum and additional Retainer, if any.

Additional Retainers shall be non-refundable. Notwithstanding this provision, with regard only to additional Retainers paid for anticipated trial testimony, a portion of the additional Retainer may be reimbursed, as follows: If a trial is cancelled or rescheduled and FTA is notified at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the previously scheduled trial date, a charge equal to the agreed-upon hourly rate multiplied by the hours of time spent in work in trial preparation, plus expenses, will be retained by FTA, and the balance of the Retainer will be refunded to the party who made the payment or credited toward an additional trial Retainer.

FTA is working for you as your expert and consultant. The obligations which you undertake by signing this Agreement are the joint and several obligations of your firm and the client or principal you may represent. Either is authorized to request work under this Agreement binding the other to the payment obligations provided for in this Agreement. If you are uncomfortable with this arrangement, please advise us immediately, and we will consider signing an agreement strictly with your client or principal; provided, however, that a larger Retainer may be required. The signing of this Agreement indicates you agree and are bound by the Agreement.

Any dispute which arises under this Agreement shall be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association. All arbitration proceedings will be held in Walworth County, Wisconsin. The award of the arbitrator(s) shall be final and binding upon the parties, and may be entered as a judgment in any state or federal court. The cost of arbitration and suit, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney fees, shall be interpreted under the laws of the State of Wisconsin.

FTA's work is done in accordance with applicable professional standards, but is only as good as information we are given by you, or which we can obtain from other sources. It is imperative that you disclose to us all information or sources which may be relevant to our work, and that you do so in a timely fashion. If you have any doubt regarding the importance of a document or certain information, call us. In order to maintain our high professional standards and reputation, we base our conclusions and opinions solely upon the information and documentation provided to us, and not on any desired or expected result.

Some of our clients are represented by public defender programs, and are therefore subject to fee and expense restrictions imposed by federal or state law. In certain cases, we will serve you at the restructured rates, but only pursuant to a separate written agreement and the following conditions: (1) You must disclose any such restriction to us in writing, in advance; (2) You must provide us with a signed Fee Schedule, along with a signed form from the judge or the public defender authorizing payment; and (3) CJA reimbursement vouchers must be submitted as soon as possible. If approved CJA vouchers are not paid in full within sixty (60) days, the client/law firm is personally responsible for full reimbursement to FTA. Absent a separate written agreement, and your diligent and timely application for approval, the rates for FTA's services are those contained in this Agreement.

This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the signatories hereto, their successors and assigns. This Agreement may not be amended except by written agreement signed by both parties hereto.

Thank you for this assignment and FTA looks forward to assisting you.

Sincerely,

FORENSIC TAPE ANALYSIS, INC.

Steve Cain, President

John:

Let me correct the last e-mail. I had two invoices, at the request of plaintiff counsel. One was for my work on the case and expenses prior to the deposition. The other one was directed to both plaintiff and defense counsel just for my depo time. It is the latter that defense counsel has already paid $600 towards -- they agreed to pay at the rate of $200 an hour, and Ron told me that the rest would be covered by plaintiffs. So the net amount owing is $5194 + ($1500 - $600) = $6194. I attach the two invoices.

Maribeth will FAX the invoice from Gene Chewing and her to you on Thursday when she is back from some travels.

O'LEARY ASSOCIATES, P.A.

JOHN A. O'LEARY, ATTORNEY

FEE SCHEDULE AND EXPENSE POLICY

File Review and Opinion:

An initial retainer fee of $3,000.00 is required for all work including file review, preparation of testimony, research, reports, assistance in the preparation of deposition questions, assistance in answering interrogatories, etc. Review will begin upon receipt of retainer and signed copy of this Fee Schedule and Expense Policy. All hours expended over and above 20 hours will be billed to the retaining law firm at an hourly rate of $150 per hour.

Trial Testimony and Site Inspection Fee:

Local site inspection or trial testimony within a fifty (50) mile radius of Columbia, South Carolina - $1,000. No expense charges.

Trial testimony or site inspection outside a fifty (50) mile radius of Columbia, South Carolina - $1,000 per day ($2,000.00 minimum), plus all travel expenses.

Depositions:

Depositions and video depositions in Columbia, South Carolina - $1,000. No expense charges.

Depositions and video depositions outside Columbia, South Carolina - $1,000 per day ($2,000.00 minimum), plus all travel expenses.

Travel Expenses:

Tourist class airline tickets to be pre-paid by retaining law firm or agency to O'Leary and Associates. Prepaid tickets should be furnished at the airline ticket counter at the Columbia Metropolitan Airport, or arrangements made with the travel agency retained by O'Leary and Associates in Columbia, South Carolina. Rental cars and taxi service will be billed to the law firm requesting the services of O'Leary and Associates.

Hotel accommodations, if possible, should be arranged for and billed directly to the law firm or agency retaining the services of O'Leary and Associates.

Phone Expenses:

All phone calls, conference calls, etc., will be billed to the law firm or agency retaining the services of O'Leary and Associates.

Payment Policy:

Initial retainer for file review and opinion should accompany the first set of papers. Deposition fees and site inspection fees are expected prior to the taking of deposition. All fees are non-refundable.

TRANSFER AND CONVEYANCE OF PROCEEDS
AND SECURITY AGREEMENT

THIS TRANSFER AND CONVEYANCE OF PROCEEDS AND SECURITY AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made this 5th day of June, 2003, by and between RESOLUTION SETTLEMENT CORPORATION ("Transferor"), a Nevada Corporation, and SOUTHERN HOLDINGS, JAMES SPENCER ET AL ("Transferee"), whose address is: C/O John Rakowski Esq. Attorney of Record; PO Box 3593 West Columbia, SC 29171 Tel: 803 331-2788.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Transferor has a claim against and/or is a plaintiff in an action or suit (whether a claim, action or suit, the "Litigation") now pending before the United States District Court; district of South Carolina (Civil Action 4 02 1859 12; (the "Defendant"), whose various insurance carriers are defending such Litigation, arising out of an act of negligence, accident or other incident occurring on or about June 1, 2000 in which the Defendants damaged the Transferor with false arrest, personal injury and other torts. A brief description of the Litigation is attached and identified as Schedule C.

WHEREAS, Transferor does not have sufficient funds to proceed with the Litigation, has no asset against which to borrow, and has sought funds from other sources but has been unable to find any.

WHEREAS, an undetermined amount of time will be required for Transferor to seek compensation from the Defendant(s) through continued legal action and/or negotiations to otherwise persuade or prevail upon the Defendant(s) to pay the Transferor an amount appropriate and necessary to compensate Transferor for the injuries incurred and/or damages suffered; and

WHEREAS, in order to afford Transferor sufficient funds to proceed with the Litigation, Transferee has agreed to accept certain proceeds which may arise from settlement or verdict resulting from the Litigation.

WHEREAS, Transferor desires to pursue the Litigation to such time that a fair and favorable settlement or judgment can be obtained.

WHEREAS, Transferee has made its own determination to make this advance and has not relied on any advice from Transferor's counsel regarding the merits, value, risk, or legitimacy of the Litigation.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00), cash in hand paid, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Transferee and Transferor do hereby agree as follows:

MTB0033

1. Transferor unconditionally and irrevocably transfers and conveys to Transferee all of Transferor's control, A RIGHT OF PROCEEDS which includes the right, title and interest in the first TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($25,000.00) paid to Transferor from the Proceeds, as hereinafter defined, or other recovery derived from the Litigation. Said amount shall, by agreement, increase by FOUR THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED ($4,500.00) PER MONTH beginning on the first day of the month following the date of execution of this agreement, pursuant to the schedule attached hereto as Schedule A. The first months interest will accrue upon signing this agreement for purposes of an early settlement payment, however the second month will begin on August 1, 2005 and increase as stated the first of each month thereafter.. For purposes of this Agreement, "Proceeds" shall be defined as the gross amount of the recovery from the Litigation, less Transferor's attorney's fees of approx. 40 % of any recovery, the actual costs of the Litigation advanced by Transferor's legal counsel on Transferor's behalf, and any other prior superior assignments, liens, encumbrances or security interests of any kind or nature in or relating to the Proceeds as provided for in Schedule B hereto, if any.
2. Transferor hereby grants to Transferee a security interest in the Proceeds of the Litigation in the sum of TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($25,000.00) plus any and all increases pursuant to Schedule A hereto, in order to secure the conveyance, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
3. This agreement is expressly intended to transfer, convey and relinquish control over only a specified portion of the Proceeds that may flow from, and as a result of the Litigation referred to above. This agreement is not an assignment, nor a purchase of any right, chose in action, cause of action, or claim which Transferor may have or possess as against any responsible party, respondent or defendant referred to herein. Transferee contemplates no control, input, influence, right or involvement of any kind regarding any claim, right, or interest of Transferor in the Litigation.
4. This agreement, and the obligation to pay over the Proceeds specified herein is totally contingent, speculative and without recourse on the part of Transferee, except for the security interest in the Litigation, and any successor claim(s) and/or litigation(s) arising out of the same facts, or arising out of the conduct of the Litigation. If there is no recovery of Proceeds by Transferor as specified herein, then Transferee shall receive NOTHING.
5. Transferor hereby authorizes Transferee to send to the applicable insurance company a "Notice of Lien", so that Transferor may perfect its lien against the subject claim. (An example is attached hereto as Schedule "E"). Transferor represents that the applicable insurance company(ies) is (are) as follows:

6. Transferor shall, and does hereby require and direct his/her attorney(s) to execute this Agreement. By execution hereof, Transferor's attorney(s) acknowledges receipt of, and actual notice of this Agreement and agrees to disburse the Proceeds as set forth herein above.

7. All parties to this agreement acknowledge that by execution hereof, Transferor's attorney is solely and merely following Transferor's instructions. Transferor's attorney is making neither representation nor guarantee, inferred, expressed or implied; concerning either merits or value of the claim(s) or litigation matter(s) referred to herein to ANY PARTY. Further, all parties to this agreement acknowledge that Transferor's attorney assumes no affirmative duties herein other than the ministerial obligations of disbursement, and conveying information contained herein.
8. If Transferor changes his/her attorney(s) after signing this Agreement, Transferor and Transferor's attorney each shall give immediate written notice, by certified mail return receipt requested, to Transferee at 9360 W. Flamingo Rd. Suite 110-527, Las Vegas, NV 89147, of the identity, address and phone numbers of Transferor's new attorney(s). Transferor further agrees to require and to direct any new attorney(s) to execute and acknowledge this Agreement.
9. Transferor hereby authorizes his attorney(s) to release to Transferee any information, files, records, documents regarding the Litigation requested by Transferee, who agrees to treat such information as privileged and who shall receive and review these materials solely in the limited capacity necessary for this Agreement.
10. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and there are no representations, warranties, covenants or obligations except as set forth herein. This Agreement supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, written or oral, of the parties hereto, relating to any transaction contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding on, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their successors and assigns. In the event any one or more of the covenants, terms and conditions of this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, liability or enforceability of any other covenant, term or condition in this Agreement.
11. Transferor represents and warrants unto Transferee that as of the date of this Agreement that (a) Transferor believes the Litigation to be meritorious and filed in good faith; (b) Transferor has complete right, title and interest in and to the Litigation and full power and authority to make and execute this Agreement; (c) Transferor has not and will not assign or encumber the Proceeds from the Litigation, except as otherwise provided herein; and (d) there is no other assignment, lien, encumbrance or security interest of any kind or nature in or relating to the Proceeds other than is provided for in Schedule B hereto, if any.
12. Transferor intends this agreement to be fully valid and binding as to and upon all heirs, trustees, executors, or any other successor-in-interest who may obtain or assert control over the Litigation by reason of Transferor's death, disability, or decline in health such that someone other than Transferor is, or becomes entitled to make decisions concerning the disposition of the Litigation, or any of the proceeds thereof. Further, by executing this agreement, Transferor intends to exercise any Power of Appointment with which Transferor is empowered to the extent necessary to complete the Transfer that is the subject of this agreement.
13. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Nevada and venue for any dispute arising hereunder (including any interpleader action) shall lie in the 8th Judicial District Court for Clark County, Nevada. Transferor agrees that any and all Federal lawsuits related to or arising from this agreement shall be filed and maintained in the Federal Courthouse located in Las Vegas, Nevada. Transferor understands that the "choice of laws", "forum", and "venue" clauses contained herein are critical in nature, and are essential to this Contract, and that they have not been placed in this contract as mere "form" insertions and recitals.

14. If a dispute between the parties to this Agreement arises, the parties agree and acknowledge that all funds in dispute shall be interpleaded into the Nevada courts until such time said dispute is resolved.
15. Transferor has been advised to have not only his/her counsel, but also outside counsel, review this agreement prior to Transferor's signing it.
16. Transferor has been advised that Transferee is a provider of funds of last resort and that other sources may have more favorable rates and payment schedules.
17. Transferee has answered all of Transferor's questions.
18. Transferor acknowledges that Transferee will, in the event that Transferor should make a recovery, make a substantial profit from this advance.
19. Transferor acknowledges that this contract has been drafted by both Transferor and Transferee, and is made a part of this entire transaction.
20. Transferor understands that the attached Schedule A, Schedule B, Schedule C, Schedule D, and Schedule E are each hereby made a part of this agreement.
21. Transferor acknowledges that the Transferee advised Transferor to take no fewer than three (3) days to consider the terms contained in this agreement before signing it. Transferor acknowledges that he/she signed this agreement after taking 5 days to consider the terms contained herein.

ATTORNEY FOR TRANSFEROR:

I, John Rakowsky, ("Attorney") attorneys for Transferor, have read this agreement in its entirety, understand it, and agree to abide by the directives of my client as contained therein. In the event a dispute arises between the parties pertaining to the funds at issue herein, I agree to interplead said funds to the applicable court until said dispute is resolved. I agree to distribute any Proceeds of the Litigation in accordance with the terms of the Agreement. In the event that I cease representing the Transferor at any time, I will immediately give written notice via certified mail, return receipt requested, to Transferee at 9360 W. Flamingo Rd. Suite 110-527, Las Vegas, NV 89147. By execution hereof, I am only following the instructions of Transferor. I make no statement, render no opinion, and proffer no guarantee as pertains to the possibility of recovery of some or any Proceeds as a result of the Litigation. By the execution hereof, I assume no duties or obligations to Transferee other than the ministerial duties of disbursement and of furnishing requested information as specifically outlined herein. Any and all proceeds from the Litigation will be paid into my trust account for disbursement per this agreement.

Exhibit C

Dear Mr. Ron Serota,

Based upon your failure to appear at Federal District Court at the February 9, 2007, hearing as well as your deliberate sabotaging of the funding for this case, you are hereby suspended for taking any further actions on behalf of either Southern Holdings, Inc., or myself (individually) in the Federal District Court case in Florence, SC.

In the next several days, I am holding a BOD meeting where James Spencer will not be voting regarding the actions the Corporation will take regarding you from this point forward. Mr. Spencer has indicated that he will abstain from voting.

I strongly suggest you attempt to repair the financial damages of the lost $35,000 that you caused the litigation yesterday prior to my holding of the BOD meeting the latter part of this week.

It is with heavy heart that I take this action, but you have left me and Southern Holdings, Inc., no recourse.

Very truly yours,

Nicholas C. Williamson

Ron

I received Nick Williamson's notification of your suspension and the upcoming BOD meeting. At this point you are no longer authorized to take any actions on my behalf regarding the case in Federal District Court.

I do not consider your missing the court hearing on February 9, 2007, because of a free trip to Hawaii nor the sabotage of the funding yesterday to be positive actions in this case regarding my representation.

These and other matters I consider very troubling. I think it is in the best interest for you to resign for work load related reasons rather than taking the actions of terminating you for cause.

I also request you try and repair the damage you did to the funding yesterday and attribute your misguided actions to your stress rather than any other motivation.

Again, you are not to take any actions on my behalf regarding this case from this point forward.

Sincerely,

James Spencer

James B. Spencer

Re: James Spencer

Dear Mr. Rakowsky:

We are pleased to pre-approve an advance of $35,000.00 to James Spencer for a claim against Horry County, South Carolina Horry County Sheriff's Department, Horry County Police Department, City of Myrtle Beach, Myrtle Beach Police Department, James Albert Allen, Jr., Sidney Rick Thompson, Jeffrey S. Caldwell, Charles McClendon, Jay Brantly, Andy Christensen, Warren Gall, Richard Parosh, J.L. Zimmerman, Michael Stover, Hartman, Harold Steven Harness, Ancil B. Garvin, III, David Smith, Richard B. Way, and any other parties that may be added or substituted. If your client received any prior advances from LawMax, please be advised that this advance is a separate investment.

Attached is a Claim Investment Agreement. Please complete the portion regarding liens and assignments (Appendix II). If there are none, then the word "None" should be inserted in that section. The advance will not be made if this section is left blank.

The agreement should be signed by both you and your client in the appropriate places, and your client's signature must be notarized. The agreement should also be initialed by you (Appendix II) and your client in the appropriate places.

After it has been completed and signed, please fax the agreement back to us along with copies of your client's valid picture ID and Social Security card. Please also mail a fully executed original to us. Upon receipt of the facsimile copy, we will promptly send a check to your client.

If your client requires funds to be sent via overnight courier, we will deduct $20.00 (or $30.00 for Saturday delivery) from the investment amount for delivery expenses. This charge will not apply if the advance is $3,000 or more.

Please mark James Spencer's file accordingly to reflect our lien. In the event your firm obtains a recovery on behalf of your client, you must honor our lien in full prior to distributing any funds to your client.

If you have any questions or if we can be of service to any of your other clients, please feel free to call us at 212-480-3707. Thank you for your assistance. We look forward to working with you!

Very truly yours,

Thank you for your assistance.

CLAIM INVESTMENT AGREEMENT

This Claim Investment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into this February 23, 2007, by and between James Spencer, [REDACTED] ("Seller"), who resides at 7701 Street Andrews Box 183, Columbia, SC 29212, and LawMax Legal Finance ("Buyer"), located at 459 Columbus Avenue, Suite 299, New York, New York 10024.

WHEREAS, Seller is the plaintiff in a legal claim against Horry County, South Carolina Horry County Sheriff's Department, Horry County Police Department, City of Myrtle Beach, Myrtle Beach Police Department, James Albert Allen, Jr., Sidney Rick Thompson, Jeffrey S. Caldwell, Charles McClendon, Jay Brantly, Andy Christensen, Warren Gail, Richard Parosh, J.L. Zimmerman, Michael Steven Hartness, Harold Steven Hartness, Anell B. Garvin, III, David Smith, Richard B. Way, and any other parties that may be added or substituted, including all applicable uninsured/underinsured insurance carriers and workers' compensation claims (collectively referred to as the "Claim"); and

WHEREAS, Seller desires to ensure the receipt of some proceeds from the Claim without regard to its outcome and wishes to sell the right to receive a portion of the proceeds recovered, if any, with respect to the Claim.

WHEREAS, Seller does not have sufficient funds to pay for living expenses during the pendency of the Claim, does not have sufficient income or assets to obtain a loan, and cannot obtain funds from other sources; and

WHEREAS, Buyer is in the business of investing in claims by purchasing the right to receive portions of the proceeds recovered from the settlements of claims and judgments and from judgments and desires to purchase from Seller an interest in its proceeds from the Claim; and

NOW THEREFORE, for valuable consideration, the receipt, sufficiency and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree to as follows:

1. Purchase Price; Buyer's Payment to Seller. Buyer shall pay THIRTY SEVEN THOUSAND AND NO HUNDRED DOLLARS ($37,000.00) to Seller as the Investment Amount. Said Investment Amount is paid without recourse or other obligation of Seller to repay it, except as expressly set forth herein.

2. Sale and Purchase; Seller's Payment to Buyer. Seller hereby unconditionally and irrevocably grants, assigns, transfers and conveys to Buyer the following right, title and interest in the Proceeds (defined hereunder in Article 13) from the Claim (the "LawMax Ownership Stake") as set forth in the Payment Schedule below:

Payment Schedule	LawMax Ownership Stake
On or before August 23, 2007	$63,000.00
After August 23, 2007 but on or before February 23, 2008	$77,000.00
After February 23, 2008 but on or before August 23, 2008	$91,000.00
After August 23, 2008 but on or before February 23, 2009	$105,000.00
After February 23, 2009 but on or before August 23, 2009	$122,500.00
After August 23, 2009 but on or before February 23, 2010	$140,000.00
After February 23, 2010	$157,600.00

3. Seller's Additional Payment Terms. The LawMax Ownership Stake shall be due and payable by Seller to Buyer in full on the date the Proceeds from the Claim are recovered. The amount of LawMax Ownership Stake will be adjusted to reflect the actual date of payment of the Principal Amount by Buyer to Seller.

4. Priority of Payments. Seller acknowledges that any Proceeds recovered from the Claim shall be paid to Buyer first, before Seller is entitled to receive any funds or distributions. In the event the Proceeds are received in multiple payments, whether pursuant to a structured settlement, annuity, or other form of installment payment, Buyer's right to receive the LawMax Ownership Stake in full shall be prior and senior to Seller's right to receive any portion of the proceeds from the Claim. Seller may terminate this Agreement at any time by the payment to Buyer of the LawMax Ownership Stake in accordance with the Payment Schedule set forth in Article 2 above. All prepayments shall be credited first to the difference between the LawMax Ownership Stake and the Investment Amount.

5. Non-Recourse Investment. Seller acknowledges that Buyer shall advance funds under this Agreement on a non-recourse basis only. In the event Seller does not recover any Proceeds from the Claim, Seller shall not be obligated to pay Buyer anything, and Buyer shall further forfeit its entire investment hereunder. Furthermore, in the event Seller recovers Proceeds from the Claim which are insufficient to pay the full LawMax Ownership Stake due to Buyer, then Buyer's total entitlement shall be limited to the gross amount of Seller's recovery after attorney's fees and costs.

6. Risk of Loss; No Loan. Seller acknowledges that the transaction contemplated by this Agreement involves a high risk of loss to Buyer. The funding provided by Buyer is a non-recourse purchase of an interest in the prospective Proceeds of the Claim and is not a loan. This transaction is an absolute assignment from Seller to Buyer and is fully perfected as of the date hereof. Seller agrees not to treat and report this transaction as a loan for all purposes, including taxes.

7. Fully Informed. Seller acknowledges that every page of this Agreement has been fully explained to him and all questions that he may have regarding this transaction have been fully answered. Seller has had an opportunity to consult with its attorney and other advisors before signing this Agreement.

8. Seller's Right of Rescission. CONSUMER'S RIGHT TO CANCELLATION; SELLER MAY CANCEL THIS AGREEMENT WITHOUT PENALTY OR FURTHER OBLIGATION WITHIN FIVE BUSINESS DAYS FROM THE DATE SELLER RECEIVES FUNDING FROM BUYER. In order for the cancellation to be effective, SELLER must either: (i) return the full Investment Amount of disbursed funds to Buyer by delivering Buyer's uncashed check to Buyer's office in person, within five (5) business days of the disbursement of funds, or (ii) mail a notice of cancellation and include in that mailing a return of the full Investment Amount of disbursed funds (in the form of Buyer's uncashed check; or a registered or certified check or money order), by insured, registered or certified United States mail, postmarked within five business days of receiving funds from Buyer, at the following address: 450 Columbus Avenue, Suite 209, New York, New York 10024.

9. No Obligation to Reduce Lien. Seller acknowledges that Buyer is under no obligation to reduce its lien if Seller obtains a recovery from the Claim.

10. Waiver of Defenses; No Avoidance of Payment. Seller hereby waives any defenses to payment of any LawMax Ownership Stake due to Buyer and hereby agrees not to seek avoidance of payment of this amount.

11. Right of First Refusal for Additional Funding; Limits on Advances. Seller hereby grants Buyer the exclusive right of "first refusal" for any additional funding that Seller may require with respect to the Claim. Seller agrees not to obtain funding from any other source with respect to the Claim without the express written consent of Buyer.

12. Irrevocable Power of Attorney in Favor of Buyer. Seller hereby irrevocably appoints Buyer as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, in its name, place and stead, with full powers to request and receive all information related to the Claim from any sources, including but not limited to medical providers, attorneys, insurance companies, law enforcement, and government organizations. This power of attorney shall remain in full force and be binding until Buyer is paid in full in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

13. Proceeds for LawMax Ownership Stake. For the purpose of this Agreement, the Proceeds shall be the gross amount (after attorney's fees and costs) paid to Seller by or on behalf of one or more of the defendants to settle the matters which are the subject of the Claim, or pursuant to any verdict or judgment entered against them with respect to the matters which are the subject of the Claim.

14. No transfer of Claim or Right of Action. The parties to this Agreement intend to sell and to purchase the right to receive a portion of the Proceeds that may be recovered with respect to the Claim. This Agreement does not transfer or convey any right of action, cause of action or claim for relief which Seller may have against any of the defendants in the Claim or any other person or entity arising out of the facts, transactions, occurrences or events which are alleged in, or are the subject of, the complaint, as amended, on file in the Claim. Buyer shall not have any right to control, interfere with, or influence the prosecution of the case on behalf of Seller with respect to the Claim or any settlement negotiations that may occur.

15. No Encumbrances on Proceeds; No Fraud. Seller represents to Buyer that it has good and marketable title to the Proceeds of the Claim and that it has not, prior to the date hereof, sold, encumbered, transferred, assigned and/or conveyed any interest in the Proceeds of the Claim to any other person or entity, except as provided in the Attorney Acknowledgement and Undertaking section of Appendix II hereto, and that Seller shall not do so in the future. Seller has not committed fraud in connection with this Agreement or the Claim, and all statements, disclosures, and representations made by Seller to Buyer are truthful, complete, accurate and correct. Seller has informed Buyer regarding the status of all actions, facts and circumstances that materially affect or impair the Claim as well as Seller's and Buyer's rights.

16. Seller's Brokers; No Authority to Negotiate Lien. Seller hereby acknowledges that in the event any broker or intermediary referred it to Buyer for funding, such intermediary is an agent of Seller and not an agent of Buyer. Seller shall not negotiate Buyer's lien with anyone other than Buyer, including but not limited to brokers, agents, independent contractors, etc. Any reductions of Buyer's lien are void unless they are expressly authorized in writing by Buyer.

17. Instructions to Attorney. Seller hereby irrevocably instructs and directs its attorney of record with respect to the Claim to sign this Agreement in the appropriate space provided in the Attorney Acknowledgement and Undertaking section in Appendix II hereof, to acknowledge notice of this Agreement and the rights created thereby, to disclose to Buyer all assignments, conveyances and transfers of, and liens upon the Proceeds and to distribute the Proceeds to Buyer in compliance with the provisions herein.

18. Mandatory Updates. Seller hereby irrevocably instructs and directs its attorney of record to keep Buyer updated regarding any changes affecting this case and to provide written updates regarding the case status at Buyer's request.

19. Substitution of Attorney. If Seller substitutes another lawyer or law firm as its attorney of record with respect to the Claim, Seller and its current attorney of record shall each give Buyer immediate written notice thereof by certified mail, return receipt requested, and state the name, address and telephone number of Seller's new attorney of record.

20. Instructions to Substituted Attorney(s). If Seller substitutes another lawyer or law firm as its attorney of record with respect to the Claim, Seller hereby irrevocably instructs and directs the new attorney(s) and law firm(s) to acknowledge this Agreement by signing it in the appropriate space below and to distribute the LawMax Ownership Stake in accordance with this Agreement. Seller further irrevocably instructs and directs its new attorney(s) to keep Buyer updated regarding any changes affecting the Claim and to provide written updates regarding the case status at Buyer's request. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Seller irrevocably instructs and directs all substituted or new attorneys of record to strictly comply with all obligations contained in and derived from this Agreement, including any appendices and acknowledgments hereto.

21. Mandatory Documents and Reports of Supplementary Information. Seller shall promptly notify Buyer in writing if and when: (a) Seller enters into an agreement with any defendant to settle the Claim or any portion thereof; (b) Seller receives any notices or documents evidencing any receipt of payments or promises or makes payments with respect to the Claim; and (c) Seller's attorney receives any Proceeds with respect to the Claim.

22. Right to Notify Defendant. Buyer reserves the right to notify the defendant(s), the defendant(s) attorney(s) and/or defendant(s) insurance company(s) regarding this Agreement and to furnish them a copy of this Agreement.

23. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective successors-in-interest, heirs, executors, representatives, successors and assigns.

24. No Attorney-Client Relationship. Buyer is not engaged in the practice of law, and does not represent Seller as its attorney. Buyer assumes no obligations whatsoever with respect to the Claim.

25. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and there are no representations, warranties, covenants or obligations except as set forth herein. This Agreement supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, written or oral, between the parties hereto relating to any transaction contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement can be modified only in writing.

26. Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS (AS OPPOSED TO CONFLICT OF LAWS PROVISIONS) OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK. SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 27 BELOW, BUYER AND SELLER HEREBY SUBMIT TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT LOCATED IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN IN NEW YORK CITY, AND EACH WAIVES PERSONAL SERVICE OF ANY AND ALL PROCESS UPON IT AND CONSENTS THAT ALL SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS BE MADE BY REGISTERED MAIL DIRECTED TO THE ADDRESS SET FORTH IN THE FIRST PARAGRAPH OF THIS AGREEMENT AND SERVICE SO MADE SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE COMPLETED UPON RECEIPT THEREOF. BUYER AND SELLER HEREBY WAIVE ANY OBJECTION BASED ON FORUM NON CONVENIENS, AND ANY OBJECTION TO VENUE OF ANY ACTION INSTITUTED HEREBY AND CONSENTS TO THE GRANTING OF SUCH LEGAL OR EQUITABLE RELIEF AS IS DEEMED APPROPRIATE BY THE COURT. BUYER AND SELLER EACH HEREBY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO HAVE A JURY PARTICIPATE IN RESOLVING ANY DISPUTE, SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE ARISING OUT OF, CONNECTED WITH, RELATED TO, OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT. INSTEAD, ANY DISPUTE RESOLVED IN COURT WILL BE RESOLVED IN A BENCH TRIAL WITHOUT A JURY.

27. Arbitration. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including without limitation the interpretation, validity, enforceability or breach thereof, shall be settled by final, binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (hereinafter referred to as "AAA") in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitrator shall be a practicing attorney or a retired judge licensed to practice in the State of New York. The parties also agree that the AAA Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection shall apply to the proceedings. The arbitrator shall award to the prevailing party, if any, as determined by the arbitrator, all of its costs and fees. "Costs and fees" mean all pre-award expenses of the arbitration, including the arbitrator's fees, administrative fees, travel expenses, out-of-pocket expenses such as copying and telephone, court costs, witness fees, and attorney's fees. The award shall be in writing, shall be signed by the arbitrator, and shall include a statement regarding the reasons for the disposition of any claim.

CLIENT'S INITIALS

28. Waiver of Counterclaims. Seller waives all rights to interpose any claims, deductions, setoffs or counterclaims of any nature (other than compulsory counterclaims) in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement or any matter arising therefrom or relating hereto or thereto.

29. No Seller Bankruptcy. Seller hereby represents and warrants that it is now not subject to any bankruptcy proceeding or proceeding regarding the appointment of any trustee or receiver for all or any part of its property, and that it does not intend to file for bankruptcy at any time in the future and there are no lawsuits or other efforts by any of its creditors to put Seller into bankruptcy.

30. Treatment in Bankruptcy. In the event Seller commences, or has commenced against it, any case (or other proceeding) pursuant to any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law prior to Buyer's receipt of the LawMax Ownership Stake payable hereunder, Seller shall cause Buyer's entitlement hereunder to be described as an asset of Buyer in any oral or written communications, including, but not limited to, any schedule or other documents, made or filed in connection with any such case or proceeding. In no event shall Seller permit Buyer's interest, as contemplated herein, to be described as a debt or obligation of Seller to Buyer in any such communication.

31. Collection Expenses. In the event of any legal action or proceeding to interpret or enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable actual attorneys' fees and expenses incurred therein from the unsuccessful party.

32. Courier Expenses. In the event Seller requests the funds to be sent via overnight courier, Seller hereby authorizes Buyer to deduct TWENTY AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($20.00), or THIRTY AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($30.00) for Saturday delivery, from the Investment Amount for overnight delivery expenses.

33. Equal Bargaining Position. This Agreement shall be deemed to have been negotiated and drafted by both parties of equal bargaining position; its provisions shall be interpreted in accordance with the plain meaning of the words used and shall not be construed strictly in favor of, or against, either party.

34. Severability. The invalidity of any one or more of the words, phrases, sentences, clauses or sections contained in this Agreement shall not affect the enforceability of the remaining portions of this Agreement or any part thereof, all of which are inserted conditionally on their being valid in law, and, in the event that any one or more of the words, phrases, sentences, clauses, articles or sections contained in this Agreement shall be declared invalid, this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid word or words, phrase or phrases, sentence or sentences, clause or clauses, or section or sections had not been inserted. If such invalidity is caused by length of time or size of area, or both, the otherwise invalid provision will be considered to be reduced to the greatest period which would be valid.

35. Event of Default. In the event Seller breaches any of its obligations under this Agreement, such breach shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder.

36. No Circumvention; False Statements. Seller shall take no steps to circumvent the rights and obligations set forth in this Agreement in any way whatsoever and shall not attempt to avoid payment to Buyer. Seller shall not make any false statements to Buyer in connection with the Claim or this Agreement. Any breach of this article shall increase the LawMax Ownership Stake by FIFTY PERCENT (50 %).

Appendix I. IRREVOCABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY AND INSTRUCTIONS TO ATTORNEY

I, James Spencer, hereby irrevocably appoint Ronald N. Serota and the firm Corporate Law Center, and any other attorney or law firm that maybe added or substituted, as my true and lawful attorney-in-fact, in the name, place and stead, with full power to receive, sign, endorse and deposit into their trust account any check, agent or other financial instrument received in payment of my Claim as defined in the Agreement. This power of attorney shall remain in full force and be binding until LawMax Legal Finance is paid in full as set forth in the Agreement.

I further irrevocably instruct Ronald N. Serota and the firm Corporate Law Center, and any other attorney or law firm that maybe added or substituted, to place an irrevocable assignment, consensual lien and security interest against any and all of the Proceeds due to me from the Claim after payment of the attorney's fees and costs. I irrevocably instruct and direct Ronald N. Serota, the firm Corporate Law Center, or any other attorney or law firm that maybe added or substituted to protect and satisfy this assignment, consensual lien and security interest with respect to the LawMax Ownership Stake, which is set forth in Article 2 of the Agreement.

During the pendency of the Claim, I irrevocably instruct and direct Ronald N. Serota, the firm of Corporate Law Center, and any other attorney or law firm that maybe added or substituted, to provide written updates to LawMax Legal Finance at their request regarding the status of the Claim and any development that may be material to the Claim.

Upon the settlement, resolution, or any distribution of Proceeds related to the Claim, I irrevocably instruct and direct Ronald N. Serota, the firm of Corporate Law Center, and any attorney or law firm that may be added or substituted, to protect and satisfy this assignment, consensual lien and security interest in favor of LawMax Legal Finance before releasing any funds to me. If there is a dispute regarding this instrument or the Agreement, I irrevocably instruct and direct my attorney(s) not to release any funds to me until such dispute is resolved. I understand that LawMax Legal Finance has relied on this instrument to provide funding to me under the Agreement. In the event that Ronald N. Serota or the firm of Corporate Law Center ceases to represent me, I irrevocably instruct and direct Ronald N. Serota, the firm of Corporate Law Center, and any attorney or law firm that may be added or substituted to provide LawMax Legal Finance with information regarding the new attorney, applicable insurance, or any other information necessary for LawMax Legal Finance to protect their interest under the Agreement and to follow my irrevocable instructions that are contained in the Agreement and this instrument.

I fully read the Agreement and understand all the terms it contains. I also had the opportunity to ask questions regarding the Agreement and the transaction contained therein and all such questions have been answered. This instrument is a part of the Agreement and shall be decided by binding arbitration in the event a dispute arises relating hereto. This instrument may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which shall together constitute one agreement.

Appendix IIATTORNEY ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND UNDERTAKING

1. ~~The undersigned hereby acknowledges that he is the attorney of record for Seller. Seller's Claim is still pending against a viable defendant.~~
2. The undersigned hereby informs Buyer that liability, causation, and damages are contested in this Claim, there are no assurances that Seller will prevail, and there is substantial uncertainty as to the amount, if any, Seller may recover.
3. The undersigned hereby acknowledges notice of the provisions of the foregoing Agreement, including without limitation, the Irrevocable Power of Attorney and Instructions to Attorney in Appendix I to the Agreement, and agrees to disburse in compliance therewith the Proceeds, if any, recovered on behalf of Seller with respect to the Claim within five (5) business days of receiving cleared Proceeds.
4. The undersigned acknowledges that he is the custodian of Buyer's funds upon obtaining a recovery on behalf of Seller with respect to the Claim. The undersigned shall not distribute any funds to Seller prior to satisfying Buyer's lien in full, including in the event of any dispute between Seller and Buyer regarding this Agreement.
5. At Buyer's request, the undersigned hereby agrees to keep Buyer updated regarding any changes affecting this Claim and to provide written updates regarding the case status, including any new contact information for Seller.
6. The undersigned hereby agrees to notify Buyer in writing immediately upon any material change in the status of the Claim, including but not limited to settlement of the Claim, judgment, arbitration, dismissal of the Claim, disappearance, imprisonment or death of Seller, or lack of cooperation on the part of Seller. The undersigned further agrees to submit documentary proof, if any, with respect to any significant change in the status of the Claim, e.g., signed settlement release, judgment, arbitration decision, etc.
7. The undersigned hereby confirms that he has reviewed the Agreement and explained to Seller its terms, including the rate of return applied to calculate the amount to be paid by Seller to Buyer.
8. In the event the undersigned is terminated as Seller's attorney of record with respect to the Claim, the undersigned shall give Buyer immediate written notice thereof by certified mail, return receipt requested, and state the name, address and telephone number of Seller's new attorney of record.
9. The undersigned agrees not to approve, sign or acknowledge any funding (investment) agreement, lien, promissory note or other instrument between Seller and another individual or entity with respect to the Claim without the express written consent of Buyer.
10. The undersigned hereby represents to Buyer that he shall take no steps to circumvent the rights and obligations set forth in this Agreement in any way whatsoever. Any circumvention in violation of the provisions hereof shall increase Seller's obligation to Buyer by FIFTY PERCENT (50 %) in accordance with Article 36 of this Agreement.
11. This Attorney Acknowledgment and Undertaking shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the internal laws (as opposed to conflict of laws provisions) of the state of New York. Subject to Article 12 of this Appendix II, Buyer and the undersigned hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the state of New York and the United States district court located in the borough of Manhattan in New York City, and each waives personal service of any and all process upon it and consents that all such service of process be made by registered mail directed to the address set forth in the first paragraph of this agreement and service so made shall be deemed to be completed upon receipt thereof. Buyer and the undersigned hereby waive any objection based on forum non conveniens, and any objection to venue of any action instituted hereunder and consents to the granting of such legal or equitable relief as is deemed appropriate by the court. Buyer and the undersigned each hereby waives any right to have a jury participate in resolving any dispute, sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, related to, or in connection with this agreement. Instead, any dispute resolved in court will be resolved by a bench trial without a jury.

12. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Attorney Acknowledgement, including without limitation the interpretation, validity, enforceability or breach thereof, shall be settled by final, binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (hereinafter referred to as "AAA") in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitrator shall be a practicing attorney or a retired judge licensed to practice in the State of New York. The parties also agree that the AAA Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection shall apply to the proceedings. The arbitrator shall award to the prevailing party, if any, as determined by the arbitrator, all of its costs and fees. "Costs and fees" mean all pre-award expenses of the arbitration, including the arbitrator's fees, administrative fees, travel expenses, out-of-pocket expenses such as copying and telephone, court costs, witness fees, and attorney's fees. The award shall be in writing, shall be signed by the arbitrator, and shall include a statement regarding the reasons for the disposition of any claim.

13. To the best of the undersigned's information, knowledge and belief, Seller is of sound mind and memory at the time of reading and signing this Agreement, and is mentally and psychologically capable of fully understanding the nature, meaning and terms of this Agreement.

14. The undersigned shall not negotiate Buyer's lien with anyone other than Buyer. All reductions of Buyer's lien are void unless they are expressly authorized in writing by Buyer.

15. The undersigned hereby acknowledges that Seller unconditionally and irrevocably granted, assigned, transferred and conveyed the LawMax Ownership Stake set forth in Article 2 of the Agreement to Buyer. Said LawMax Ownership Stake is the exclusive property of Buyer, shall be held in trust by the undersigned for the benefit of Buyer, and shall not be subject to any liens, assignments, transfers, conveyances, deductions or setoffs of any kind whatsoever. The undersigned hereby further acknowledges that he has not been given any notice of liens, assignments, transfers or conveyances of any portion of the Proceeds of the Claim except as set forth herein.
