Re: Timothy Keith v. Jayvant Pujara
Appellate Case No. 2016-000906

Dear Mr. Pujara:

It has come to the Court's attention that counsel for Respondent has not provided written confirmation that the transcript does not need to be ordered. Pursuant to Rule 207, SCACR, the entire record must be ordered from the court reporter unless all parties otherwise agree in writing. Within ten days of the date of this letter, Mr. Burney is requested to provide his opinion on whether or not the transcript is needed in order to perfect this appeal.

The Court received Mr. Pujara's document titled "Initial Brief and Designation of Matter" on July 27, 2016. This document is not in compliance with Rules 208 and 209 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, and is being returned to Appellant. If Appellant intends to proceed with this appeal pro se, the fact that he is not an attorney does not relieve him of the responsibility to perfect his appeal in accordance with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. These rules are now available on the Internet at www.sccourts.org.

Very truly yours,

V. Claude Allen, Deputy
