Re: Reginald Evans v. Paces River Apartments
Appellate Case No: 2015-002157
Our File No.: 30113-00006

Dear Ms. Carter:

In reviewing the file, it has come to our attention that the appellant, Reginal Evans, did not request the correct transcript for this matter. On November 25, 2015, Mr. Evans filed a Motion to Order Transcript Outside Filing Deadlines at which time he states there was no hearing or transcript. On April 19, the court sent a deficiency letter in reference to Mr. Evans' filing on November 25. Prior to that date, however, he filed a Motion to Amend dated March 17, 2016, in which he attached a letter he sent to the court reporter requesting the transcript for case 2015-CP-46-02073 for a hearing held on August 13, 2015 (see attached). That requested transcript is not the correct transcript associated with this appeal. Mr. Evans should have requested a transcript for case 2015-CP-46-02223 for the hearing held on September 17, 2015. It is our belief that there should be a transcript for this matter as I appeared in court that day.

Furthermore, by copy of this letter to Mr. Evans, we request that he correct our address in his records. A copy of Mr. Evans' Motion to Amend was pulled from C-Track along with other documents he has filed with the court. It appears he sent those documents to 3225 Landmark Drive instead of 3255 Landmark Drive.

With kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,
