Re: The State v. Gary Curtis Fraley, Appellate Case No. 2015-001737

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of Appellant's letter dated July 11, 2016, informing the Court of an additional transcript, dated July 23, 2015, that was not ordered prior to the filing of his Initial Brief of Appellant. As Appellant notes, the State requested Appellant order this transcript pursuant to Rule 207(a)(1), SCACR. The State believes this transcript is relevant to this case and would like to review this transcript prior to the filing of its Initial Brief of Respondent.

In his letter, Appellant states: "it is my understanding the State desires the appeal be held in abeyance pending the receipt of the missing transcript. Given the circumstances, I do not oppose their request." The State does wish the deadline for filing its Initial Brief of Respondent be held in abeyance until this transcript is received. Please let me know if the State needs to file a formal motion to request this appeal be held in abeyance until this additional transcript is received.

Sincerely,

Megan Harrigan Jameson
