

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

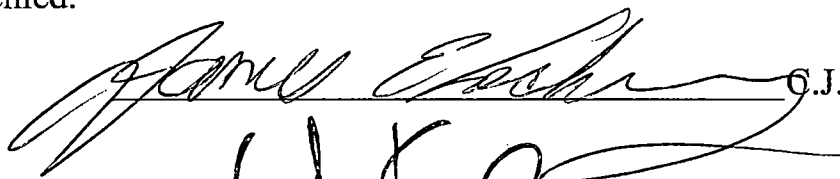

v.

Ray Lee Dominick, Jr., Appellant.

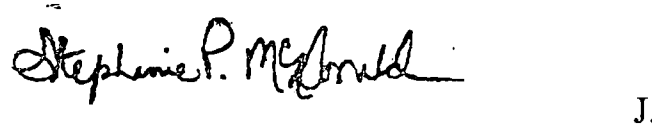

Appellate Case No. 2016-001169

ORDER

This appeal was dismissed due to Appellant's failure to timely serve the notice of appeal. Appellant has now filed a letter, which we construe as a petition to rehear the dismissal of this appeal. Because this court cannot extend the time for serving the notice of appeal,¹ there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.

¹ See Rule 263(b), SCACR ("The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended . . ."); Mears v. Mears, 287 S.C. 168, 337 S.E.2d 206 (1985) (explaining the notice of appeal is a jurisdictional requirement, and the appellate courts have no authority to extend the time in which the notice of intent to appeal must be served).
